ESCAPES TROOPS.

Nervy Bandit Safe Is Thought.

Trail Is Followed Sixteen Miles, but Is Lost at Nightfall.

Leaves Horse in Swamp and Makes Way on Foot in the Brush.

Cavalry Forced to Dismount, but Desperado Has a Good Lead.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BUTTE, Aug. 25.—A special to the Miner from Lake Hotel, Yellowstone Park, Wyo., says:

The lone bandit who yesterday morning held up sixteen stage coaches in Spring Creek Cañon, and robbed 120 persons, has apparently made good his escape, according to reports received this evening from scouting parties of cavalrymen. The bandit's trail was followed easily from the scene of the hold-up to a point about four miles south, where it was lost in a swamp, the outlaw abandoning his horse at this point and proceeding on foot.

Beyond this swamp the trail was found again after great difficulty, as the man's footmarks left little impression in the ground.

The trail was followed for twelve miles in a southwesterly direction, when it was lost altogether in another swamp, and it is now only a matter of chance luck of the desperado being apprehended.

There is no doubt that the bandit is headed for the famed Jackson Hole country in Wyoming, about forty miles from the scene of the robbery, and, with the night ahead of him, and being acquainted with the country, the chances are slim of his being captured.

The section of country through which the highwayman is fleeing is so rugged and covered with underbrush that pursuit on horseback is practically impossible and the soldiers are following on foot.

Contrary to expectations, the robber, up to the time his trail was lost, had not sought the high mountainous country, but had skirted along the foothills.

The Jackson Hole country is a favorite rendezvous for horse thieves, because of its remoteness from civilization and the abundance of game.

The sack used by the hold-up in which the tourists were compelled to drop their valuables, was found in the brush today several hundred yards from the scene of the robbery, together with the empty pocketbooks of the victims.

All efforts to learn the identity of those losing any considerable amount in the robbery, failed, and the Lake Hotel management, together with the Yellowstone Park transportation officials and the Wylie Company, refused to give any names whatever of the victims.

LONE BANDIT TOOK $10,000.

CALMLY HELD UP SIXTEEN COACHES IN LINE.

Soldiers and Scouts on Trail of Yellowstone Park Highwayman Make no Discovery—Desperado Well on Way to Jackson's Hole in Wild Country.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LIVINGSTON (Mont.) Aug. 25.—The total loss to the passengers in the sixteen coaches held up yesterday in Yellowstone Park by the lone highwayman is now estimated at $10,000 in money and an equal value in watches and jewelry.

The robber has not been apprehended, although Maj. Allen and a detachment of soldiers and scouts have been out on the trail all night. The chances for his escape are good, as the point at which the hold-up occurred is near the Jackson Hole country, famous as a refuge for criminals, and is reached from that part of the park by several different routes.

This, combined with the start the bandit gained while the coaches were making the drive of fifteen miles to the lake, makes his escape seem almost certain.

On the arrival at the lake, the victims notified the troops, and search was at once instituted, and later, with reinforcements from Fort Yellowstone, it was vigorously prosecuted under the personal supervision of Gen. Young, who commands the park garrison.

A reward of $1000 was also voted, but no clew has been found. The story of the hold-up, which has reached Livingston, the nearest point on the Northern Pacific Railway to the park, is as follows:

COOL AND DETERMINED.

Sixteen stage coaches traveling in a string were halted each in turn by a lone highwayman with two very large and business-like six-shooters, relieving the tourists of their money, jewelry and watches. The smoothness

FORT GRANT'S LONELY OFFICER ORDERED TO REPORT.

Must Ride Ninety Miles on Horseback in Twenty-one Hours, or Walk Fifty Miles in Twenty Hours, After Which He May Resume Command of One Enlisted Man.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Unless he walks fifty miles in twenty hours within a period of three days or rides ninety miles on horseback in twenty-one hours, also within a like period, Col. William F. Stewart, isolated at Fort Grant, Ariz., must go upon the retired list of the American Army.

Orders requiring him to take the physical test prescribed by President Roosevelt last May were issued at the War Department today.

If he stands the test, he must return to his "station" at Fort Grant to continue his association with one enlisted man and the creeping and flying pests that infest that region

The orders require him to repair to Fort Huachuca, Ariz., whenever Gen. E. B. Thomas, commanding officer of the Department of the Colorado, indicates, and submit to the test. But before he may ride or walk he must be examined by a board of army surgeons, the duty of which will be to determine whether his physical condition warrants him in making the trial of endurance.

Fort Huachuca is a four troop cavalry post about 100 miles from Fort Grant. The fact that Col. Stewart was ordered there indicates that he has expressed a preference for the riding test and that he has been sent to the nearest place where he can get a suitable mount.

NESTOR OF ST. LOUIS BAR MISSING IN COLORADO.

Roderick E. Rombauer, Who Went for Mountain Climb on Sunday Has not Returned and Fears Are Entertained for His Safety—Search Proves Fruitless.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ESTES PARK (Colo.) Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Judge Roderick E. Rombauer, nestor of the bar of St. Louis, Mo., where he has served many terms as probate, circuit and appellate judge, is lost in the Colorado mountains and, although he has been an expert mountain climber, is believed to have perished.

Judge Rombauer came to the Horseshoe ranch, Estes Park, from his St. Louis home, August 1. He went to Hallett's Glacier Sunday with Harry Wiswall, guide, Peter Van Valkenburg of Rockford, Ill., and three women. After reaching the glacier in the afternoon Judge Rombauer was missed. Some of the party said he had remarked some time before that he was going to climb Hage's Peak.

Hundreds began looking for the missing jurist immediately, but no traces of him have been found, and it is feared he died of cold and exposure. He is 76 years old, but remarkably vigorous, and still in very active practice as a lawyer. He visited Estes Park last summer and liked it so well he came again this summer, leaving his family in St. Louis. He was a Hungarian patriot in 1849, and recently Federal Commissioner in the government suit to end the terminal railway monopoly.

DR. BURDETTE FOUND SO MANY IRISH IN IRELAND.

Famous Preacher-Humorist Tells "The Times" Correspondent in New York of Impressions Gained During His Tour of the United Kingdom. Homeward Bound.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rev. Robert J. Burdette, D. D., humorist and preacher, has arrived here yesterday, after a jaunt through the United Kingdom. Mr. Burdette brought back a quantity of Irish humor. Where fashionable folks go to Paris for ideas, he goes to Cork. Some of the fun got away when The Times correspondent called to see Mr. Burdette at the Hotel Seville tonight. The rest will be sprung later on his congregation in Los Angeles.

"The thing that surprised me most in Ireland was that there are so many Irish there," said Mr. Burdette. "I thought they were all on the New York police force. Ireland is the most beautiful country in the world, but is just as poor as it is beautiful. Outside of Glengariff we met an old woman who ran a little tea shop. It developed that she had lived in New York for two years.

"'How did you happen to return to the old country?' I asked her. 'Sure and I would rather be poor in Ireland than be poor in New York.'

"I've heard various arguments in favor of the British monarchy, and I've heard even my own countrymen run down the United States government, but with all our faults we haven't got an Ireland one day from the White House. The situation there and the poverty are deplorable. But the people have their wits and the children learn to gather in the coppers young.

"'Madam, can I show you the way for a penny?' said a little urchin to my wife in Cork. 'The way where?' she asked. 'Wherever you are going,' was the reply.

"The principal occupation of the English is to eat chops and drink tea. When they are not doing that they are drinking tea and eating chops. The issue in the coming campaigns of England and this country is the same—the tariff. Everything mostly is admitted into England free. They even let me in; but my wife was stopped and asked very sharply: 'Have you got any whisky or tobacco?'

"Our ocean trip was uneventful. It reminded me of the little boy who tried to keep a diary. The first day he wrote: 'Got up, washed, ate, and went to bed.' His second day's account read: 'Forgot what I did.' The voyage left me as rugged as a bad habit.

"We were delighted to get to New York. It is the most fascinating city in the world. When it comes to cleanliness New York has not an equal."

"And when it comes to dressing show windows the other nations must take a back seat," chimed in Mrs. Burdette. "Regent street in London doesn't hold a candle to Broadway. They don't know what pretty shop windows are abroad."

Mr. and Mrs. Burdette left New York for Chicago and Los Angeles shortly after 9 o'clock tonight.

"We will be mighty glad to get back to Los Angeles," said Mr. Burdette, "but it is with more or less reluctance that we pass up this splendid stationary bed. It is the first one we have seen for ten days and now for the next five days we will have to ride in one that meets you half way. We are a good deal like the man who, after his ocean trip, couldn't get into his bed at the hotel, declaring that it kept going past him every time and his companion cried out, 'Grab it the next time it goes by.'"

CUPID'S REVENGE.

EARLE BEATS AFFINITY AND LANDS IN JAIL.

New Yorker Who Cast Off Faithful Wife for His Soul Mate Pleads Guilty to Charge of Cruelty and Refuses to Give Bail.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MIDDLETOWN (N. Y.) Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ferdinand Pinney Earle is in jail on a charge of brutally beating his present wife, who, as Julia Kuttner, figured as his affinity when he sent his former wife back to her parents in France.

The complainant against him is his wife's mother. He was arraigned today before Justice Carpenter of Monroe, charged with assault in the second degree.

The complaint cited that on or about August 18 Earle had brutally beaten his wife (Julia Kuttner) with his fist and otherwise mistreated her.

When arraigned before Justice Carpenter he was smiling and refused to have anything to do with the proceedings, appearing to consider them beneath his dignity. Dignity did not go, however, and he was asked to plead to the charge of assault. He pleaded guilty and was held to await the action of the grand jury.

LANDS IN JAIL.

When asked if he wished to give bail, Earle stated that he did not, and that he would go to jail. He plainly thought that he was being badly treated.

Earle was at once brought to Goshen, where he was locked up in the County Jail. As the grand jury does not meet until October, it is probable that he will get tired of his quarters in the jail and will be glad to be released on bail.

But he will not go back to Mrs. Earle. Immediately after the arrest of the artist, Mrs. Earle, with her infant child and a nurse, hurried from the Earle home and went to relatives, where, it is said, she will remain until after the trial.

CRUELLY TREATED.

It is said that Mrs. Earle has not been well for some time and that she and her infant son have been cruelly treated. At the time the Sheriff's automobile departed with Earle, another machine was waiting in the driveway in front of the house.

The officers had no sooner departed with the prisoner than Mrs. Earle, her baby, nurse and her brother, who acted as chauffeur, entered the automobile and hurried away in the direction of Central Valley, where Mrs. Earle and her child will remain with friends for the present.

Mrs. Earle took with her only her clothing and such other articles as she had brought with her to the Earle home. It is not known whether she has left the place for good, but it is believed she has decided that she is through with Earle for all time.

Big Brokerage Firm Goes Under.

Crash Follows Spectacular and Suspicious Saturday Trading.

Liabilities Estimated at Over Million—Wall Street Is Nervous.

Member of Concern Denies Any Connection With Lawson.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The failure of the big brokerage firm of A. O. Brown & Co., for a sum possibly estimated as running well above $1,000,000, sent a nervous thrill through the stock market today.

Coming as a climax to the bewildering trading in last Saturday's market, the suspension created an extraordinary degree of public interest, but was looked upon by high Stock Exchange interests as offering an early solution of the tangle growing out of the most remarkable two hours' session the New York Stock Exchange has known in many years.

While there was no question in Wall Street this afternoon that the situation created by today's failure could easily be taken care of, there was distinctly a feeling of apprehension lest other firms might unwittingly be drawn into the affair as a result of the extensive orders scattered through commission houses during Saturday's spectacular operations.

STATEMENT DELAYED.

The transactions of A. O. Brown & Co. covered nearly 70 per cent. of the trading in the sensational week-end session of the stock market, and it was stated officially by a member of the firm today that the delivery had been made on only 275,000 of the more than 700,000 shares handled. How many of the outstanding shares represent the dealings of customers and how many were carried on the firm's account, it was impossible to learn.

A definite statement of the affairs of the suspended house was promised at 5 o'clock this afternoon by E. F. Buchanan, a managing partner, but at 6 o'clock Mr. Buchanan stated that he desired to consult further with friends before making an authoritative announcement.

The afternoon was filled with rumors as to various outside sources that may have been responsible for the course of the firm in Saturday's market when the total sales recorded on the floor of the exchange for the two hours of trading amounted to more than 1,100,000 shares, as against one-third of a million during the full five hours' session of Monday, but most of these rumors were dissipitated.

DENIES LAWSON CONNECTION.

Mr. Buchanan himself announced positively that the firm had had no relations whatever with Thomas W. Lawson.

Announcement of the failure was made on the stock exchange at 1:35 o'clock p.m., when the market was ranging from one to three points higher than the closing of yesterday. There had been heavy buying during the morning hours, presumably on the part of the broker's attempt to fill the uncovered orders of Saturday, and for a time prices were maintained. The market closed heavy and uneasy, however, at a decline.

A. O. Brown & Co. were members of the New York Stock Exchange, New York Cotton Exchange, Chicago Stock Exchange, Chicago Board of Trade, and the Cleveland Stock Exchange. They had branch houses in Chicago, Cleveland, Buffalo, Erie, Pa., and Toronto. In this city they maintained expensive branch offices in four of the fashionable hotels, and at two uptown addresses. Their principal office was at No. 30 Broad street, a few doors from the Stock Exchange building.

EXPENSIVE OFFICES.

Within the last few months the firm had spent $75,000 in refurnishing its Broad street home.

The membership of the firm included Albert O. Brown, Lewis Ginter Young, G. Lee Stout, Edward F. Buchanan, Samuel C. Brown, and W. Rhea Whitman.

Private wires were maintained to all principal cities.

The extensive trading of the firm, it is believed, was confined largely to New York, despite the fact that the house has made a specialty of Western business.

Although organized in the latter part of 1902, the firm had come to take an important part in trading on the stock exchange floor.

John W. Rhoades, cashier of the firm, was named as assignee, with D. W. Noel as counsel.

When the failure was announced a member of the firm said that its affairs were in a badly tangled condition as the result of Saturday's trading, and that it was thought best to make an assignment at once.

PRESSED BY BROKERS.

It is understood that brokerage firms who were awaiting the delivery of stock from A. O. Brown & Co., became impatient along toward noon to-

BURDEN OF SIN.

HYPOCRITE IS EXPOSED.

Calls for Converts, Mother of His Child Appears.

Lays Babe at His Feet and He Has to Confess.

"She Tempted Me and I Fell"—His Only Excuse.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At the close of religious exercises at Union Mission, No. 1920 Franklin avenue, last night, while John Hutcherson of No. 123 Third street, East St. Louis, Ill., was pleading with his comrades to come forward to the mourner's bench and seek forgiveness for their sins, a girl 20 years old went forward, laid her month-old baby on the altar, denounced the exhorter and fled.

"Here is your little burden of sin," she said to the man who had invited the repentant to come forward.

A wail came from the bundle she had laid at his feet. It was the wail of an infant. The man dropped his arms and looked at the bundle on the floor with eyes from which the light of ecstacy had fled; terror had taken its place.

Instantly there was an uproar. Women rushed forward to the baby. The woman who had laid it at the exhorter's feet was pushed aside. The meeting broke up without others coming to the front, and the baby was left on the floor until a motherly woman pushed through the crowd and picked it up. She was a Jewess.

On the baby's dress was pinned a letter, in which it was told that it was 24 days old and that its father was John Hutcherson and its mother Cora Thompson.

John N. Hutcherson, the man at whose feet the baby was laid, and whom the mother accused of being its father, has been for five years a "worker" in the missions of the city. He has given testimony of his Christian life and has prayed with sinners. He has been an unordained preacher in the Union Mission for a long time.

"The woman tempted me and I fell," he quoted, when he was asked if the woman's accusation that he was the father of the child was true.

"I hardly know how it happened, but we became more and more intimate, and finally we lived together until last October, when she left me and was away until December. All the time I was attending the meetings of the Union Mission, praying and exhorting men to come to the throne of grace."

"How did you reconcile your conduct with Cora Thompson and your preaching in the mission?" he was asked.

"I did not reconcile it at all," was the answer. "I was a backslider. I had been led off and had fallen from grace. June 28 I met her and told her if she was going to hell I was not, and that I was going to quit leading such a life and return to the fold. I have been a wicked man, but I am whole again and have returned to a Christian life."

PERIL IN USE OF NEGRO LABORERS.

SPRINGFIELD EMPLOYERS GET THREATENING LETTERS.

Flood of Anonymous Letters Growing in Volume Daily Since Recent Disturbances Receives Attention of State and Federal Authorities—Barber Shops and Hotels Without Help.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) Aug. 25.—Employers of negro labor in Springfield are being threatened by a flood of anonymous letters which has been growing in volume daily since the recent race riots. For the first few days it was thought the letters were the work of boys or irresponsibles, but yesterday the condition of affairs was found to justify an investigation by Gov. Deneen. A delegation of negroes visited the Governor and promised to coöperate with the law-abiding whites in investigating the letters. Furthermore, secret service officers of the Federal government are in Springfield trying to run down the writers of the letters. There is evidence to indicate there is an organization of some sort behind the sending of the letters.

As a result of the race war, barber shops and hotels are without negro help, and Springfield lacks its usual quota of bootblacks. A census of the negroes is being taken to determine how many of them are out of employment.

Members of the Seventh Illinois Infantry comment on the fact that apparently respectable people in talking to them about the situation say dispassionately that "as soon as you fellows are gone we will have to get rid of these blacks. Springfield must be a white town."

STEEL MILLS REOPENING.

Illinois Company Puts on Five Hundred More Men for Rush of Orders.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—A forerunner of the revival of good times in the steel industry was seen yesterday when the Illinois Steel Company employed 500 men at its South Chicago plant. The officials expect to put 500 more men at work the first of next week. Of the 7000 men normally employed in the mill, only 4000 have been working the past few months.

The mills are now rushed for orders, and will increase the force through the winter. The new shift put to work yesterday is the first large employment made since the beginning of the year.

The fastest time from Cherbourg to New York over the course of 3069 miles was made by the steamer Kron Prinzessin Cecilie which arrived yesterday. The time of the passage was five days, eleven hours, nine minutes, with an average speed of 23.25 knots.

UNWRITTEN LAW.

ANNIS BOASTED, TO BE HAINS'S DEFENSE.

Witness Found Who Will Testify That Dead Man Told Publicly of His Relations With Mrs. Hains, Thereby Provoking the Shooting.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Boasts made publicly by William E. Annis of his relations with Mrs. Claudia Libbey Hains, drove Capt. Peter C. Hains to kill the man he believed had wrecked his home, according to the story of a new witness, given to lawyers for the defense today. According to this witness, who will be called at the trial of Capt. Hains and his brother, Capt. Hains heard of Annis's boasts, made in the presence of others.

It was this that drove him to his desperate act of vengeance, it is said. The testimony of this witness will be used in order to refute Mrs. Hains.

Joseph A. Shay, of counsel for Hains, after a visit to the brothers in their cells in the Queens County Jail in Long Island City today, said:

"If Mrs. Hains makes any statement justifying herself, she will be arrested by Annis's own statements. We have found a witness who will take the stand and swear that Annis boasted publicly of his relations with Capt. Hains's wife. His own words will be repeated on the witness stand and they will justify Capt. Hains for killing him."

Meantime Capt. Hains is either sane or insane, according to which paper you read. Says one:

"Keepers at the Queens County Jail said today that they had begun to notice strange actions on the part of Capt. Peter C. Hains, Jr., who, with his brother, Thornton Jenkins Hains, is awaiting trial for killing William E. Annis."

The next one avers that Sheriff Harvey says:

"Capt. Peter C. Hains, Jr., is behaving like a sane man at the Queens County Jail. He obeys the rules of the institution, eats and sleeps well and his actions are entirely rational."

The loss to the wagon works company is $[illegible],000 and to the plant of the Omaha Saddle Tree Company about $20,000. Second Note Sent Netherlands Government Does not Afford Much Encouragement to Persevere in Efforts for Peaceful Settlement—Blockade Only Logical Recourse.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

THE HAGUE, Aug. 25.—M. de Reus, the former Minister of The Netherlands to Venezuela, arrived here this afternoon from the West Indies, and went at once to the Foreign Office to report concerning the difficulty between his government and President Castro.

The Netherlands government today received an unofficial copy of the second notoe sent to it by Foreign Minister Paul of Venezuela in connection with the difficulty. Its general tone does not give the Netherlands government much encouragement to persevere in its attempts to reach a peaceful settlement with Venezuela.

BLOCKADE ONLY SOLUTION.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at The Hague says that after discussing the Venezuelan affair with diplomats there, he has arrived at the conclusion that there can be no such question of war as advocated by those who are calling upon the Dutch government to take forcible action, because, says the correspondent, "in the first place Venezuela has no navy worth mentioning, and in the second place, apart from the fact that the Monroe doctrine would prevent the Dutch from landing, the Dutch warships could do nothing against Venezuela's steep cliffs, and that portion of the Dutch army destined for service in the colonies is far too small to effect anything.

"On the other hand, insults to national honor are not matters for arbitration; therefore, the only course left is a blockade, which would hit Castro in the only weak spot—his purse. When President Castro finds that every additional day of blockade reduces the revenues from import duties, he will soon climb down. Further, the absolute standstill of shipping business would cause dissatisfaction in Venezuela; with the probable sequel of pronunciamentoes and a new President."

EXPERT MINER FROM BELGIUM.

VICTOR W. WATTEYNE COMES TO STUDY CONDITIONS.

One of Board of Three Foreigners to Assist Bureau of Geodetic Survey in Preventing Loss of Life in Underground Work—To Visit Sealed Mine in Wyoming.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Victor W. Watteyne, chief of the Belgian Department of Mines, was a passenger on the Red Star liner Kroonland, which arrived in port today. Chief Watteyne comes as the guest of the United States government, and will be consulted by the Bureau of Geodetic Survey in its coming investigation of the mining conditions in this country. Congress has appropriated $150,000 for this purpose.

Capt. Desbrough of England, and A. Meismer of Germany, both expert mining engineers, will come later to join Chief Watteyne.

In the United States there are 3200 deaths due to accidents every year in the mines, or three to every 1000 mining employés. Speaking of the tremendous death date, Chief Watteyne said:

"In Belgium, where the mines are the oldest in Europe, and the most dangerous and deepest in the world, the death rate is only one man in 1000—a very good record considering the extremely hazardous nature of the work. I expect to be very much interested in my coming study of American mining conditions."

Chief Watteyne left promptly for Pittsburgh. He will go from there to Hanna, Wyo., to study a sealed mine, in which during ten years over 300 miners lost their lives.

Chief Watteyne will suggest some scheme by which it can be worked with safety.

Distance at Which Rifle Is Heard Reduced from 7700 Yards to 1500 Yards With Little Decrease of Bullet's Velocity—Inventor Personally Superintends Test.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SPRINGFIELD (Mass.) Aug. 25.—The official test of Hiram P. Maxim's gun silencer was made by officers stationed at the United States armory here yesterday. The test, it is said, proved the claim of the inventor.

The device was attached to a regular army rifle which is manufactured here. The test was made on the regular range, relays of signalers being stationed at intervals. It was found that while the discharge of the unequipped rifle is audible 7700 yards, with the silencer this distance was cut down to 1500 yards. Further tests were made to determine whether the silencer interfered with the velocity of the bullet and it was found that this interference was slight, reducing the velocity not more than 5 or 6 per cent.

Mr. Maxim came from his home in Hartford to oversee the trials.

Manager of Branch of Steel Trust Gives up Companion of Adversity to Take Beautiful Woman to Share His New Prosperity on Island of Elba, Where He Lives.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Emulating the example set by William E. Corey, his former superior officer, Brunt McClain, who for a number of years held a responsible position with the National Tube Works at McKeesport, a subsidiary company of the United States Steel Corporation, has discarded the wife with whom he had lived in less prosperous days, and will soon wed a wealthy Italian woman. Information to this effect reached Pittsburgh today from the historic Isle of Elba, where McClain is now living.

Several years ago McClain went to the Isle of Elba, leaving his wife behind him. He secured a position with the steel company there, and his rise has been rapid. For a time he wrote to his wife regularly, but finally his letters grew less and less cordial, and after a time they ceased altogether.

Mrs. McClain made many attempts to again get into communication with her husband, but all her efforts failed. Then, when realizing she had been deserted, she brought suit for divorce, which was granted her.

Daniel J. Vaughn, a friend of McClain's, returned from the Isle of Elba today. He says as soon as McClain learned that his wife had been granted a divorce he announced his engagement to the Italian woman. They will be married next month. McClain was a Protestant, but became a Catholic in order that he might wed the Italian.

Most Sensational Scene Since Sessions Held in Presence of Troops. Judge Adams Fines Attorneys Who Tried to Make Him Vacate for Contempt.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

JACKSON (Ky.) Aug. 25.—The most sensational session of the Breathitt Circuit Court held since Judge Carnes was here with the troops at the trials of the late Judge Hargis was held today on the calling of the case of Beech Hargis for the murder of his father, John Hargis. The courtroom was packed with spectators.

Judge Adams overruled the motion of the defendant requiring him to vacate the bench and directed the clerk to enter a fine of $20 each against Senator W. O. Bradley, Judge D. B. Redwine, J. J. Bach, Will A. Young and T. T. Coop, counsel for the defense, who filed the affidavit asking him to vacate. Judge Adams said the action of the attorneys in preparing the affidavit and filing it now is a contempt of court.

He said, he would discharge his duty and refuse to vacate.

The commonwealth attorney then moved for a change of venue. The defense stated they were unprepared to guard against this and the hearing was postponed until Thursday

Gymkhana Held at Sydney for Americans.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SYDNEY (N. S. W.) Aug. 26.—Rear-Admiral Sperry, commander of the American fleet, and the other admirals returned on board the ships today. Arrangements are now being completed for the departure to Melbourne early tomorrow morning.

The British cruisers Powerful and Challenger sailed this morning for Melbourne.

One hundred of the officers and men made an excursion today to Parramatta, for the purpose of receiving an illuminated address which the residents desired to present. They remained there for some time, enjoying a view of the district and points of historical interest.

After the recent reception on board the battleship Connecticut, it was found that a large number of the spoons and forks inscribed with the name of the flagship, were missing. They were probably taken as mementoes, but the officers, accustomed to such things, charitably suggested that they were eaten with the ices and cakes.

HONORS ARE DIVIDED.

A gymkhana was held at the Royal Agricultural Society's grounds yesterday, and the athletics brought out a big crowd. The programme began at 11 o'clock in the morning, and the contests did not come to an end until after 4 o'clock this afternoon. In addition to the militia and navel sports, there were buck jumping and boomerang-throwing contests.

The men enjoyed the day thoroughly. In the tug of war the team from the British warships defeated the American sailors. In the 300-yard foot race Brown of the British cruiser Pioneer was first, Therry of the American battleship New Jersey second, and Swanson of the same vessel third.

The Americans were victorious in one of the baseball games, the fleet team defeating New South Wales, 4 to 3. In the other game, the University of Sydney team defeated a team from the battleship Missouri, 8 to 0. There was a fight for the lightweight boxing championship of the fleet at Athletic Hall, in which Lynch of the battleship Ohio drew with Kelly of the Missouri in the eighth round.

LORD MAYOR'S RECEPTION.

In the course of the afternoon thousands of the people of Sydney visited the battleships and were shown over them by the officers and men. It rained hard all the afternoon, but this was not sufficient to deter the excursionists.

Last evening the city was illuminated as usual.

The Lord Mayor gave a reception to about 2000 persons, including Lord Northcote, Governor-General of Australia, and Lady Northcote; Admiral Sir Harry Rawson, Governor of New South Wales, and his wife; Vice-Admiral Sir Richard Poore, commander-in-chief of the British squadron in Australian waters, and his wife, and the senior officers of the American fleet. The commonwealth tonight entertained about 2000 American officers and sailors at theater parties.

The general behavior of the Americans on shore continues to be most exemplary. An incident occurred today, however, which shows how keenly the men resent anything that would tend to destroy their excellent record in this direction. A negro sailor insulted a bar maid, whereupon four white sailors at once interfered and handled the colored man very severely. The offender was taken back to his ship.

JAPS' OPPORTUNITY IN VISIT OF FLEET.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOKIO, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Kokumin Shimbun says it is not surprised at the warm welcome given by Australia to the American fleet in view of the Anglo-Saxon kinship, just as the Hawaiian welcome was cordial because of the territorial relations between the islands and the United States.

Nevertheless, continues the paper, the busybodies who, prior to the fleet's departure, predicted war with Japan, are now, when the fleet is approaching the coast of Japan, agitating for an American-Chinese alliance against Japan. The coming visit of the warships, therefore, affords Japan a fine opportunity to dispel the prevalent misconceptions and prove the mutual friendships of the two nations.

COMPETITION FOR PACKERS.

RIVAL TO BEEF TRUST IS BUILDING PLANT.

Independent Concern Is Starting Stock Yards and Packing-house in Chicago, Expecting to Cut Prices in Every Direction and Give Better Profits to Stock Raisers.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—Competition is scheduled to make its appearance in the beef trade about October 1.

An independent concern has been incorporated, under the name of Chicago Stock Yards & Transit Company, as a rival of the Union Stock Yards & Transit Company. The independent concern has purchased twenty acres of land at Thirty-ninth street and Forty-eighth avenues and is building great cattle pens, and a packing-house. It has a capital stock of $2,500,000, of which $1,500,000 is to be spent for the packing-house and other structures.

Real competition is announced to begin October 1, although the concern is doing a small business now, but has no downtown distributing points. According to H. W. Rockwell, one of the incorporators, the benefits of competition will be enjoyed by the cattle raiser, the butcher and consumer. This, he said, would result from the fact that the new company intends to cut under the regular schedule of prices maintained by the Union Stock Yards in every particular.

The other incorporators are J. S. Lovall, a former banker; D. U. Bang a horse raiser in La Clede, Ill., and John J. Jones, of Rock Island. It is to be coöperative and they will draw no salary.

The president of the Union Stock Yards Company denied that the new concern would affect the prices of meats so far as stock yards are concerned.

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Aug. 25.—A woman giving her name as Mrs. A. M. Sullivan in Tucson, a few days ago, was arrested here this evening under the alias of Mrs. Nellie Hall at the instance of the Tucson authorities, charged with petty larceny and uttering fraudulent checks.

After the arrest she admitted her identity, and it was learned she had filled out a deposit slip on a Phoenix bank for $800 and attempted to draw a $10 check against it. The woman is accompanied by two handsome daughters, aged 8 and 10, and tells a pitiful story of being left to support herself after divorcing a cruel and intemperate husband.

BABY FARM CLOSED.

Eighteen Pallid Children Taken from Squalid Home in San Francisco.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—As a result of the visit of Secretary M. J. White of the Prevention of Cruelty to Children Society, yesterday to the "baby farm" conducted by Mrs. Sevenoaks, eighteen pallid tots, nine of them too young to walk, were removed from the "farm" and scattered through the various charitable institutions of the city. The conditions at the farm were terrible, and the society officer at once ordered the place closed, as it was so squalid as to endanger the health of the children. Nearly all of the children were suffering from throat and skin disorders.

The inspector found the nine babies huddled in a room that was almost without light and air, sleeping in dirty and unhealthy bedding, thrust into baskets. In the five remaining rooms, adults and the nine older children were living and the same filthy conditions obtained everywhere.

Mrs. Sevenoaks had no record of the names or residences of the parents of her charges and had not gone through the formality of securing the consent of the city before beginning her business.

The loss on the building, owned by James Whalen of Castella, is $3000. Postmaster Samuel Black lost the stock of his store and furniture valued at $2500. The total insurance is $3300.

Harry Roberts, who was asleep in a room in the second story of the building, was rescued after part of the upper floor had fallen in. He owes his life to William Hagglund who carried him unconscious, through a window and down a ladder. Roberts's hair, beard and eyebrows were burned from his face.

Mrs. Julian H. Arnold Returns to Berkeley After Thrilling Adventures in Formosa.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

BERKELEY, Aug. 25.—Mrs. Julian H. Arnold, wife of the American Consul at Formosa, is in this city visiting friends, having recently arrived from [illegible] Arnold has the distinction of being the first white woman to penetrate into several of the almost unknown regions of Formosa, and at one time spent eight days in the midst of the wild head-hunters of the island with only a few Japanese soldiers to protect her. She had gone into the forest on a mission for her husband to the natives and her little party was surrounded by the wild warriors, each armed with knife and spear and many of them wearing freshly-taken scalps at their belts, trophies of a desperate battle which had taken place four days before with a rival tribe.

At first the natives were inclined to doubt the peaceful intent of Mrs. Arnold and her party, and assumed a threatening attitude. True to her Anglo-Saxon blood, Mrs. Arnold coolly faced the gigantic chief of the tribe, and forced him to believe that her mission was a friendly one, and when she returned home the plucky white woman bore with her the leather suit and war knife of the chief as a peace offering.

Mrs. Arnold was formerly Miss Clara G. Davis of this city, a graduate of the State University, class of 1904. She will shortly rejoin her husband at his new station, Amoy, China.

BLOWN TO SEA BY BLIZZARD.

Two Sailors from Schooner Fremont Rescued in Arctic Waters After Ordeal.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The fishing schooner City of Papeete, arriving here today from the Arctic, brings the story of the rescue of Charles Anson and George Jordan, members of the crew of the schooner Fremont, after they had been adrift for forty-eight hours on the icy sea in a small boat. The two men set out in the schooner's dory to fish when a blizzard came up and blew them far out to sea.

The storm continued for two days and the half-frozen fishers were completely exhausted when sighted by the City of Papeete and taken on board.

Jordan remained in a comatose condition for three days and Anson was also in a serious condition. After a week they were returned to their own vessel.

INK-THROWER AT 'VARSITY.

RUINS CO-ED'S GOWN.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

BERKELEY, Aug. 25.—The police are disturbed over the appearance of the much-talked-of ink thrower on the university campus here. Yesterday Miss Leila McKibben, a college girl, was walking across the campus in company with a number of friends. A man passed her, going in the other direction and jostled her as he went by. She did not notice anything out of the way at the time, but a little later her friends saw several big ink spots on her gown. By that time the man had disappeared and as the members of the party did not pay particular attention to his appearance there is little hope of a capture.

CHINESE PURSUE CLUBMAN.

ANGRY AT AUTO.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—Eugene de Coulon, secretary of the Cosmos Club of this city, was pursued by a mob of angry Chinese yesterday after his automobile had struck a six-year-old Chinese lad in the Chinese quarter, and the timely appearance of two policemen was probably all that saved the club man from rough handling.

The car in which de Coulon was riding, while rounding a corner struck Sam Yong, the boy falling unconscious. De Coulon stopped and got out, but a crowd of Chinese had gathered and became so threatening in their attitude that the club man decided to seek safety in flight.

The mob pursued him for some distance, but two patrolmen appeared and the Chinese drew off when de Coulon returned and took the boy to a hospital. De Coulon was placed under arrest charged with battery and released on $20 bail.

POLITICAL.

TAFT RECEIVES MANY CALLERS.

Talks With Wade H. Ellis of Legal Position.

Meets Warm Delegation from North Dakota.

Gets Promise of Illinois from Senator Hopkins.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

HOT SPRINGS (Va.) Aug. 25.—While announcement cannot be definitely made, Mr. Taft today gave it as his belief that Wade H. Ellis, Attorney-General of Ohio, will accept the position of assistant to the Attorney-General, to succeed Milton D. Purdy, who has been promoted to a Federal judgeship in Minnesota.

This opinion was expressed after a conference between Mr. Ellis and Mr. Taft here today.

Optimistic political information was brought to Mr. Taft from several sources today. Though he participated in several conferences, none of them, he said was at his initiative. Senator P. J. McCumber of North Dakota, bringing with him James Kennedy, Republican national committeeman from that State, were unannounced visitors. Mr. Taft was informed that North Dakota wanted to be included in any speechmaking itinerary that might be arranged for him.

Speaking for his own State, as well as for Minnesota, Montana and South Dakota, Senator McCumber predicted that very little, if any, change would be found in the electoral votes. It had been demonstrated there, he said, that State issues and local differences in the party had little, if any, effect on the national situation.

Senator Albert J. Hopkins, of Illinois, who was a visitor, believes the Republican national and State tickets will be successful in Illinois to the extent of 100,000 majority, although he concedes that Gompers may turn some labor votes to Bryan.

"But" added Senator Hopkins, "my opinion is that Bryan's record as a free trader will more than offset the votes he will get from Gompers."

Judge Taft was informed today of the formation of the First Polish Taft Club organized in this country. Its home is in Minneapolis. George T. Kozlewiski, chairman, writes:

"We feel confident that we can promise you the almost unanimous vote of the Polish-American citizens of Minnesota."

Senator Hopkins of Illinois and McCumber of North Dakota were political pilgrims today. Senator Hopkins has been in Washington in connection with the Tariff Commission work and came here on his way to Chicago, "just to pay my respects to the next President of the United States," he said.

The notification speech was made by Theodore A. Bell of California, chairman of the committee selected at Denver to officially inform Mr. Kern.

William J. Bryan, candidate for President, was present and spoke at length on the subject of trusts.

The meeting was called to order by Thomas Taggart, member of the National Committee from Indiana, who relinquishes the gavel to Norman E. Mack, chairman of the National Committee, who presided throughout the meeting.

Following the meeting, Mr. and Mrs. Kern entertained Mr. Bryan and the visiting Democratic leaders at the Country Club for dinner.

Mr. Bryan left tonight over the Vandalia Railroad for Salem, Ill., where tomorrow he will speak at his birthplace, and will go from there to Topeka, Kan., and then to Lincoln.

Twenty members of the Notification Committee represented as many States at the meeting. Special trains on the railroad and traction lines brought the crowds here, and 500 street cars were used to transport the people to and from the fair grounds.

Today was ideal. The crowds lined the streets, and Mr. Bryan was greeted with a continuous wave of applause as he passed.

Mr. Kern's speech was, in part, a reply to the speech of Mr. Sherman, in accepting the Republican Vice-Presidential nomination. He devoted some time to the question: "Shall the People Rule?"

THREE ARRESTED IN DETROIT ON CHARGE.

Employee of Street Railway Company Involved in Scheme to Circulate Bogus Slips, Several Thousand of Which Had Already Been Disposed of.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

DETROIT (Mich.) Aug. 25.—Charles E. Rason, a painter and decorator, his son, Harold E. Rason, a conductor on the Fourteenth-avenue street car line, and William Vann, a former conductor on the same line, are in jail on a charge of disposing of counterfeit street car tickets. Vann is also a member of the executive committee of the Street Carmen's Union. The police claim to have obtained a confession from the men. A number of others are said to be implicated and other arrests are expected shortly.

The police say the tickets which already have been sold were printed in Chicago and shipped to this city. Finding a ready sale, the police say, the gang decided to remove their plant to Detroit. The press used, together with large quantities of supplies, arrived here Sunday and was seized by the police, who also secured a large bundle of the alleged counterfeit tickets.

It is said that $600 of the tickets already have been disposed of here.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER GONE.

Complainants Against Z. W. Sangster Accused of Sending Poisoned Candy, Disappear.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The mysterious disappearance of Mrs. Lina Sangster, wife of Zaton W. Sangster, and their daughter Anna, who are complainants against Sangster in an indictment charging him with trying to poison them, caused a commotion in the States Attorney's office today. Detectives were sent to make a search for the two.

The defendant, who is a traveling salesman, was indicted over two years ago and his trial has been delayed repeatedly. Sangster's attorney today demanded that his client be either tried, or given his liberty. The hearing was set for the September term.

Assistant States Attorney Rittenhouse declared that efforts have been made in the last three months to find Mrs. Sangster and her daughter, but without success.

These two received on Christmas, 1906, a box of candy, which when analyzed, was found to contain arsenic. It was sent from Kansas City. And after an investigation the police charged that Sangster had sent the sweets. It was charged also that he had been attentive to a woman pharmacist.

MARTIN MURPHY FOUND.

Mine Owner Arrested in Denver and Held to Be Examined for Insanity.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] His mind deranged, Martin J. Murphy, owner of the Gold Quarry group of mines in Inyo county, California, for which he is said to have refused $100,000 recently, was arrested today and will be detained until insanity experts examine him.

On Friday last he dropped out of sight. His partners became greatly alarmed, as they had noticed in his conduct for the few days previous that he seemed to be losing his senses. He drank sparingly and they did not attribute his condition, as far as they could discover, to over-indulgence in drink.

Nothing was seen of him until today, when he approached a policeman and asked him to "telegraph to the newspapers" and inform them that he was all right. His friends have told the police that they will take good care of him and are in hopes that a sojourn in a sanitarium will result in his recovering his mind.

The motion of Wilkins' attorney for a new trial on the ground of bias on the part of the convicting judge was denied.

At the time of the murder Wilkins was living with Mrs. Carmin in Elmhurst, a suburb of Oakland.

The woman's body was found buried in a shed.

New Order of Commerce Commission Criticised.

Requires Posting of Tariffs at All Stations.

Matter Considered at Special Meeting of Roads.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A new order of the Interstate Commerce Commission, dealing with the posting of tariffs in public places, is calling forth much adverse criticism from the railroads. It is declared that a strict compliance with the order is practically impossible. The roads say they will come as near to obeying the mandate as is possible, however.

To consider the matter the Western Passenger Association held a special meeting today. The order becomes effective October 1 and considerable work will be required by the roads to prepare for it.

In addition to making various requirements for the posting of tariffs at each station, the new order directs that at certain large cities on each railroad there shall be kept on file for the benefit of the public all passenger and freight tariffs to and from that particular city to every point in the United States and also all tariffs of the road, including every joint tariff in which the road participates.

"We would have to hire a hall to have room for all these tariffs," said one official.

Pan-American Railroad Plans Immediate Extension Through Mexico Into Guatemala.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 25.—N. N. Neeland of the Pan-American Railroad, yesterday received the last installment of the subsidy granted to the road by the Mexican government, amounting to 1,000,000 pesos. This sum was awarded after the 100 miles of the road in Mexican territory was inspected and favorably reported upon by government inspectors.

Mr. Neeland is now negotiating with the government of Guatemala for concessions to extend the line through that republic for the purpose of adding another link to the road which some day, it is hoped, will link Buenos Ayres and New York. It is rumored here, though denied by the interested parties, that Guatemala is placing hindrances in the path of the promoters of the project and that the United States and Mexico will object to any unreasonable impeding of the extension of the road.

Mr. Neeland has secured a concession for and will shortly commence to build a railroad from St. Sangeremonio, a station on the Pan-American Railroad, to the terminal point of the United Railroad of Yucatan. The new road will be known as the Mexican Pacific, and will make it possible for the Pan-American line to have steamship connections with Mexican gulf ports and those of the Atlantic Coast of the United States.

STOCKHOLDERS TO MEET.

DENVER AND RIO GRANDE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

DENVER (Colo.) Aug. 25.—A special meeting of the stockholders of the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad Company has been called for Thursday, September 10, in this city, to authorize a $150,000,000 bond issue, to consider the purchase of about fourteen small roads in this State and Utah, and to provide for the raising of $15,000,000 at once by the issuance of short term gold notes. The meeting is to complete the financial arrangements called for with the consolidation of the Gould lines in Colorado and Utah. The bonds will be dated August 1, 1908, and will mature August 1, 1955. The rate of interest to be paid on the bonds will be determined at the meeting.

Union Pacific Guarded.

OMAHA, (Neb.) Aug. 25.—The Union Pacific has again placed extra guards on its overland trains for their protection in the event of attempted hold-ups. Several reports of train robberies in the Northwest are said to be the reason for this precaution. Special Agent W. A. Canada has just returned from a trip over the system supervising the organization of a special detail of guards.

PROSECUTOR TESTIFIES.

Treadwell Case Begins in Earnest and Defense Will Claim Trap Was Laid.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—In the trial of James Treadwell, former banker and prominent mining man, charged with perjury before the grand jury, the defense today cross-examined Assistant District Attorney W. Hoff Cook, who is prosecuting the case, and who has been put on the stand to prove statements made to the grand jury.

By the questions put to the prosecutor, it was made evident that the defense will attempt to prove bias on the part of the prosecutor because Treadwell refused to plead guilty to embezzlement in connection with the hypothecation of the Colton securities, and also that Treadwell was ignorant of the nature of the bonds he hypothecated, and that he was trapped by the District Attorney into making the statements he did before the grand jury.

The prosecution has stated that it will prove that Treadwell, as a director of the California Safe Deposit & Trust Company, was fully cognizant of all the dealings of the officers of the bank, and was in the conference of J. Dalzell Brown and Walter J. Bartnett, who are under indictment of embezzlement in connection with the affairs of that institution.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

PARIS, Aug. 25.—Ambassador Henry White gave a luncheon today to Senator Daniel of Virginia, and Representatives Vreeland of New York and Overstreet of Indiana, members of the subcommittee of the National Monetary Commission who have come over here from London to study the monetary system of France.

M. Hallinan, governor of the Bank of France, and Baron Brinchard, administrator of the Credit Lyonnaise, were also guests at the luncheon.

The members of the subcommittee spent the afternoon in the two institutions named, examining the French system of finance. They gained extensive and helpful information.

Ambassador White is about to leave for Scotland for ten days' shooting in the Highlands.

Chicago and Alton Railroad Gives Figures on Two-Cent Rate.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An increase of 12 per cent. in the number of passengers carried and a decrease of 6 per cent. in earnings are the net results of twelve months' operation of the two-cent fare law on the Chicago and Alton Railroad.

Walter Ross, traffic manager of the road, made these facts public today. "The Alton is the first road to complete figures showing the effect of the first full year under the low-rate laws. The figures are for the year ending June 30, 1908, the laws in Illinois and many other States becoming effective July 1, 1907.

During the year 366,766 more passengers rode on Alton trains than in the year ending June 30, 1907.

WIFE OF WELL-KNOWN TRUST PRESIDENT TELLS PLANS.

Profits of Playhouse Will Be Devoted Chiefly to Needs of Members of Donor's Former Profession, and Will Be Operated to Encourage Young Actors and Authors.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One of the passengers on the Kronprinzessin Cécile, from Europe today, was Mrs. Maybelle Gilman Corey, wife of the steel trust magnate.

Although at first silent on the subject of her proposed theater, in her husband's presence on the way from Quarantine, she talked about it.

"Out of deference to Mr. Corey," she said, "I ought not to say much about the theater, as he doesn't care for it, and my plans are really unformed at present, but you may say that I am going to have a theater in New York. I have not selected the site yet.

"The profits will be devoted entirely to charitable purposes, chiefly for needy members of my former profession. I will operate it to encourage young actors and authors. A young man in whom I have great faith, and who is yet unknown, is now writing a one-act piece for me.

"Yes," she said, smiling, "I expect to play in it. Why not? Of course, I will give opera. I have just completed a course of vocal study with Jean de Reszke, who says I need only to study certain opera roles from now on, and that he will coach me."

OPENS ROSEBUD LANDS.

President Issues Proclamation Making Available South Dakota Tract for Settlement.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The President has issued a proclamation for the opening to settlement of the surplus lands of the Rosebud reservation in South Dakota. The area covered comprises about 800,000 acres, and includes all the land in Tripp county of that State.

According to the terms of the proclamation, the lands will be selected by the lottery process, and the drawing will take place at Dallas, S. D., October 19 next, and will be under the direction of James W. Whitten, chief land clerk of the General Land Office.

The minimum price fixed on the land is $6 per acre, and the homestead laws are made applicable to all entries. Registration will begin October 5 and continue to October 17, and applicants can register either at Dallas, Chamberlain, Gregory or Presho, S. D., or at O'Neill or Valentine, Neb.

BURGLARS SMASH WINDOW.

Would-be burglars smashed the show window of A. I. Shapiro's jewelry store at No. 404 North Main street about 1 o'clock this morning. Before they could scoop anything out of the window they were frightened away by two men who heard the crash. The heavy plate glass was broken with a rock, which was rolled up in a handkerchief. One of the men was evidently severely cut by glass, leaving a trail of blood on the sidewalk.

ESCAPES TROOPS.

with which the outlaw planned his work showed him to be a master hand at his business, and the coolness and determination with which he executed his plans left nothing for the sightseers to do but stand and deliver.

The scene of the hold-up was particularly well chosen both for natural advantage and cover during the robbery and for the escape which was so successful after the last plundered coach had been sent on its way.

From Old Faithful Inn to Lake Yellowstone is nineteen miles through the wildest and most deserted parts of the park. It was in this part of the road that the highwaymen chose his ambush. Four miles south, Old Faithful road sweeps a clear and straight stretch, four and a half miles, unobstructed by turns or dips.

The road at this point is narrow, being bounded on one side by a high cliff and on the other by a deep gulch. It was at the turn that the robbery occurred. As the first coach wheeled carefully around the sharp point a roughly dressed man dropped in the road beside the wheel team, a bandana handkerchief covered his face below the eyes and two heavy Colts looking like Krupp cannon met the startled gaze of driver and passengers. The curt command to halt and climb down was promptly complied with.

PLAN VERY PRECISE.

The stop was made, as was noted by an observant tourist, so that the back wheel just touched a small log fastened across the road. This stopped the coach in such a manner that all but the rear wheels were hidden by a rocky point. The driver and passengers as they descended stepped down out of sight of the following coaches. The occupants of the coach suspected that only an ordinary stop had been made to view the wonderful scenery. Each coach at this turn halted and slowly one at a time swung around the corner to face the robber's gun.

At the curt command of the bandit, the trembling passengers promptly stepped down and disgorged. Each coach as its passengers were stripped of valuables and ordered to move on at a trot to which command was added the caution to the passengers not to turn and try any "funny business" as they would be in sight for a long time and his rifle was a long distance weapon, and beautifully accurate.

HEAVY LOOT.

The highwaymen's friendly advice was heeded and as he coolly disposed of the last of the long string of coaches, he imparted to the occupants of the last one the cheerful information that he would watch the back trail for one hour and travel over it in the direction of Old Faithful and it would be any thing but healthy for them to return. This advice was listened to and the string of coaches traveled the remaining fifteen miles to the lake. All desire to even turn their heads side ways to admire the wonderful scene had vanished. Of the sixteen coaches, four were Yellowstone Park Transportation Company vehicles, five were Monida coaches, and seven Wylie Campaign Company vehicles. There were several prominent persons in the party and the booty was heavy, one man alone being relieved of $1200.

Each coach carries about eleven passengers and a driver. The highwayman's cleverness in taking advantage of the natural ambush where he could handle one coach at a time, combined with the fact that he counted on the absolute absence of armed resistence, made the affair successful. The last hold-up by highwaymen in the park occurred in 1896.

ANOTHER HOLD-UP.

LONE BANDIT GETS $1500.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ST. PAUL, Aug. 25.—A special to the Dispatch from Helena, Mont., says:

The stage running between Cody and Meteetse, Wyo., just across the Carbon county line, was held up today and robbed by a single highwayman who received as a reward for his efforts an amount estimated at $1500. Posses are being organized in Red Lodge, Cody and Meteetse to take up the bandit's trail.

Because of the rough nature of the country, little hope is entertained for his capture.

There is a possibility that the man who did this job is the same man who yesterday held up the sixteen coaches in Yellowstone Park, but this is doubted.

The same tactics, however, were followed, the passengers and driver being compelled, at the muzzle of a rifle, to deposit their valuable at a point near the road, and they were afterward gathered up by the desperado.

The bandit is described as a man of medium size and attired in a typical cowboy outfit.

CLERGYMAN A SUICIDE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Rev. Albert H. Trick of Brooklyn committed suiside in the Mills Hotel at Seventh avenue and Thirty-seventh street, this city, today, by shooting. The reason given was that, owing to failing eyesight, Mr. Trick was unable to support his two young sons. He had held no regular pastorate for several years. To his children the man had written: "I have gone to join mother." His wife died fourteen years ago.

LOS ANGELES HAS NO RIVAL IN THE WHOLE BIG WORLD.

LOS ANGELES is not the largest city in the world; but that it is the most stirring, pushing and down-to-date of them all is proven by actual figures.

A comparison of the greatest advertising mediums shows that for the month of July Los Angeles kept up the pace. The Times, as usual, published the biggest volume of advertising, its total looming far ahead of its nearest rival.

Following are the actual figures showing the amount of advertising carried in the leading newspapers of the United States for July:

JULY, 1908.

	Columns.
Los Angeles Times	3523
Kansas City Evening Star	2222
Chicago Tribune	2189
New York World	2121
St. Louis Post-Dispatch	2092
Detroit News and Sunday News Tribune	1973
Portland Oregonian	1947
Minneapolis Journal	1838
Baltimore American	1616
Cleveland Press (six days)	1565
Philadelphia Inquirer	1538
St. Paul Dispatch (six days)	1487
Cincinnati Enquirer	1377

The volume of advertising of any two of The Times' local rivals, aggregated, has not equaled for any month of the year 1908 the amount printed by The Times.

The sly trick of an evening sheet in promoting a department store of its own has only curtailed its advertising patronage. The other merchants are "wise."

MRS. LILLIAN LAWLEY-YORK CHARGES DESERTION.

Daughter of French Nobleman, Who Married Young American "Medic" in Vienna, Files Petition in Chicago, Her Husband Being Dentist to Emperor William.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The ending of a romance which started in Vienna fifteen years ago, when the daughter of a French nobleman was married to a student who had come from America, was revealed today when Mrs. Lillian Lawley-York, through Attorney Brady, filed a bill for divorce charging her husband, Edward Lawley-York, court physician and dentist to Emperor William of Germany, with desertion.

Trouble which started between the couple when they were among the leaders of the American social colony in Berlin five years ago, led up to the filing of the suit, according to Mrs. Lawley-York, who has been living in America for the last four years and who resides here.

An agreement was made by the man and his wife to separate and a private settlement of $100,000 was made to Mrs. Lawley-York by her husband.

ARBOR WORK JUST BEGUN.

terways Banquet Speakers See Much Ahead.

mportance in Affecting Transportation Rates.

aptain Fries Points Out What Harbor Lacks.

The recently-organized Municipal Waterways Association held its first banquet at Levy's last night, with covers laid for about 125 guests. Mayor Harper presided and former Senator F. Del Valle was toastmaster. The principal address of the evening was given by Capt. A. A. Fries, Corps of Engineers, U.S.A., who spoke of some things to be done in connection with the establishment of harbor lines at San Pedro. Other speakers were John W. Mitchell, former Mayor Henry T. Hazard, Joseph H. Call, Councilman W. Dromgold.

W. J. Bryan, Democratic candidate for President, delivered two of his "canned" speeches through the medium of a phonograph. The applause was liberal, and led Mr. Hazard to remark that he had been induced to attend the banquet under false pretenses, for it seemed to be a gathering of Democrats. At the head table were: Mayor Harper, Toastmaster Del Valle, Capt. Fries, Councilman Dromgold, Col. J. B. Lankershim, F. W. Braun, R. Hubbard, M. K. Young, James Anderson, A. P. Fleming, secretary of the Los Angeles Harbor Commission; Lewis Hansen, O. E. Farish, J. Gosper, Henry T. Hazard and Attorneys Mitchell and Call.

In opening the after-dinner speeches, Mayor Harper referred to the selections from Bryan's speeches and said that the Republicans present doubtless thought they had inadvertently strayed into a meeting of the Democratic League. "But I am pleased to see you all here," he continued. "This is not a party organization.

"Within three months this organization has established itself as upon a solid rock foundation. We are all boosters. We are not against any party or corporation. If the Southern Pacific or the Santa Fé Railroad do things of benefit to the city, we are ready with praise. We invite Methodists, Baptists and capitalists to join with us. Prohibitionists or Independents are welcomed if they are ready to boost. That is the keynote of the organization. We believed that a modest dinner would draw out the citizens to listen to remarks by able speakers."

DEL VALLE TALKS.

Toastmaster Del Valle spoke of the ways in which the city had aided its wonderful growth during the past twenty-five years. He said the commercial organizations had done much for the city and the surrounding territory and asserted that the time was not far distant when Los Angeles would extend from the mountains to [illegible].

Mr. Call confined his remarks chiefly to the effect of a free harbor, municipal wharves and water transportation upon freight rates. He asserted that the passage of interstate commerce laws had not reduced rates nor forced competition between roads, but on the contrary, each year witnessed additional strength on the part of railroad monopolies.

"Terminal rates are now fixed by a congress of 25 roads," he stated. "Schedules of rates are filed in a single document and rates are established and maintained by agreement under existing laws.

"The coastwise trade act which prohibits shipments of freight in foreign vessels from one American port to another, greatly aids the railroads, which have absorbed the coastwise shipping lines. The Pacific roads recently cut off their connecting ship lines between San Francisco and oriental ports.

"The reason for this is that in foreign ports the railroads met the competition of foreign freight without the protection of the import duty, and so were compelled to haul freight from New York through San Francisco to Yokohama and Hongkong for much less than the rate from New York to San Francisco. The Interstate Commerce Commission issued an order that the railroads should file their tariffs of through freight rates. This would have exposed the exorbitant charge across the continent and to protect their internal commerce the roads cut off the oriental lines."

HARBOR AND RATES.

Attorney Call asserted that Los Angeles is theoretically but not in fact a seaport. "Unless we establish public, State or municipal docks, we may lose even our railroad terminal rates," he declared. "In San Pedro harbor, approximately 100,000 feet of the water front has been transferred to private corporations, over which the public has no rights."

The speaker devoted much time to the tariff rates on various classes of goods, and said that the general railroad tariff is a copy of the Dingley bill, plus the water rate from abroad. He stated that unless this city acquires dock and terminal facilities at San Pedro, the Panama Canal will not benefit this section to any great extent.

"The Municipal Waterways Association is working to secure the consolidation of the harbor cities with Los Angeles, with an alternative borough system for those towns which prefer to govern their own affairs. Our plan is a comprehensive one that has been indorsed by every public body which has considered it. With one government from the city to the water front, the construction of municipal docks will be an easy matter."

Capt. Fries was cheered when he arose to deliver his address. He stated that much space had been devoted to the advantages of the harbor at San Pedro, and that he proposed to consider some of the things it lacked.

The establishment of harbor lines is but a preliminary step, he said. Much remained to be accomplished before Los Angeles became a seaport and gained the benefit of water transportation.

The public must own wharves and construct warehouses. Capt. Fries explained that narrow wharves would not accommodate any great bulk of freight, and that large warehouses were needed as well. He suggested that motor trucks could bring freight from the warehouses to the local merchants at a low rate. He was not prepared to give any figures, but knew that such a system would be far cheaper than existing railroad rates.

NEED OF HIGHWAYS.

He also stated that a broad and smooth highway between this city and San Pedro would be of service. With the transportation lines in control of the situation, he expressed the belief that most of the freight must be hauled here in wagons and motor trucks, and that good roads would facilitate this method of transportation.

Also referring briefly to the past urged all citizens to aid the municipality and commercial bodies in speedily constructing wharves, dredging channels and making all preparations for the accommodation of ocean freight and passenger steamers. He asserted that Congress had paramount right to regulate commerce, and that navigable waters came under the jurisdiction of the government. He ventured the belief that forthcoming suits in the State courts would restore the tide lands to the people, after a reasonable compensation had been paid to the present claimants.

IMPORTANT TO ALL WOMEN READERS OF THIS PAPER

Women are as subject to kidney trouble as men, which fact is often overlooked.

Many woman's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they will cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, bearing-down feelings, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so.

But thousands of irritable, nervous-tired and broken-down women have restored their health and strength by the use of Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

Swamp-Root brings new life and activity to the kidneys, the cause of such troubles.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy, will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, may address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and receive sample bottle free by mail.

YOUNG WOMAN CHARGES STEPPARENT WITH CRUELTY.

Latter Calls at Receiving Hospital for Treatment and Displays Bitten and Bleeding Arms—Stepdaughter Is Arrested and May Have to Face Insanity Commission.

When Thomas Hunter, a machinist, of No. 636 East Fifty-fifth street, tried to compel his stepdaughter, Mrs. Fannie E. Reynolds, to obey him last night, she flew into a rage and bit his arms in several places. With blood streaming from his wounds he hurried to the Receiving Hospital where he was treated. Mrs. Reynolds was arrested. Hunter declares that she is insane and that he will swear to a complaint today and have her examined by a commission.

Mrs. Reynolds, who says her husband is in Mexico, told the police that she had been ill-treated by her stepfather, who she charges was domineering and attempted to force her to submit to his orders. Last night, she says, she was going out to visit a friend but Hunter refused to allow her to leave the house. When she tried to climb out through a window, she asserts, Hunter grabbed her by the wrists and twisted her arms until she was forced to kneel at his feet. She says that he attempted to compel her to ask his forgiveness and that when she refused he almost broke her arm. She admits that she bit him.

It is stated by Humane Officer R. W. Reynolds, who has had her case in charge for some time, that she has caused her parents considerable trouble. She is subject to epileptic fits, it is said, and at times her mind is unbalanced. A short time ago she went to Santa Paula without the consent of her parents and got into trouble there. She was arrested and brought to Los Angeles by the Humane Society, and turned over to the custody of her mother and stepfather.

Mrs. Reynolds has been married about two years. For the past year she has not lived with her husband, who is foreman of a mine in Mexico. Her husband suports her, she says, but she has been unable to live in Mexico on account of the climate. The woman talked rationally last night. She said that her stepfather had threatened to have her arrested several times before. In a statement to the police, she accused her foster parent of attempting to send her to an asylum in order to get rid of her and get possession of what little property her mother has.

JAIL-BREAK FOILED.

Four Men Had Bars Sawed and Were Ready to Escape When Found Out.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 25.—With a case knife, nicked for use as a saw, for a tool and a purloined bread knife as a weapon of offense, four of the most desperate prisoners in the County Jail planned to lead others to liberty last night. They were prevented from doing so through information given by a prisoner discharged yesterday, but not until after they had more than half completed the work of sawing through the iron bars of their cell windows.

The escape was to have been made at midnight. Sheriff Kelly and a force of deputies lay in wait until an hour later, and then entered the cell to find the prisoners not quite ready for the break.

NEGRO MURDERER ESCAPES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

VANCOUVER (B. C.) Aug. 25.—Jack Pertella is the name of the negro suspected of the murder of Mrs. Jenkins, colored, aged 24, of No. 267 Prior street, and his description is today in every city and province and on the Coast from Dawson to San Francisco. The motive of the crime is unknown. The only witness of the tragedy was another colored woman living with Mrs. Jenkins in the absence of her husband, who, it is said, two months ago left on a prospecting trip with Pertella. She says she saw Pertella draw the knife and kill the woman. When the body was removed to Center & Mannas, it revealed nearly thirty knife wounds.

Pertella escaped through the window.

VICTIM OF ROBBERS FOUND.

Man Who Had Lain Helpless Four Days in Golden Gate Park May Die.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—Lying on the ground for four days in a helpless condition as a result of a terrible beating and serious razor slashes by two footpads, John L. Arellano, a bootblack, was found in an unconscious condition in a remote part of Golden Gate Park this afternoon by Mounted Policeman A. J. Dolan. He had many cuts in his scalp and razor wounds in his arms and legs and was altogether in a terrible plight.

At the hospital it was found that the injured man was so weak from loss of blood and exhaustion and his wounds had been so long neglected that he will probably die. Arellano told the police that Friday night he met two strangers at the McAllister street entrance to Golden Gate Park and accepted their invitation to walk to the ocean beach. His companions, he said, suddenly began to beat him over the head and several times slashed him with a razor, finally robbing him of $43 and left him lying by the side of a road that is seldom traveled.

Since Friday night, Arellano declared, he lay in the park unable to attract attention and was most of the time in an unconscious condition.

Morris Lichtenstein at Age of Seventy Commits Suicide in His Home.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—Suffering from disease incident to old age, Morris Lichtenstein, a retired cigar manufacturer, seventy years old, today ended his life by cutting his throat with a carving knife in the home of his son, Phillip Lichtenstein.

He had recently been brought from a sanitarium, and was constantly under the care of a nurse or one of his three sons since he made an attempt to commit suicide two weeks ago. Believing him asleep, his watchers today slightly relaxed their vigilance for a moment. Lichtenstein was quick to seize the opportunity, slipped out of bed and in the dining room found a large carving knife which he drew across his throat.

KIDNAPED, DRUGGED, ROBBED.

Woman, Returning from Theater Alone, Thrust Into Hallway and Carried Upstairs.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

OAKLAND, Aug. 25.—A startling story of robbery was told to the police today by Mrs. D. C. Brown, of No. 1015 Sixtieth street. She says that while returning home from a theater, which she had attended alone last night, she was approached by two men who thrust her into a hallway and rushed her upstairs to a room on San Pablo avenue, near Sixteenth street.

Pretending to give her a restorative, she asserts, they administered "knockout drops" and it was nearly 4 o'clock this morning before she recovered consciousness. She then found that her jewelry, valued at $300 and $7 in cash had been taken. She saw one of the men leaving the room and gave the alarm, but too late for the fellow to be captured.

The police found evidence of a struggle in the room with a good description of the two men hope to capture them.

POSTOFFICE ROBBER CAUGHT.

Man Alleged to Have Stolen Money Order Blanks in Seattle Is Arrested.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

STOCKTON, Aug. 25.—T. Burns, alias J. Wilson, who has been causing the postal authorities and the police of several cities on the Pacific Coast no end of trouble, was captured here today, after passing one of the postoffice orders that are alleged to have been stolen from Station No. 15, at Seattle, some time ago.

This afternoon Burns entered the sales department of the Shaw Implement Company and presented an order for $44, making a purchase and receiving his change. The cashier became suspicious, notified the police, and the culprit was shortly located and landed behind the bars, after a sensational, but unsuccessful break for liberty.

Burns recently turned the trick in San José. He made the statement after being arrested that he did not make the attempt to get away with the hope of success, but was praying that the officer would kill him. Burns is said to be from San Francisco, is 39 years old, and was formerly a railroad brakeman.

BAKER EXPLAINS STANDARD OIL CASE REVERSAL.

Declares Public Has Gained Erroneous Impression Because of the Garbled Reports—Landis Passed Judgment on Concern, not on Trial for Offense.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GOSHEN (Ind.) Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Judge Francis E. Baker of the United States Circuit Court, in speaking of the recent attack made on him by certain newspapers, says he has paid but little attention to it.

"I have not read anything more than a headline or two," he continued. "It is a very natural impulse to set up a holler. We all like to see somebody else rapped over the head.

"The papers have not given a true report of the Standard Oil case. They have perhaps made no entirely false statements, but the versions as presented by the newspapers have conveyed an erroneous impression to the public.

"In the first place, it was not the Standard Oil Company, incorporated under the laws of New Jersey, the parent concern, that was on trial. That was the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, an offspring, undoubtedly, but a much smaller and weaker organization. Officers of the parent company were dragged in court by Judge Landis and made to testify, but it was not the parent company that was on trial.

"But when it came to pass judgment it was on the offenses of the parent company that the Hoosier offspring was found guilty, and it was in accordance with the property and revenues of the parent company that the fine of the offspring was gauged."

In reply to the question if he thought the case would be carried to the Supreme Court on a special writ, he replied:

"I am not prepared to state."

GOES TO THE WALL.

day, and sent word that they would allow but a few more hours of grace. All attempts to secure further delay were futile and the suspension followed.

It was also said the banks that carried the accounts of the house declined today, because of the unsettled condition of the affairs of the firm, further to certify any of its checks. One of the managers of the house when questioned as to this, dismissed the subject by saying the firm had asked for no certifications.

Less than an hour before the suspension and when efforts were being made to stave off the delivery of unpurchased stocks, the firm announced that its business was proceeding in orderly fashion and that any suggestion as to its financial standing was ridiculous.

Friends of the members of the firm declare tonight that the collapse was due entirely to the clogging of its regular channels of business by the extraordinary Saturday trading. A thousand clerks, it was explained, could not properly enter and transfer the 750,000 shares handled by the firm on Saturday within the space of time allowed by the exchange rules for making deliveries.

GOVERNORS CALL BROWN.

Albert O. Brown, the head of the firm, was before the Stock Exchange governors Monday afternoon to explain tardiness of delay and it was announced afterward that his explanation as to this feature of the trading had been accepted.

It was further announced that the governors of the exchange would appoint a commission of five to thoroughly inquire into Saturday's transactions as a means of restoring public confidence and would punish any members who had been guilty of a transgression of the rules.

The personnel of the committee had not been announced when the failure of Brown & Co. became known, but it was said events of the day had in no way changed the purpose of the governor.

Saturday's trading will long be remembered in Wall street. With the opening of the session of the exchange there was an almost immediate plunge in the shares of a few active favorites, and in a little while the ordinary units of sale were raised from 500 and 1000 shares to 5000 and 10,000 share lots, and it seemed for a time as though the few brokers participating were playing a game with so many pieces of paper.

SUSPICION AROUSED.

In all this wild flurry of buying and selling of shares whose face value amounted to millions of dollars, there was little or no change in the prices of the securities so freely handled. Suspicion of manipulation and of the "matching" of orders was aroused and there was more satisfaction than surprise when the governors of the exchange met on Monday to institute an inquiry.

WILLIS THROWS GLOVE AT UMP.

Delmas Slides Under Berry and Starts Riot.

Nagle Pitches Shutout Ball Against the Seals.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Angels took the first of the series with the Seals at the Oakland grounds today by bunching hits on Willis and on Henley, who went into the box after Willis had been chased for throwing a glove at Umpire O'Connell.

The ire of Willis was aroused by a close decision given by O'Connell in the fourth, by which the southerners grabbed a tally. Delmas had clouted a nice one through the infield, and Easterly slammed one that took a bounce over Melchoir's head. Easterly went to third, and as the ball was relayed to the plate Delmas pattered homeward.

Berry grabbed the ball and stood waiting for him. Delmas shot under for the plate. Some say that Berry touched him, some say he missed him a mile. Umpire O'Connell could not see that the runner had been tagged and called Delmas safe.

In an instant there was a roar from the boneheads in the bleachers, which was continued for the rest of the game. Willis danced up and down like a maniac, and picking up a glove, threw it at O'Connell. The umpire promptly ordered him to the clubhouse.

The Angels got on the map for the first time in the second. Delmas, Easterly and Nagle each found Willis for safe ones, and Del came across on Bernard's sacrifice. They tacked on another in the fifth, when Oakes and Dillon met Henley's bends on the nose and Oakes tallied on a long fly.

Nagle pitched his usual steady game, keeping the hits separated. Willis was doing nicely till he let his angry passions rise. Beck and Zeider did some fast fielding for the Seals. In the eighth Zeider snapped up one that Delmas clouted and which looked like a hit on anybody's grounds. Though he nailed it on the run he managed to shoot it to first just before Delmas reached the bag.

ANGELS TO TOUR.

WILL PLAY IN ARIZONA.

Manager Berry of the Los Angeles ball team intends to take his club on a barn-storming tour through Arizona this winter and play any club down there that has an idea it is the real thing. Berry has been corresponding for some time with several managers in the hot land, and thinks he will have no trouble in beating the best that Arizona can scrape together.

Some of the managers there are figuring on having a number of the big leaguers in the Territory to spend the winter, and if the connections are made, the fans in Phoenix and Prescott should see some real ball. Local fans who saw the Arizona teams play last winter, say they put up a high-class article of ball, and hundreds of dollars are wagered on the result.

GRAND CIRCUIT.

ALLEN WINTER DERBY WINNER.

Harness Horse Handicap Is Great Success.

Thousands Cheer Trotters in the Three Heats.

Sweet Marie and Coronado Fail to Place.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

READVILLE (Mass.) Aug. 25.—The well-earned victory of M. H. Reardon's Indianapolis stallion, Allen Winter, at the Readville track today, thereby capturing the largest share of the $,000 American trotting handicap from a field of thirty-three starters, is believed by many of the 20,000 followers of harness racing who saw the contest, to establish a new era in the history of the sport and insure its rejuvenation in this country.

The race was novel in its conditions, which placed the horses at marks from one-fourth to three-eighths of a mile behind the usual starting point, on a handicap based on their previous performances, and at the conclusion it appeared to be the general opinion of all who saw the two preliminary heats and the grand finale that this system of racing would be popular in the future.

It was the first race in which Allen Winter had trotted this year and Lon McDonald, his driver, sized up the field in the two preliminary heats.

In the first heat he watched sixteen horses, placed at marks, from 1320 to 1720 feet behind the usual starting line, sweep once and a quarter round the track to a grand finish, with Bervaldo in the lead.

In the second heat with his own horse 1570 feet from the wire and 6870 feet to travel, he pushed Allen Winter carefully but surely past three other horses and kept ahead of the others, finishing a good third.

The first heat had been run off at a 2:08 gait for the mile, but the second was a few seconds slower.

Then came the battle for final honors and the money, with sixteen well-known trotters in the field, the fastest being Sweet Marie, 2:05.

Through a system of electric buttons which run from each starting judge to a big bell, it was possible for each judge to signal when his own horses were on the mark and facing the right direction. When the judges were unanimous the bell rang automatically, and the field was away.

LONG PROCESSION.

As they turned into the stretch and raced under the wire for the first time, it looked like a long procession and there was very little change in position.

At the quarter pole Kim drew out a trifle, while the entire field seemed well strung out. At the three-eighths the horses began to bunch up, and there seemed to be four divisions with Kim out ahead, and Sweet Marie coming up fast on the outside of the last bunch.

The pace to the three-quarters pole never slackened. The slow horses up ahead were tiring fast, and the fast horses behind were coming up strong. The field came around the turn into the stretch like a Roman chariot race, with three teams abreast and twelve horses lined up for a grand dash of an eighth of a mile to the wire. At that point it seemed anybody's race, but 200 yards from the finish McDonald shot Allen Winter out of the bunch, and urging the big stallion along at the top of his speed, drew away rapidly and won by five lengths.

The next ten horses came under the wire in a bunch, and the judges were nearly ten minutes in arriving at the conclusions.

There had been no question, however, as to Allen Winter, and as McDonald came back he was lifted from the sulky and carried up the track on the shoulders of his shouting admirers.

It was found that Prince C. had captured second money; San Francisco third. Geers, who drove Teasel, and Andrews, behind Sweet Marie, were beaten about fifty feet by the place winner. Summary:

READY FOR BUSINESS.

CLUB WILL BE BUILT TODAY.

FRANK GOINGS HOPES "TO SHOW" PRESIDENT CAL EWING.

Local Promoter Has the Money and Expects to Flash It — Shay to Be Playing Manager of the Team. San Pedro Will Probably Be Home Town of New Organization.

Danny Shay, late of the New York Giants and now of the Stockton club of the State League, will be field captain of the new ball team that will be in the Coast League from this end of the State next year. He will also own stock in the club.

This much was stated positively last night by Frank Goings, the local saloon man who is spoken of as the principal stockholder in the new team. The other men who will be interested with Goings in the team are Mayor A. C. Harper, Councilman Henry Lyons, Chief of Police Ed Kern and Charles Fox, owner of a "wet goods" store on West Third street. These men are to hold practically all of the stock, and the corporation will be a close one. No one has yet been selected to run the financial end of the club, but Shay will run the playing end of it, if Goings is the leading spirit.

Notwithstanding the talk about Venice being the town that would have the team, it is probable that San Pedro will be selected, as it is a much better ball town, and the people there are very anxious to have the honor.

Goings will be compelled to stay within doors for several days on account of illness, but as soon as he can leave the house he will go to both Venice and San Pedro to see what inducements each town will offer.

Pasadena has been talked of, and several of the business men there have made overtures to Mr. Goings to have him locate the club there, but it is believed the feeling there against Sunday baseball would knock all chances of a professional team playing in that city Sunday morning.

President Ewing is indifferent as to which town gets the franchise, and he stated yesterday that if Goings and his friends "show him" that they have the necessary amount of money to see the club through the season, or can get it, he will favor giving them the franchise. Manager Berry of the Los Angeles team said yesterday that a number of local business men had offered to take stock in the new club, and that he was sure he could secure $20,000 in subscriptions any day. However, Goings expects to "show" Ewing today, and the club will probably be organized this evening.

JUD SMITH SUSPICIOUS.

Jud Smith, third baseman of the Los Angeles team, did not go north with the club on Monday. Jud was just about to get on the train when he saw a stork sitting on the top of Mt. Wilson looking down at his house, and Jud concluded he would stay at home and see what that look meant. Pitcher Pat Phillips was also left at home, for it is said he is afraid to go out in the dark.

HUNT CATALINA GOATS.

Warren Wood and LeRoy Frantz Take Three Splendid Heads in Several Days' Trip.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

AVALON, Aug. 25.—Warren Wood of Los Angeles and LeRoy Frantz of New Rochelle, N. Y., went goat hunting Saturday and have returned with three splendid heads. Young Wood is here with his recently purchased yacht, Mischief I, accompanied by his friend Frantz, who is a famous athlete in Princeton University. Although only a junior, young Frantz has won medals galore from intercollegiate meets with Harvard and Yale and has a belt made from thirteen splendid medals strung on chains and also has as many more in his possession. In company with his father, Dr. Frantz and family, he is touring the Pacific Coast. The Mischief I with Mrs. Fred Wood and her son, the commodore, young Frantz, Miss Muriel Stewart and Miss Frantz have returned to San Pedro.

A spirited boat race came off Sunday afternoon between the launches Presto and Ferro. Two heats were run from Lover's Cove to a point opposite the Tuna Clubhouse. Each launch won a heat.

WRESTLING MATCHES.

Fast Bouts Scheduled for Next Sunday—Card Arranged for Week from Saturday.

The Chutes Park wrestling card for Sunday has been completed by the matching of John Hugo and Y. Huemarich, a Greek, for the preliminaries. The men weigh 125 pounds and are expected to furnish a very fast bout in contrast to the slower work of the big fellows.

Fred Johnson and Young Leo are to meet in the main event. Johnson has shown considerable talent in the preliminaries and has worked up to a main event. He and Young Leo put up such a good bout in last Sunday's card that they look to be the most evenly-matched pair who have ever been put on at the Chutes. Two draw bouts of twenty minutes each and one fall to Johnson in four minutes was the result.

Young Leo is a Chicago wrestler of experience, and claims that he was in poor wind, as he had but two days' notice. Johnson is very strong, but knows comparatively little of the game. However, he held Young Leo in all departments in defense last Sunday, but was not so strong on offense.

It has been decided to attempt to pull off the bouts on Saturday night instead of Sunday afternoon, as heretofore, after next Sunday's card, and this will be attempted next week when Ed Toler and Jack Lee are to meet. They are both heavyweights, with Toler having the best of it by about fifteen pounds. He is a new mat artist here, but as he is director of a gymnasium here, it is expected he will put up a good bout.

ALEXANDER IS WINNER.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEWPOR (R. I.) Aug. 25.—Maintaining the strength and steadiness which have characterized his playing throughout the all-comers' national lawn tennis tournament at the Casino, Frederick B. Alexander of New York today furnished the spectators with the greatest surprise of the entire event by defeating William J. Clothier of Philadelphia, former national champion, in straight sets.

It was their semi-finals, and the result gave Alexander the right to play in the finals tomorrow against Beals C. Wright of Boston, who today disposed of Nathaniel Emerson of Chicago over a four-set contest.

Wright won the championship in 1905, while Alexander never before had played in the finals of a championship event.

Alexander defeated Clothier three sets to love, the score being 7-5, 7-5, 6-4, while Wright put out Nat Emerson three sets to one in scores of 6-2, 4-6, 7-5, 6-3.

RECORD BROOK TROUT.

Fred Hadley Takes the King of Them All in Stream at Matilija Springs.

Fred Hadley caught the biggest stream trout reported this season, a steelhead weighing four pounds and two ounces and measuring a trifle over twenty-five inches in length.

The catch was made in the creek at Matilija Springs, Ventura county, and the big fish gave the angler a hard battle before it was landed.

WORLD'S RECORD BLACK SEA BASS.

AVALON, Aug. 25.—[Pacific Wireless.] The world's record catch for black sea bass, a fish weighing 240 pounds, was taken today upon a 9-9 tackle by Phil F. O'Mara of Salt Lake City.

This beats the former record, held by George Farnsworth, by six pounds and makes the angler holder of the world's record for light tackle. The fish fought four hours and thirty-five minutes before being gaffed.

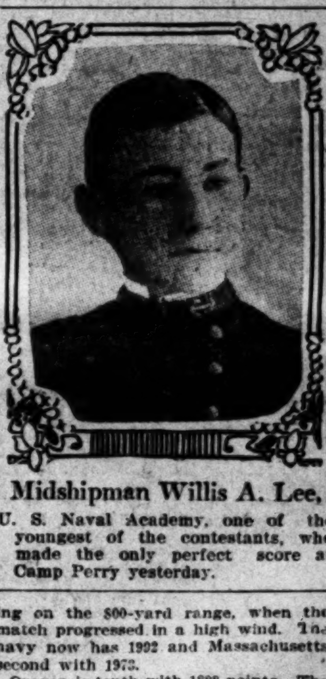
MIDDIE IS GOOD SHOT.

Young Lee Makes Only Perfect Score in Shoot at Camp Perry National Matches.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

CAMP PERRY (Ohio) Aug. 25.—The United States Navy, which led the field at the beginning of the second day's firing in the National Match, increased its lead by 14 points this morning on the 800-yard range, when the match progressed in a high wind. The navy now has 1992 and Massachusetts second with 1973.

Oregon is tenth with 1888 points. The only perfect score at 800 yards was made by one of the youngest of the contestants, Midshipman Willis A. Lee of the Navy, who last year captured the National individual and the National pistol matches.



Midshipman Willis A. Lee,

U. S. Naval Academy, one of the youngest of the contestants, who made the only perfect score at Camp Perry yesterday.

STATISTICS OF CRIME.

Much of the Crime in Cities Is Due to the Foreign-Born Population.

The Popular Science Monthly for August contains some figures on crime in Chicago that should awaken the interest of every citizen.

In an article by Maynard Shipley it is shown that Chicago's arrests in 1905 for murder and murderous assaults were 94.16 to 100,000 native whites, but 146.65 to 100,000 foreign whites.

From this Mr. Shipley deduces the conclusion that much of the crime in large cities is due to the presence of immigrants, a far larger proportion, indeed, than that which is due to native born citizens. Ignorant and lawless aliens, he thinks, are the chief menace to our civilization.

Facts regarding New York seem to bear out this statement. Between 1890 and 1906 the percentage of aliens from Russia and Southern Europe in that city rose from 30 to 70 per cent. In the same time arrests for homicide rose from 7 per 100,000 in 1890 to 13 in 1900, and to 21.51 in 1906.

Still further confirmation is found in the statement of a New York deputy police commissioner that of late burglaries have fallen off at least 50 per cent., and that homicides and other crimes have considerably lessened. This comes on top of emigration from New York City between October, 1907, and February, 1908, of 48,000 aliens who had been residing there.

FIERCE BATTLE.

KAUFMAN WINS BY KNOCKOUT.

Flynn Battles Gamely, but Is Overwhelmed.

Northerner Too Strong and Big All Around.

Fireman Has Best of First Four Rounds.

Kaufman knocked out Flynn, nine rounds.

Lucca beat Congo Coon, ten rounds.

Fairbanks beat Coffee Cooler, one round, Cooler quit.

Al Kaufman's long arms and his 200 pounds of weight were too much for Jim Flynn's short arms and his 167 pounds of energy last night at the McCarey club pavilion, and Kaufman knocked Flynn out in the first part of the ninth round.

The game fireman was practically put out in the eighth, for while he was on the floor and all in, the gong ended the round when Referee Eyton had reached nine in the fatal count toward ten. A minute of wild swings in the ninth put Flynn down for good.

While Kaufman won with comparative ease after the fourth round, his victory over Flynn brings him no particular honor, for Flynn is not a top-notch heavy. He is a tough and a willing mixer, but was giving away too much weight and reach and these things made him on the short end of the 2 to 1 betting on the fight. Even under these fearful disadvantages he made Kaufman look like a dub in the first four rounds and after seeing the big fellow's showing in these earlier rounds, it is easy to think that what Jack Johnson would do to Kaufman would be something you could not read to little children.

Flynn cannot box. He knows little about leads and his arms are too short to try them. After the fourth round, Kaufman poked him continually in the face with his left and when they both shoved their lefts out at the same time, Kaufman always landed first on account of his reach. Flynn soon found out that he couldn't touch Kaufman this way and then he took to rushing in, and in these rushes and the resulting clinches and the in-fighting, he easily bested Kaufman in the early part of the contest. He hammered the big fellow unmercifully in the stomach; uppercut him and raked his right up the big fellow's face until Al hung on for dear life. He raised a big lump on Al's left cheek bone and started the blood from his mouth, but all the advantage Flynn had was nullified by Kaufman's strength and his wrestling in these clinches. Flynn wore himself out in four rounds and after that Kaufman had him really at his mercy.

FLYNN AGGRESSIVE.

Flynn was the aggressor in almost every round and even in the eighth round, which marked his finish, he opened up by rushing Kaufman to the ropes. He rushed him furiously in the first five rounds and in the fifth chased him all around the ring and hammered him at will, Al doing little but hugging to avoid punishment. Both were very tired and Flynn seemed to have worn himself out, for after that he still had the gameness but not the strength or direction to his punches. He was always willing but he was a little man fighting a mountain that was always protected by a tree-like arm that stuck out to stop the rush coming up from below.

Of course, Kaufman's long arms and his weight were bound to win against a man that knows so little about boxing as Flynn. The big boy took his punishment gamely and came back for more and in the clinches his great size and strength stood him in good stead, for half the time he held Flynn with his left arm and punched him hard on the body with his right. Several times he was hissed for holding and hitting.

It was a great fight and a great crowd saw it, for the big house was filled with people for the first time in many months, or since the Burns-O'Brien fight. The great majority of the bugs favored Flynn on account of the great difference in the size of the men, but they realized after the fourth round what the finish must be.

HOW IT WAS DONE.

In the first round, Flynn rushed Kaufman off his feet to the ropes and tapped him several times on the nose with left hooks. In the first clinch Flynn had the best of the infighting and his savage slams raised a lump on Kaufman's right cheek. Kaufman got in a good right on Flynn's nose, but had the worst of the round.

The second was even worse for Kaufman, for in Flynn's rush he smashed Kaufman in the mouth with his left and drew blood. As they backed away they exchanged rights to the face, Kaufman being best at this on account of his long reach. Kaufman smashed Flynn in the face with his right and drew blood, but Flynn came back like a mad bull, and, rushing Kaufman to the ropes, made the big fellow hold on to escape the blows. This was also Flynn's round.

The third saw another Flynn rush, but Kaufman stopped Flynn with a right cross, and they exchanged right hooks. In a furious mix, Flynn slipped to the floor. When he arose they exchanged rights, and Kaufman came with a left to Flynn's face and Jim chased him around the ring. Al grabbed the little fellow in a clinch and was hooked in the face for holding. Al landed two lefts in Flynn's face and both bled from the mouth. The round was fairly even, and yet Kaufman was worried.

They exchanged rights to the jaw in the fourth, and then Flynn rushed Kaufman to the ropes and swung right and left on the head. Al was bloody and his lips were puffed up, and yet, while holding on, he soaked Flynn a hard right in the neck. This was another Flynn round.

The fifth was Kaufman's by a shade, for while Flynn rushed him to the ropes, Al's long left found Flynn's face a number of times, and he had the best of the infighting, for Flynn was very tired.

The sixth was Kaufman's, for he landed two hard lefts on Flynn's face. The seventh was bad for Flynn, for the big fellow stung him hard with rights and lefts, and Jim was slowing up.

Flynn started the eighth with a rush, but Kaufman banged him with lefts and rights, uppercut him with the right and belted him hard in the wind. In a rush, he smashed him on the neck with right and left, and Jim went down for the count of nine, groggy and all in. He slowly arose and rushed into a clinch to save himself, but Kaufman landed a wild swing on Flynn's jaw and he went down again. He was done for this time, and while on the floor would have been counted out if the gong had not saved him.

The ninth lasted hardly a minute, for Kaufman assumed the lead and with a short right hook on the jaw put [illegible] fellow picked up the little man and carried him to his corner, and the game fireman was out for fully two minutes, lying full length in his chair.

PRELIMINARIES.

The first prelim of ten rounds between Lucca and the Congo Coon went the limit, the Coon being knocked down in his own corner in the first round. After that it was a wrestling match for nine rounds, with neither being able to land many damaging blows.

The second prelim between Fairbanks and the Coffee Cooler ended quickly in the first round. Fairbanks chased the black all around the ring and scared him to death. He finally chopped him with a right on the jaw and the black went down. As he lay on the floor Referee Walsh gave him a little kick in the head to make him get up, but he wouldn't, and Walsh announced that the Cooler had quit and would not get a cent of the purse.

ARTICLES SIGNED.

NO TROUBLE OVER WEIGHT.

Stanley Ketchel and Billy Papke, through their managers, have signed articles of agreement to fight before the Jeffries Athletic Club September 7 at 3 o'clock, the men to weigh in at 158 pounds at 12 o'clock.

But little difficulty was experienced in getting the men to agree on the weight. Jones for Papke wanted to make it 156 pounds at 11 o'clock, but O'Connor for Ketchel demanded 158 at 12 o'clock, and won his point.

The articles of agreement are stereotyped, and there are those who say that the real agreement is quite a different affair. It is said that Manager Long had to give Kitchel a bonus of 15 per cent. and a guarantee, but of course those interested give out no such statements. However, that is the business of the club and fighters, and so long as the men put up a good battle the public does not care how the money is divided.

The articles say that the men are to receive 60 per cent. of the gross and are to split this 60 to 40. This satisfied the public.

Ketchel is to begin training today at Doyle's camp, near the Vernon arena, while Papke is to go to Venice.

USING AUTO AS PUMP.

One of the Various Uses to Which an Automobile May Be Put Makes Small Fortune.

The power that is stored up in even the smallest automobile is often greater than in other larger power plants. All through the country the single-cylinder pioneer cars have been put to divers uses besides that of pleasure. They have been used on farms to run farm machinery, in mining camps to haul up ore from mining shafts, buckets from wells, to go prospecting with, and even at one of the eastern factories was substituted for a a hoisting engine, which was not obtainable promptly when an addition had to go up in a hurry.

At San Francisco and Stockton cars were made into portable pumping plants to get the water out of cellars, and two Stockton men made a small fortune with a seven-horse-power Reo after the last flood pumping water out of hundreds of cellars that were filled by the overflow of the river.

The simple pump and plant when not in use were loaded onto the car and quickly hauled to the next place. The little engine ran with the clutch of the automobile out and an extension to the crank axle served as the main shaft.

This same plan may be used to advantage in irrigating from a running stream on many of the big ranches of this State, where rich land is now only used for grazing.

HOW CROKER ELECTED GROVER.

Waited Thirty Years to Repay Whitney for Helping Him Out of a Scrape.

The August American Magazine contains one of the most interesting chapters of unpublished political history brought out in a long time. It is the story (never before published) of how Richard Croker, boss of Tammany Hall, helped William C. Whitney elect the late Grover Cleveland in 1892.

Whitney, who loved the game of politics, succeeded in getting the nomination for Cleveland after a hard struggle. But how could he elect him? New York must be won, and Tammany Hall was against him. At this point it is better to let the writer in the American Magazine take up the story:

"While Whitney (who was at the Hotel Richelieu in Chicago) was pondering dolefully the possibilities of the situation, a knock came at the door, and Richard Croker stepped into the room.

"'Well, Croker,' said Mr. Whitney, 'we've beaten you, but we had to do it. I hope there is no bitterness. We must all turn in now and elect the ticket.'

"'Mr. Whitney,' said the boss, 'I just come over to tell you that New York is all right. You needn't be afraid about that. Good day.' And he slipped out before there was a chance to thank him.

"The visit turned the train of Mr. Whitney's thoughts. He began to have confidence. A cheerful state of mind begat inventiveness in him, and he began at once to plan the campaign. With Croker's visit in his mind, he decided that the best way to move the 'working Democracy' was to hold a meeting in Madison Square Garden, New York, under the direction and with the manifest and enthusiastic approval of the very people who were supposed to resent most Mr. Cleveland's nomination. He was very cheerful when he got down at the Grand Central Station, but he had not been many hours in New York before he encountered difficulties. Evidently, 'the word had not come down.' Tammany was indifferent. The Mayor wasn't sure that he 'could see his way.' In despair, Mr. Whitney wired to Croker, who was at Richfield Springs, and asked him to come to New York. Croker came promptly, and Mr. Whitney told him his plans. The boss sat impassive, with half-closed eyes looking nowhere. When Mr. Whitney finished his talk the Tammany man rose from his chair and said: 'Let us go and see the Mayor.' [illegible] downtown. When they arrived at the City Hall they were—they were admitted—that's the word—admitted to the office where the chief magistrate of the greatest city in the country sat. Mr. Whitney stated his mission.

"'But, Mr. Whitney——' the Mayor began.

"'You'll do what Mr. Whitney says,' said Croker, looking at the clock.

"'I am——' began the Mayor again.

"'Whatever Mr. Whitney says you'll do,' said Croker. 'Will we be going uptown, Mr. Whitney?'

"On the way up, Mr. Whitney turned to the boss and said: 'Croker, I want to thank you for the way you have behaved. I wouldn't have thought it possible. I know you don't like Mr. Cleveland. You fought the nomination and I beat you; and now you do me a very great personal service. Will you tell me why?'"

Then Croker explained to Mr. Whitney that he had done what he had out of gratitude to Whitney for helping him out of a murder scrape thirty years before.

How People Face Death.

A medical man gives his experience in Woman's Life on the question of how men and women face death when sentence is pronounced by the doctor.

"Tell the man of higher type and greater intelligence," the physician says, "that he is facing death and he begins to fight, demands a consultation, talks about going to specialists and fights grimly to the finish. Tell a woman the same facts and she lies back to await her fate. All women are by nature fatalists.

"On the other hand, tell a man that he has one chance in a thousand to recover if he will undergo an operation and he will trust to his own strength and endurance rather than undergo the knife. The woman will choose the thousandth chance and submit to the operation with an astounding degree of calmness."

MALARIA AND WEAK HEART.

The following interesting story told by Mr. J. H. Riley, Pensioned Fireman of South Boston, Mass., is a sample of the thousands received from grateful men and women who have been benefited by the World's great tonic-stimulant.

In an interview, Mr. Riley said:

"I joined the Fire Department of South Boston in 1890 and was lately pensioned off because of a bad fall while in service, which telescoped my spine.

"A little over a year ago I was taken sick while in the engine house, and it developed into heart trouble and malaria. I went to a number of doctors and two different hospitals and went through a course of treatment from each, but I did not receive much benefit from any of them. The doctors would not let me go in swimming, nor smoke, nor drink anything but water. I stopped both tea and coffee. My case was getting very serious when a friend said to me: 'Why don't you get a bottle of Duffy's Malt Whiskey? I know a man who was given up for all time, and he took Duffy's Malt Whiskey and today he is as well a man as you can find.' So I commenced taking Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey and the result is that the doctors now say that I am all right, and I never felt better in my life. Of course, I am very little good as far as heavy work is concerned, owing to my injury, but I am well, and that is a good thing to be able to say. I thank you for the remedy that put me on my feet again."

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

(DOSE:)—One teaspoonful in each glass of drinking water during the hot weather will kill all germs.

If weak and run down, take a teaspoonful four times a day in half a glass of milk or water. It stimulates the heart action, causes the blood to course more quickly through the veins, and builds new tissue.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold throughout the world by druggists, grocers and dealers, or shipped direct for $1.00 per bottle.

If in need of advice, write Consulting Physician, Duffy Malt Whiskey Company, Rochester, New York, stating your case fully. Our doctors will send you advice free, together with a handsome illustrated medical booklet containing some of the many thousands of gratifying letters received from men and women in all walks of life, both old and young, who have been cured and benefited by the use of the World's greatest medicine.

MALTED BARLEY is digested food. Hops are a tonic—also an aid to sleep. That's what you get in beer. That's why the doctor says "drink beer" when one lacks vitality.

Beer quiets the nerves, not because of the alcohol. There is only 3½ per cent. of that. But because of the hops, for hops are soporific.

A bottle of Schlitz at bedtime induces sleep.

In every way the drinking of beer is good for you, providing the beer is pure. It is only the wrong beer that leads to bad after effects and to biliousness.

Schlitz beer is pure. We spend more on purity than on all other costs of our brewing. Even the air that cools it is filtered. And every bottle is sterilized.

There is all the good of beer, and none of the harm, in Schlitz.

Ask for the Brewery Bottling.
Common beer is sometimes substituted for Schlitz.
To avoid being imposed upon, see that the cork or crown is branded Schlitz.

A very attractive and out-of-the-ordinary buffet, with cut-glass pulls. Large, modern kitchen, with every equipment necessary, including linoleum on floor; extra large cellar, all cemented, with one of the best furnaces installed. Five lovely bedrooms, all in white enamel and rock maple floors throughout, including bath and all closets. PROGRESSIVE.

EDUCATIONAL INNOVATIONS.

Advanced Commercial College at the Y.M.C.A.

Only Women's Gymnasium in City at Y.W.C.A.

Both Associations Prepare to Open Schools.

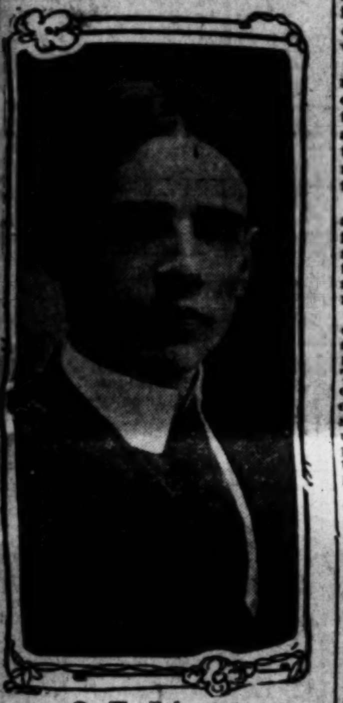
A city of innovations, Los Angeles comes forward with another one in the educational line.

The Young Men's Christian Association, which will remove the last of its furniture to the splendid new structure on Hope street today, has made the most generous arrangement for conducting a modern commercial college, where a school of 100 students may receive instruction at all times.

"This is the most ambitious project that any Young Men's Chirstian Association in the United States has ever undertaken, in an educational way," said Educational Director Austin yesterday. "This will be, not a night school, such as we have conducted for years, but a thoroughly-equipped day business college, equal to any of the ordinary commercial schools. Actual business will be transacted, so that each student will have practical experience when he leaves the school. It will probably become known as the Y.M.C.A. commercial school, but we have determined to indicate its scope by naming it the School of Commerce and Finance."

The commercial school will be but one of the units in the vast educational system conducted on the fifth floor of the building, and the practical counting-house work will be carried on in a large room, equipped with fifty regulation counting-house desks, each for the accommodation of two students. Together with all the other educational activities, the commercial school will open on Monday evening, September 28.

"While we shall do all the work



O. T. Johnston,
principal of the new Y.M.C.A. School of Commerce and Finance.

that any other business college does," said Mr. Austin, "we will give special courses in higher accounting, fitting men to become certified accountants—that is, ready to pass the required examination. Specialized accounting will receive attention as a leading feature of the school. We will take men in any line of business, who are having trouble with their accounts, and coach them on their needs, both in wholesale and retail accounting. That indicates what we want to do in addition to what is done at the ordinary business college.

"But we feel satisfied that the biggest feature of our school is the man we have secured for principal. O. T. Johnston comes to us with a most remarkable record as a teacher, with personal acquirements of the highest degree of proficiency, and with an admirable personality. He is now but 27 years of age, and at the age of 21 was principal of a successful business college in Minnesota. Recently he has been with the Brownsberger school in this city, and came to us at a great personal sacrifice, because of his faith in the future he sees before the association school with its incomparable equipment.

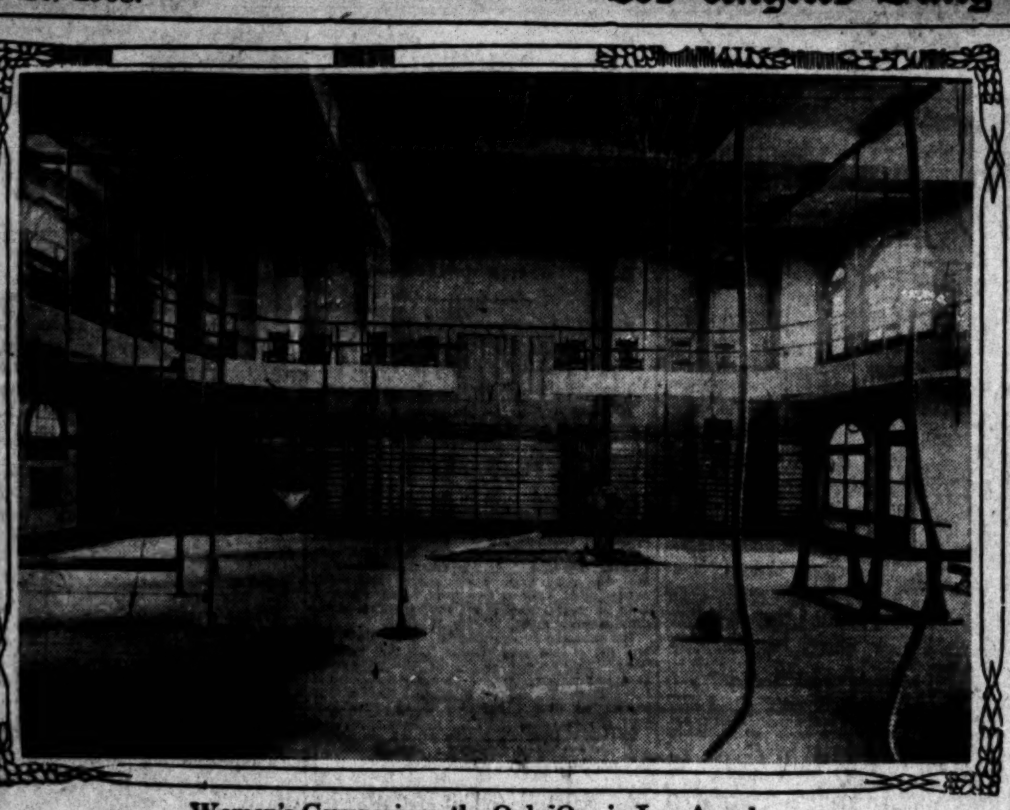
"Mr. Johnston has been principal of several large commercial schools, among them Mountain State College, commercial department, Parkersburg, W. Va.; the Capital City Commercial College, Des Moines, Iowa, and the department of commerce and administration of the University of Chicago. He is a graduate of the Zanerian Art College of Columbus, O., the most famous college of ornate penmanship in this country, holds diplomas from four of its departments, and was afterward a teacher in the same institution. In the evenings, while at Parkersburg, he organized the Y.M.C.A. work there, and for three years was State representative of the National Commercial Teachers' Association for West Virginia and traveled widely in its interest.

"He has done much excellent expert work in the installation of bookkeeping systems in banks, department stores and other business houses, and has been a valued contributor to the well-known magazine, System. He has just completed the devising of a new system of accounting for our association, it having outgrown the old methods."

Mr. Austin sees a great demand and an extensive field of usefulness for the new school, in conjunction with the association dormitories and its magnificent physical equipment.

"Scores of young men come in from the country and surrounding towns," he said, "for the purpose of attending a commercial school, and here they can find the home atmosphere so necessary to their enjoyment when first coming to the city where all are strangers to them. Our dormitories give them all the luxuries of the modern home at moderate cost; advantage of our splendid physical department, with its plunge, gymnasium and ball courts, and if he so desires a student can also take his meals under the same roof."

All the little details are now being pushed forward to have the entire building ready for the opening day on



Women's Gymnasium, the Only One in Los Angeles, just equipped with most modern apparatus at the Young Women's Christian Association.

at the various details it seems impossible to think of any desirable thing that has not been provided.

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION.

FINE GYMNASIUM EQUIPPED.

The Young Women's Christian Association comes forward with the only women's gymnasium in the city, and one of the finest on the Pacific Coast. Its equipment with all modern apparatus has just been finished, and the regular physical classes will open with the entire educational department on Monday, September 28.

The new director of the physical department is Miss Ella Stevers, from the Boston Normal School of Gymnastics, an accomplished and able instructor, and she sets forth the aim of her department in the following way:

"The aim will be to secure symmetrical development of the body; to correct existing physical defects; to strengthen the muscles, improve the circulation and increase the respiratory powers; to give agility and grace of movement; to advance the play spirit and to train the judgment and courage."

The gymnasium is a large, light and airy room, with a ceiling two stories in height, and in addition to the physical apparatus, has an extensive system of lockers, dressing-rooms and showers. Children's classes are to be made a special feature.

In addition to the ten different classes to be taught in the gymnasium, there will be classes in swimming, riding, tennis and rowing. There is scarcely any form of exercise that the members of the association may not choose, and as a strong body is requisite to the demands upon girls in other directions, no department will receive more attention than this one, where the play-spirit predominates.

The School of Cookery, with Mrs. Charles E. Pearce, late member of the faculty of Miss Farmer's famous school of cookery in Boston, as instructor and demonstrator, will also be made a leading feature of the association work. Her work will be conducted in a splendid sanitary laboratory and kitchen on the seventh floor, where scientific experiments will be made and practical cookery taught in its simplest as well as its most elaborate forms. The value of this cannot be overestimated when it is known that many hundreds of young women keep house for themselves, and are deeply interested in knowing the quickest and best ways of preparing a meal, to say nothing of their ambition to make good housewives. Pupils in the morning classes handle sufficient material to serve a family of from six to eight persons, and at the close are served with a luncheon of the food prepared.

The School of English is an innovation in association work, no other association having English developed to this extent in any other city. The school is directed by Mrs. Dwight Rittenhouse Brown, and presents the most comprehensive curriculum for the study of English as a science and as a source of culture. It includes courses in correct English, rhetoric and composition, word studies, English literature, American literature, Shakespeare, history of Rome, Greek and Roman mythology, travel class. There will also be a night school in elementary English, conducted by Miss Laura Moore, and a most important feature will be the classes for foreign women, with the purpose of teaching them to speak and write correct English.

These three branches of activity give but a meager idea of the full extent of the work of the association. Three floors of the large building are given over almost entirely to educational work. The commercial department, with Mrs. C. E. Bean as instructor, will also be made one of great importance. Mrs. Bean comes from the Bryant & Stratton Commercial College of Chicago, and is a skilled instructor in shorthand, typewriting and book-keeping. Penmanship will be taught by Miss Ida Baldwin.

A complete course in Bible study will be taught under Miss Edith Conde, Dr. William Horace Day, Miss Grace Maxwell and Miss Mildred Clatworthy.

Miss Ainsley and Miss Laura Moore will be instructors in the sewing department; Mrs. C. H. Bush in millinery and Mrs. J. M. Leighley in embroidery.

French will be taught by Miss Martha M. Kaetzel; Spanish by Miss Katherine Kent; German by Miss Sophie Rochstein; piano by Miss Carrie Conger; violin, guitar and mandolin by Miss Florence Stratton; orchestra by William H. Mead; choral club by Mrs. L. J. Selby; sight-reading by Joseph N. Whybark; voice culture by Miss Katherine Ebbert; drawing and painting by Miss A. V. Fulkerson. Entirely new courses are those of stenciling, conducted by Miss Katherine Rucker; wood carving, by Miss Emily Rutherford, and handiwork, by Miss Charlotte I. Mytton.

Registration for all the classes will begin September 1, and must be complete by the opening of the term on September 28. An educational rally will be held on September 22, and a Bible rally on September 27. An elaborate brochure, giving full information, is ready for distribution to those who are interested.

"I'm ready to agree with you," said Vandraken, as though anxious to end the discussion. "There will be a big smash. But I! I! I!—and after me the deluge!—that's my motto. Posterity is a man's own children, and our rich men haven't got enough to bother with. A democratic system of government won't let you found a house by entail, as you did in England, so what's the good of having a posterity who will come to smash, and have to work? Democracy defeats its own ends. Master and slave!—that's the kind of commonwealth that lasts."

"It's a wonder Von Tarsenheim was able to find any conscience in you to transplant," laughed Lord Ancester. "It's a pity, too, because one man with your wealth might do a great deal toward putting things right."

"Awfully nice dance the other night, wasn't it?" asked Vandraken, trying to change the subject.

"You seemed to enjoy it. I suppose. It is no use regretting anything, but I seem fated to put you in the way of making mistakes. I wish I hadn't brought you to Lady Donoyle's ball."

"Why?"

"I have known Lady Kitty since she was a child. She has always been adorable. There is something loathesome to me in the idea of your two lives mingling in any way."

"'Loathesome!' I say, that's rather a strong word."

"It is a matter I feel strongly about," said Lord Ancester, calmly "A man who has vowed his life to the religion of absolute materialism, as you have done, should take a vow of celibacy as fervently as any monk. You have no business with a wife."

"Don't let that worry you," answered Vandraken, huffily. "I have no intention of marrying for a few years. I have other plans, for the next five, at any rate; but when I do marry, it will be a Lady Kitty. And just because I am having my fling, I don't propose to cut myself off from society. Why should I? You know as well as I do, if not better, that half the men who were dancing and talking so prettily at the ball that night take an occasional dive into the under world, and often stay a long time under, too."

"That is true in a sense," answered Lord Ancester, reflectively. "But they are no more specialists, as you are, than the man who goes to church is a priest. Unless Von Tarsenheim is a fraud, you are now a man without a conscience; no act of yours can cause you remorse, no voice can prompt you to self-restraint. You will follow all your impulses, good or bad, as long as they do not put you within the grip of the law. Your brain will see to that. But you are a moral outlaw, Vandraken. Of course, your career will be interesting. I shall enjoy reading the story, fully illustrated. I am tired of printed books. But I don't want little Kitty to be one of the characters—that would quite spoil the novel for me."

"I tell you I have no intention of marrying Lady Kitty at present. Can't a man dance a few times with a girl without being suspected of matrimonial intentions?"

Lord Ancester sipped his drink reflectively. "No," he replied, "not a man like you. It is only when a man is hopelessly ineligible—then it becomes a matter between the girl and her mother. But a great matrimonial catch, such as you are, can't single out any girl with impunity. All the resources of civilization will be brought to bear on turning your jest into earnest. Lady Donoyle is a very clever woman. But suppose you fall in love with Lady Kitty—what then?"

"Fall in love," answered Vandraken, contemptuously, "I have my sentimental feelings absolutely under control."

"So has every man till some woman suddenly gets them under her control. Lady Donoyle thinks you would do for a son-in-law. Kitty has never before met any very rich young man who has got such a vast fortune that he is actually frivolously rich. Her experience has hitherto been with the pompous rich—little gilt gods on wheels, rush of self to the head, eldest sons, and that sort of thing. You have a face, too, like a good little boy, and the American responsiveness to gaiety. No, Kitty won't oppose her mother. I assure you, my dear fellow, that your only way of avoiding matrimony is to avoid society—join the brotherhood of the under-world as the monk joins the monastery, to escape the temptations of the world, the flesh and the devil. It is the same principle, only reversed."

Vandraken laughed again. "I don't gather whether your solicitude is on my account or Lady Kitty's. The latter, I imagine; and if so, it would be easy to put her off by revealing my true character."

Lord Ancester always talked very slowly, in a tired voice, yet there was an underlying force in it which always held a listener's attention steady, even through long pauses.

"My dear fellow, I did hint at your true character to Lady Donoyle."

Vandraken sat up. "The devil you did."

Lord Ancester nodded. "I did—and what do you think she said?"

"That she didn't believe you?"

"No. That it was a tiara, not a halo, she wanted for her daughter."

Vandraken chuckled.

"And as she has brought the daughter up to look at things in the same light, I'm afraid your morals wouldn't outweigh your other attractions. As for the Von Tarsenheim business, she would simply refuse to believe it."

"But, for the sake of argument, even if all you say is true—suppose I do fall in love, and do propose, get regularly tangled up in this imaginary net which you say society spreads for the unwary millionaire—it does not follow that it would happen immediately. It might be a long chase, and a long engagement, and I don't want more than a few years of the seamy side of life. I must say that I have never met any girl who could make marriage as tolerable as Lady Kitty. And she is young—she could wait. Lots of girls do."

"I don't think you ever had very much conscience, Vandraken, but whatever you had, Von Tarsenheim has extracted, that's certain. Good Lord! Kitty wait!—as girls do wait while some hard-working, conscientious chap is toiling to create a home. But in this instance wait while you are soiling the springs of life, exhausting the emotions and enthusiasms which you are to unite with hers! Good Lord! Shall you ask her to wait while you sow your wild oats?"

"But you seem to forget, Ancester, that I have arranged to overcome that difficulty. That is the beauty of Von Tarsenheim's invention. I shall go through the under-world as asbestos goes through fire, and come out at the other side without changing a hair. Don't you see? It's the other chap—poor devil!—who won't be fit to marry."

"You will come out a whited sepulchre—that is how you will come out. Like one of those white puff-balls one finds in the fields, full of acrid brown powder."

"No! no!" answered Vandraken, earnestly. "I have thought it all out. When I shake the dust of that life from off my feet it will be like sin in a dream. I tell you, I have overcome the law of consequence. You will see."

"Then you won't promise to cut society and abide by the life you have fitted yourself for?"

"No, I'm sorry to disoblige you, and I'm afraid it may cost me your friendship, which I value; but I propose to go into society as much as I like, and if it spreads a net and catches a variety of fish it wasn't looking for—well——" He shrugged his shoulders, and rose to go.

"Sit down a minute, Vandraken, and give me a cigar."

Vandraken beamed as he proffered his cigar case. "No! Will you? I take that as a sign that you aren't going to chuck me, in spite of my contumacious behavior."

Lord Ancester looked at the young man curiously. "Chuck you! No. I wish I could. But my position is a peculiar one. I spoke a few light words, as a boy heaves a pebble into a pond. Well, those few words have started an endless chain of consequences. I have, as it were, created a new disease. I must devote my life to quarantining, sterilizing, every possible device of modern sanitation. As a result of that disease, you are a man without a conscience. As far as possible, I must supply that lack. I must in every way limit the consequences of my own act. I am tired of the game you want to play, but I will have to play it. I hate the under world, but I will have to live in it as long as you choose to remain under. Chuck you! No! I will be your shadow—I saw it all in a flash as the pony fell: the horror of it all, the inevitableness of predestined fate, which may be minimized but cannot be averted."

"Oh, I say! Draw it mild! To hear you talk, one would think we were going to hell together, instead of having a jolly good time."

Ancester lit his cigar and watched the smoke thoughtfully for a few moments. "You imagine that you have cheated the gods with your limitless wealth and your Abdul von Tarsenheim—but I tell you, Vandraken, that they sit around among the stars as men sit by the bank of a river, dropping their lines down into this puddle to see what they can catch. You, my dear chap, are a new sort of bait, and I am the instrument which has put you on the hook."

"Somebody has been doping your drinks, Ancester. You are getting weird," muttered Vandraken, getting up. "The morbid thoughts of a morbid fellow, written at a rainy funeral—that is how your line of talk strikes me. I think I will go down to the morgue and try to get cheered up. But, bar chaff, Ancester—I am off. Can I take you anywhere?"

"You might take me down to Tattersall's. I want to have a look at some ponies the Irish Dragoons are sending in."

"I say, Ancester," said the other, nervously. "Like a good chap, let me give you a pony. I feel half-way responsible for the death of Squirrel."

"Wouldn't dream of it. Thanks very much, all the same," answered his friend, in a tone which did not admit of further discussion.

THE MARKETS.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Black Morocco grapes were introduced for the first time in the season yesterday, on the market. They sold at $1 a lug box. Muscats were very plentiful, as were Thompsons Seedless, for which there has been apparently no market since the arrival of the other varieties. Jelly grapes, or what are really a light Zinfandel are selling well for canning purposes. Hamburgs and Rose of Peru were fairly well represented, while there were only a few Concords and Delewares obtainable, and these at higher prices.

Egg receipts were down to 92 cases. There were some hard endeavors to boost prices, but these failed. Storage stock was in excellent demand, with the scarcity of local eggs and the very few arrivals of northern eggs. Offerings were fair, but no sales were made in eggs themselves. Fifty empty cases, however, were sold for future use.

Butter prices were steady in the entire list and creamery extra stock was well offered. Cooking butter sold on the street in large quantities, and was also offered in large amounts on 'change. Ladles were put up for the first time in several months. Receipts were 10,462 pounds.

Swiss imported and domestic cheese was the most largely dealt in. Cream brick and limburger were the other varieties that sold well. Receipts were 348 pounds.

A car of Ventura potatoes came in yesterday. The crop from Anaheim, Hemet, Burbank and this vicinity generally is arriving daily, but they are not in first-class condition. They are affected with the black cut, a disease which causes black spots on the inside, brought on principally by the heat. The exterior is usually of fine appearance and shows no signs of being spoiled, which makes it a difficult matter for dealers to guarantee stock. Arrivals were among the largest of the season, totaling 2798 sacks.

The first Australian Brown onions were brought in and offered at less than $1 per cwt. Their selling price was placed at a range of [illegible] cents to $1 per cwt. Silverskins were weaker and there was little doing in Danvers. Receipts were 37 sacks.

Bean arrivals were 34 sacks. There were no offerings of the product. Sweet potato arrivals were 20 sacks.

Apple receipts continue to increase, and 467 boxes were brought in yesterday. They are Skinner's Seedling, Bellefleurs and Violets chiefly. Pries are unchanged. Hale's Early White peaches were good sellers, and brought [illegible] cents a box. Other peaches were plentiful and fractionally lower.

Smyrna figs arrive regularly now and bring [illegible] cents. White figs are also plentiful, and the harvest of the second crop is in full swing. Kelsey plums were best sellers among the plums, and nectarines advanced 25 cents per box.

Pickles are in fair demand and sell at $1 a lug box. Cucumbers are lower again. Eggplant is up a cent, and sweet corn is only sufficient to supply the demand. Fish were better represented.

LOS ANGELES STOCK EXCHANGE.

DEMAND STRONG SUPPLY LIMITED.

INVESTMENT STOCKS WANTED BUT FEW OFFERED.

Bidding for Home Telephone Preferred Continues Insistent, but a Heavy Seller of Past Few Days Remains Silent—Associated Oil Gains in Bid—Union Inactive.

While trading was not as active on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday as on the preceding session, the market for the general investment stocks was just as firm. The demand was present, but the supply of stocks limited.

Home Telephone preferred was not the chief feature as on the three previous calls. The stock was in demand, however, and closed with a ¼-point advance in the bid, at 44.25@44.50. The asked price was ¼ point higher than Monday's. No trading took place on the floor, but an "off board" sale of 10 shares at 44.12½ was reported.

The same ring of brokers who were buying Friday, Saturday and Monday were bidding for the issue, but Burbridge, who has been the heavy seller, was silent. Some offerings were made at around 44.50.

Home common was unchanged in its quotations, at 7.00@12.00. Trading in the stock was reported on the curb. Other industrial issues were quiet.

Columbia Oil gained 1 point over the closing bid of the previous session, selling at 90 to the extent of 1000 shares. The close was at 89¼@90½, up ¼ and ¾ point, respectively.

Associated Oil was wanted and the bid showed a gain of ¼ point. The offered price was off ¾ point. The closing quotations were 29.25@29.75. Central was bid for at 95, with none offered. Amalgamated closed with a 2½-point advance in the bid at 78.50, while the asked price remained at 90.00. Rice Ranch was offered at 95, closing without a bid.

Union Oil and the affiliated companies were inactive.

Interest in the bond list is still very strong. Several bids above par were quoted, those securities with interest coming due within the next three months being wanted especially. Asked prices were high and firm, but there was no trading on the floor.

Consolidated Mines was again the only mining issue handled. Sales amounted to 12,000 shares at 2½, cash, and 1000 at 2½, buyer thirty days.

LOS ANGELES-NEVADA EXCHANGE.

TRADING FITFUL IN MINE ISSUES.

BUYING ON NORTHERN ORDERS PROPS MARKET UP.

Combination Fraction Active Issue, Selling up Two Points in Morning but Sagging Later—Booth Closes at 50, With None Offered, After Five Hundred Share Deal.

Pries were unsteady and trading was fitful on the Los Angeles-Nevada Mining Exchange yesterday. The chief demand was for Goldfield leaders.

Combination Fraction was an active issue, especially during the morning, when it sold up from 1.50 to 1.60, 1290 shares being handled. Much of the buying was orders from San Francisco, where the stock was a particularly strong feature.

It sold off slightly on the informal, when only 100 shares were handled at 1.55. The close was at 1.54@1.56, a gain of 4 and 5 points in the bid and asked prices, respectively.

Of Booth a sale of 500 shares was made at 50 on the regular session. The close on the informal was at 50 bid, with none offered. The demand for this issue, too, was very strong from the North.

Daisy was firm at 75, sales amounting to 700 on the morning session, and 100 on the informal. The close was at 74@76, unchanged from the preceding session.

Florence was off 5 points in the bid, closing at 3.45@3.55, with no trading. Goldfield Consolidated remained inactive, and unchanged at 6.55 bid. Trading in Jumbo Extension was carried on at 48, to the extent of 200 shares, on the morning call, and 700 at the same price during the informal. The close was at 47@49, a decline of 2 points in each quotation. One thousand shares of Great Bend went at 35 in the afternoon. The close was at 34½@36½, a drop of ½ point in the bid.

For Baby Florence the demand was excellent. Sales were made at 10½@10¼ on the morning call, and at the same prices, buyer thirty, on the informal. Final quotations were 9¾@10, the asked price down ¼ point.

Blue Bull was handled at 15, both cash and seller ten days, on the regular call, and at 15@15¼, cash, on the informal. The close was at 15@16, a 2 and 2¼-point advance over Monday's quotations. Yellow Tiger was bid up to 16. There were no deals recorded on 'Change, but sales on the curb were reported. A strike on the Elk's Lease is said to be the cause for the rise.

Trading was carried on in Black Butte Bonanza at 2; Bonnie Clare at 10¼; Consolidated Mines at 2½; Johnnie Consolidated at 9.00 a thousand shares; Milltown Fraction at 2¼; Kewanos at 43½, and Columbia Oil at 90.

SAN FRANCISCO LIST.

GLAD REMINDER OF OTHER DAYS.

NORTHERN EXCHANGE CROWDED WITH BUSINESS.

Fraction Chief Feature—More Than Thirty Thousand Shares Sold Before Noon—Booth Ranks Next in Trade Volume—Strong Demand for Kewanas.

[Special Service to The Times by B. F. Taylor, Member Los Angeles-Nevada Mining Exchange.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 25.—The market today reminded the brokers of the good times of 1906, when everybody had more than could be done. Business started with an early curb before 9 o'clock, with Fraction 1.57½ bid, and strong. Fraction was the feature throughout the day with over 30,000 shares traded in before noon. Booth was next, with transactions of more than 12,000 shares. This stock sold as high as 51, closing at 48@49.

The strength of Fraction is due to the opening up of shipping values on the 600-foot level. The market looked as though Wingfield was buying, as one broker who operates for him bought over 8000 shares before 11 o'clock at 1.57½, and was bidding for any part of 5000 more.

The New York Curb was strong on Fraction all day with high sales at 1.63, closing at 1.53@1.57½.

The market turned a little weaker around 11 o'clock, but had a good undertone with large demand for Kewanas, which sold up from 40 to 45, closing at 43@44.

The remainder of the Goldfield shared in the general activity of the market. Some interest is being shown in the Manhattans by the purchase of Dexter and Manhattan Consolidated. The Bullfrogs and Tonopahs were inactive.

The market may drag a little, but the rank and file of the live brokers are advising their customers to buy on the basis of the closing prices and are naming Booth, Fraction, Red Hills, Columbia Mountain and Kewanas, as "good ones." The following are the closing bid and asked prices with sales on the formal call.

FAILURE CLEARS ATMOSPHERE.

COMMISSION HOUSE SUSPENDS, UNSETTLING MARKET.

American Smelting Falls Most Abruptly and Material Declines Are Sustained by Most of the Active Issues—Brisk Revival in Grain Movement Expected Next Month.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The most important event in the financial district today was the failure of a prominent commission house, whose operations are believed to have been largely responsible for last Saturday's sensational stock market. In banking circles, it was felt that the failure would go far toward clearing the murky atmosphere and restoring confidence among investors who have been fighting shy recently. Business on the Stock Exchange became unsettled and feverish after the announcement of the failure, and remained so for the balance of the day.

American Smelting, which has stood the brunt of the recent selling, fell most abruptly and material declines were sustained by most of the active issues.

There continues to be much conflict of opinion as to whether or not industrial and mercantile conditions show geneuine improvement. While the movement of grain is still much below that of last year, railroad authorities agree that the coming month will witness a brisk revival. As for mercantile traffic, the railroads look for no greater increase before the beginning of the new year.

There were the usual rumors regarding Southern Pacific financing in the near future, but bankers connected with the property declare to the contrary.

Following yesterday's lower rate for five and six months money, a further shading in two and four month accommodations are reported today.

Bonds were steady; total sales, par value, aggregated $2,550,000. United States 3s declined ½ per cent. on call.

New York Money Market.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Close: Money on call easy, ¾@1¼ per cent.; ruling rate, 1 per cent.; closing bid, 1 per cent.; offered at 1 per cent. Time loans quiet and steady; sixty days, 2 per cent.; ninety days, 2½ per cent.; six months, 3½@3¾ per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 3¾@4½ per cent. Sterling exchange weak, with actual business in bankers' bills at 4.84 35-100@4.84 3-10 for sixty-day bills and at 4.85 7-40 for demand. Commercial bills, 4.83@4.83¾; bar silver, 51¼; Mexican dollars, 45. Government bonds weak; railroad bonds steady.

Weather Conditions.—The western depression has moved slowly eastward during the past twenty-four hours, and is now central east of the Rocky Mountains. WHEAT MARKET FIRM ALL DAY.

RAIN IN NORTHWEST AND FIRM CABLES BOOST PRICES.

Export and Cash Demands Slow or Negative, and Bulls Are Principal Buyers—Top Closing Prices Follow Initial Declines in Corn—Oats Strong in Sympathy.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—The wheat market was firm all day, but the greatest strength was manifest during the last half of the session. Initial quotations were from 1-8 to 3-8 above yesterday's closing, September closing at 93 1-8 to 93 3-8 and December at 94 1-8 to 94 3-8. The reports from the Canadian Northwest indicated that rains were quite general over the western provinces, while the official forecast for Minnesota and the Dakotas predicted showers in those States tonight. In addition to this unfavorable situation in the spring wheat country, the market was bullishly affected by firm cables and by the light stocks of contract wheat in store throughout the United States. Cash wheat premiums here were steady but the demand for the cash grain was reported very slow. Export demand here was also a negative quantity. Local bulls were the principal buyers throughout the entire session, and by their efforts forced September up to 94 and December to 94 7-8. Late in the day, prices receded somewhat on profit taking but the market closed firm, with September at 93⅞@93 5-8 and December at 94½@94 5-8.

Liberal receipts and continued favorable weather for the new crop brought out moderate selling of corn at the start, which resulted in initial declines. The market closed strong at almost the top price, September at 77 1-8 and December at 66@66 1-8.

Oats were affected by the strength of wheat and corn, but prices failed to show so great an advance as in the leading grains. The close was firm, with prices 1-8@1-4 to 3-8 higher.

A brisk demand for the January products by local packers caused strength in provisions. The market closed firm, with prices from 10 to 17½ above the previous close.

Cash quotations were as follows: Flour was steady; No. 2 spring wheat, 1.00; No. 3, 90@1.05; No. 2 red, 94¼@95¼; No. 2 corn, 78@78½; No. 2 yellow, 79¼@79½; No. 3 white oats, 48@50; No. 2 rye, 76½; good feeding barley, 60@63; fair to choice malting, 62@66; No. 1 northwestern flaxseed, 1.29½; prime timothy seed, 3.75; short ribs, sides (loose,) 8.50@8.75; mess pork, per bbl., 14.37½@14.50; lard, per 100 lbs., 9.30; short clear sides (boxed,) 8.75@9.00; whisky, basis of high wines, 1.37.

New York Cotton Market.

[By private wire to E. F. Hutton & Co., Bankers and Brokers, members New York Stock Exchange, No. 112 West Third st.]

NEW YORK, On weak cables cotton opened steady and unchanged to 6 down. Trading was on a fairly large scale. There were reports of further rains over the belt. The weekly weather report was not as bearish as was expected. There is no long interest in the market to speak of and any change in weather conditions would give us a quick upturn.

Many were inclined to believe in some further recovery today, but the failure of A. O. Brown & Company, caused a check to the strength of cotton. We can only expect a traders' market for a while.

Edward Moyse & Company say: "The market is a sale on all moderate rallies."

Bache & Company say: "Sentiment still continues bearish."

Dick Bros. say: "Sentiment is still against the market there are plenty of traders who would like to see a rally in order to bring about a better selling level."

Crop news more bullish. We think the market is a buy on weak spots. The crowd is not so bearish. It is predicted that will have heavy rains latter part of this week.

Green says: "There is too much rain over parts of the belt and more is predicted. Thirty days of a cold wet spell just now would do a world of damage and prices would go up with a rush. Cotton at 8.25 to 8.50 cannot be called too high. Every one is looking for a crop to swamp the world, but you can rest assured it is by no means near. I think market is a buy if it opens down as much as is due on the cables."

DAM IS DEEP UNDER WATER.

ROOSEVELT RESERVOIR IS AT LAST IN EVIDENCE.

Water Backs up to Within Twelve Feet of the Lower Part of Doomed Village and Floods Out Camp of Indians—Big Lake Created—Tax Roll Is Completed.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Aug. 24.—Salt River as been very high during the past week, a body of water two feet deep passing over the top of the long Granite Reef dam above here. The lower part of the Roosevelt dam has been deep under water, and the derricks and all machinery have had to be moved to the higher parts of the structure. As a result, the Roosevelt reservoir at last is in evidence. The water backed up within twelve feet of the lower part of the village of Roosevelt, blocking travel into Tonto Basin and flooding out a camp of Indian laborers on the lower lands near the dam. The lake created reaches for two miles up Tonto Creek and three miles up Salt River.

ACCEPTS PLANS.

The Territorial Board of Control has finally accepted the plans of Architect Thornton Fitzhugh for the new hospital building at the insane asylum. The structure will cost $45,000, will be practically fireproof, and built of reinforced concrete. Each room in the structure will be entered by a pipe, through which superheated steam can be drawn for sterilizing purposes or in case of fire. The building will be one-story in height, with three wings radiating from a central administration section.

At a cost of $35,000 the Constable cold storage warehouse has been repaired after the fire of several months ago.

The Catholics of Mesa are preparing for the erection of a house of worship.

A stock company, headed by W. B. Twitchell of Phoenix and R. E. Twitchell of Albuquerque, will plant 160 acres of oranges, north of here, this winter.

The total shipment of cantaloupes in the Salt River Valley this season was 237 carloads.

NEW PRISON RULE.

Gov. Kibbey has put into effect a new rule for the government of the prisoners now working on the construction of the new penitentiary at Florence. Those who do good work will not be required to wear the ordinary striped uniform, but will be given suits of khaki, and for every day's faithful service, one day will be deducted from each man's sentence. About forty convicts are now on the job, and they are well pleased with the opportunity given for reduction of their terms.

ANCIENT DAME.

Antonia Perez, a pensioner of Maricopa county at the rate of $5 per month, claims to be 110 years old. She has lived in Arizona for fifty years, most of the time in Tucson. She is able to care for herself, and to appear at the Courthouse to receive her pension.

An encampment of the National Guard of Arizona will begin at the fair grounds, September 25.

Thomas Holland died lately in the veterans' home at Yountville, Cal., aged about 80 years. For fully twenty-five years he lived at Castle Hot Springs, in the mountains north of Phoenix, there becoming known to a majority of the old-time Arizonans.

Supreme President James A. Foshee of Los Angeles will be in Phoenix October 2 to inspect the local lodge of the Fraternal Brotherhood.

SUNDAY CLOSING.

Birt George is being held in the County Jail for return to Russellville, Ark., where he will be tried for seduction. For several months he has been driving an ice wagon at Tempe.

Sunday closing of saloons has been ordered by the City Council of Tempe.

THE TAX ROLL.

The Territorial Board of Equalization has adjourned, after completing the tax roll of the Territory. By counties, the valuation is as follows: Apache, $1,085,918.55; Cochise, $20,128,808.97; Coconino, $4,302,299.43; Gila, $5,571,501.01; Graham, $8,199,123.03; Maricopa, $14,264,755.53; Mohave, $1,619,098.11; Navajo, $1,844,872.63; Pima, $7,230,446.02; Pinal, $2,479,415.37; Santa Cruz, $1,731,905.05; Yavapai, $10,244,987.80; Yuma, $2,639,072.09; total valuation, $81,342,204.59; less exemptions, $704,662.10; total subject to taxation, $80,637,541.49.

RAILROAD ASSESSMENTS.

The valuation in Cochise and Yavapai counties is mainly upon producing mines, while in Maricopa it is chiefly upon agricultural property. The total valuation of railroad property of 1375 miles assessed, was $11,398,370, this including $98,912 assessment of the Pullman company. Within the Territory are 925 miles of railroad exempted from taxation, estimated by the board as being worth $8,870,652. The mining property in the Territory is listed at $10,654,234, town lots with improvements at $19,591,213, land with improvements at $10,654,234, and all live stock at $6,763,611. The assessment of the Southern Pacific Railroad was at the rate of $13,485 per mile.

As a general rule, the tax rate will be decreased in all the counties of the Territory, with the one exception of Pima county, which has to make up back interest which had not been paid the Territory on the Tucson and Globe Narrow-Gauge Railroad bonds.

BRINGING 'EM BACK.

The management of the Gayety Company at the Grand operahouse announces that Frank I. Frayne, the popular little comedian of the Ulrich thriller days, has been engaged for the coming production of "Not Yet, But Soon," which will go on at the Grand next Sunday. Frank Richardson, another favorite of the Ulrich régime, is also engaged for the same play, as is James Kelly, a well known vaudevillian.

New Work for Women.

Good-looking young women have found in Paris a new calling, "playing the cured patient." Visitors who find time hanging heavily on their hands in a doctor's waiting room are drawn into conversation. The good-looking woman, who is evidently in the pink of health, tells the visitor how ill she was. Neuritis, rheumatism, gout, dyspepsia and vertigo were combined in her case with appendicitis. Several physicians treated her expensively and left her worse. She went in despair to the present doctor, who cured her in three weeks. She has come today merely to thank him.

The "cured patient" charges $5 a day, but doctors find that the money is not thrown away.—[Exchange.

DEMENTED.

SEEKS DEATH IN MAD LEAP.

Woman Invalid Jumps from Hotel Window.

Desperate Struggle With a Trained Nurse.

Whether Patient Will Die Not Yet Known.

After a desperate struggle with a trained nurse, Miss Charlotte Foster of San Diego jumped from a third-story window at the Hotel Angelus yesterday afternoon in an attempt to end her life. She alighted on the roof of the lobby and sustained, it is believed, a fracture of the skull. Whether she will die cannot yet be determined.

Miss Charlotte Foster, who leaped from a Hotel Angelus window yesterday, and may not recover from her injuries. Diagram shows where the demented young woman jumped.

Dr. Ross Moore was summoned and last night called other physicians into consultation. An operation may be performed. At a late hour the patient had not recovered consciousness.

Miss Foster, who has been an invalid for nearly a year, came to this city about three weeks ago and engaged rooms at the Hotel Westlake. She moved to the Angelus, Monday, and was accompanied by two trained nurses, one of whom was relieved from duty Monday evening.

Although despondent because of her long illness, Miss Foster had never shown any desire to kill herself until yesterday. The nurse, Mrs. Bessie Green, left the room for a moment, and upon her return found the patient preparing to leap from the window. Mrs. Green attempted to prevent the act, and then ensued a fierce struggle. The nurse is a frail woman, and desperation gave her unwonted strength, but Miss Foster, in her madness, dragged her to the window, and both women were in danger of taking a plunge to the roof below. The nurse was fighting for her own life, as well as for that of her charge.

Mrs. Bessie Green, the nurse who tried to save Miss Foster and who was nearly dragged out of a third-story window.

In the struggle chairs were overturned, a table upset and the furniture generally disarranged. Mrs. Green's cries for help were not heard. She was momentarily growing weaker, while her patient seemed to be gaining in strength.

Suddenly thrusting the nurse from her, Miss Foster sprang to the window and jumped. Mrs. Green rang the bell and told the boy who answered it what had happened.

The demented woman fell about fifteen feet and alighted close to the iron railing that surrounds the skylight. When employes of the hotel reached her they thought that she was dead. She was taken to a room on the second floor, where Dr. Moore labored in vain to revive her.

Miss Foster, who is about 25 years old, lived in San Diego for nearly a year before coming to Los Angeles. Her father, who was a millionaire toothpick manufacturer of Portland, Me., and her mother are dead. She has no relatives nearer than Portland.

OWES LIFE TO OFFICER.

Would-be Self-killer Is Saved from Death by Prompt Action of Patrolman.

The prompt action of Patrolman Joseph Wehrly in administering antidotes saved the life of Thomas Smock, who attempted suicide yesterday afternoon by drinking six ounces of crude carbolic acid.

Smock is a mechanic, 44 years of age, and rooms at No. 1602 Santa Fé avenue. Yesterday afternoon, after tramping the streets all day in a fruitless search for work, he retired to his room, wrote a note saying that he did not care to longer continue the struggle, and, lying on his bed, drank six ounces of crude carbolic acid. His groans attracted the attention of another roomer, who called for the police.

Patrolman Wehrly was passing the place at the time and hurried in. As soon as he learned that Smock had taken the acid he secured a bottle of whisky and forced the contents down the throat of the struggling man.

The man was hurried to the Receiving Hospital, where the stomach pump was applied. At a late hour last night the attending surgeons stated that he would probably be able to return to his home within a few days.

RACER SHOWS SPEED.

Kisselkar Tears Over Pasadena Boulevard at Sixty Miles an Hour and May Go Faster.

Flying along at sixty miles an hour, Leon T. Shettler's Kisselkar showed its speed yesterday afternoon on the Pasadena boulevard in a two-mile trial. The car which will race F. C. Fenner's White steamer to the top of North Baldy on September 20, demonstrated itself as one of the fastest cars hereabouts.

Twice the racing machine was sent over the course at top speed, and in the final trial the red needle crawled from forty to the fifty mile mark and finally wavered about the sixty notch. Bert Latham, at the wheel held the machine to the road as it hummed along at the terrific pace.

According to Shettler the throttle was not opened to its fullest extent yesterday. The Kisselkar owner asserts he will rig a speedometer capable of registering a speed of 90 miles an hour and will then open his car out on a similar trial.

The Kisselkar will be sent to the top of Baldy and back today to try it over the course. If any weak spots develop the machine will receive a thorough overhauling. It it stands the tough trip Latham will return with the car to Shoemaker's ranch and will make several journeys from there to the top of the hill.

TOO LATE.

HER WEALTH UNDISPOSED.

Woman Fails in a Deathbed Will Execution.

Intended Beneficiaries Cut by Few Minutes.

Hundred and Fifty Thousand and no Heirs.

Through the issuance of special letters to Public Administrator Frank Bryson yesterday in the estate of Mrs. Mathilde Walden, it became known that a rich estate is left without known heirs or a will. As the estate is believed worth fully $150,000, including residence property, bank accounts and an interest in the block at the southeast corner of Main and First streets, its disposition promises to become a noteworthy incident of the Probate Court records. Some place its value as high as a quarter of a million.

That Mrs. Walden left no will was due to procrastination until the last hour of her life. According to persons who knew her intimately she intended to make generous bequests to a number of those who had been associated with her declining years. These intentions, it appears, she had often expressed. She was particularly definite as to four or five. It is related that one of these persons was a girl in whom Mrs. Walden was interested. Another was C. G. Sawyer of No. 1515 Cambria street, who had for eight years attended to her business affairs, and upon whom she relied absolutely.

TOO LATE.

Feeling that her last hours were approaching, Mrs. Walden last Friday indicated to Sawyer what bequests she wished to make and asked that her attorney, George J. Denis, prepare a document embodying them. Denis has been her counsel for many years. Word was carried to him, but before the document was ready to be executed, Mrs. Walden had breathed her last.

It is understood that the tenor of her bequests was written down by Sawyer, and that the dictation is now in the keeping of Denis, and may become an important piece of evidence in the settlement of the estate.

Of the existence of this ollographic will there is no corroboration. Sawyer last night declined to discuss the case in any way, saying he had been instructed not to talk of it.

"Did you take a written instruction of Mrs. Walden's purpose and deposit it with Mr. Denis?" he was asked.

"I will not answer that question," he said.

That no young lady was concerned in the intended bequests Sawyer gave positive assurance, but he would identify no others. He said he is an "outside party" and that all the talking would have to be done by Denis.

Mrs. Walden lived alone with a housekeeper at Ingram and Valencia streets. She was a well-known pioneer resident. She was about 65 years old and her death, which occurred Friday afternoon, was due to Bright's disease. She was buried Monday.

STATE MAY GET ESTATE.

After Judge James issued the special letters to Administrator Bryson yesterday, his deputy, D. C. Casselman, took formal possession of the house at Ingram and Valencia streets, and the accounts in the Security Savings Bank. He placed Sawyer in charge of the home place.

So far as the public administrator's office is informed, there are no known relatives of Mrs. Walden, and no will extant.

Mrs. Walden's husband died about eleven years ago. The settlement of his estate was attended with litigation, in which the widow acquired title. An accurate idea of its gross value will not be known until an inventory is taken. Should no direct heir or legatee appear, the estate will, after seven years, escheat to the commonwealth for the use of the school fund.

FOUR PERSONS BITTEN.

Monkey Attacks Girl, Terrier Lacerates Boy and Great Dane Sets on Two Officers.

Four victims of attacks by vicious animals were treated by surgeons at the Receiving Hospital yesterday.

Helen Knowlton, 15 years old, was the most seriously injured. A pet monkey bit her seven times on the calf of the right leg.

The girl lives at No. 1622 Pennsylvania street. Her uncle owns the monkey. Yesterday the animal got out of its cage and began to wreck furniture. The girl and a playmate attempted to shoo the enraged little beast back to the cage and the monkey attacked Helen. Her friend beat it off.

Albert E. Hood, 10 years of age, of No. 1010 West Twenty-fourth street, was attacked by a vicious dog belonging to S. Phillips of No. 1025 West Washington street, yesterday afternoon. The little boy was passing the Phillips home when the dog flew at him, inflicting five lacerations on the right leg.

Patrolman H. S. Ficket and F. Heeple, a fire dispatch officer, were set on by a Great Dane early yesterday morning near First street and Central avenue. The officers heard a peculiar noise in a blind alley and went in to investigate. The dog was crouching in a corner and attacked Ficket and his companion. Both were bitten on the hands. Their injuries were treated at the Receiving Hospital.

OPPORTUNITY'S FETE.

About two hundred people attended the lawn fete of the Daily Opportunity Club at the residence of Grove E. Walter, on East Twenty-fifth street, last evening. The house and grounds were beautifully illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and an improvised stage was arranged on the lawn. Isbell's orchestra furnished several selections, a "sketchlet" entitled "The Sudden Betrothal," was presented exceptionally by amateur artists, and dramatic readings were given by Mrs. J. L. Seamens and Miss Vera Tindell. Musical numbers were presented by R. C. Keen, F. N. Yale and S. S. King, and Mrs. C. C. Pierce spoke briefly, explaining the character and purposes of the club. W. G. Lincoln acted as manager of the event, introducing the various participants in the programme. The parts in "The Sudden Betrothal" were taken by Miss Lucie Frances Wilkinson, Annie Murray and Maria F. Pierce, and W. D. Fuller.

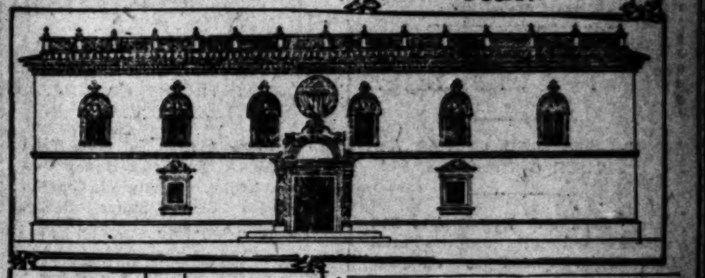
LIKE SPANISH PALACE.

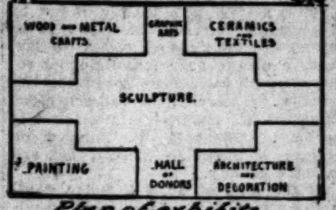
BEAUTIFUL MUSEUM OF ART FOR U. S. C.

In a recent editorial The Times urged upon citizens the necessity of fostering the arts, of educating our youth toward an understanding and appreciation of the beautiful, that Los Angeles may the sooner become what she is destined to be—the art center of the Pacific Coast.

Seal.

Inspired by this the board of trustees of the University of Southern California have during the vacation period been considering a means of expanding the niversity's activities in the field of art. At the last meeting of the board a comprehensive plan was ad pted. A beautiful site, 200 by 200 feet, at the northeast corner of the campus, adjoining the hall of liberad arts, has been set aside, and upon it will be erected a museum of arts and crafts.





Plan of exhibits.

Classic art Museum, to be built by University of Southern California. It will be a beautiful concrete structure, a modified form of the "Cogolludo Palace," near Guadalajara, Spain.

FORM OF ANCIENT PALACE.

The structure will be of reinforced concrete and absolutely fire proof. It will also be architecturally beautiful, and a fine example of that branch of art.

If there is one style of architecture that is more closely linked to the destiny of California than any other it is that of the Spanish resaissance, the lineal ancestor of our mission buildings. Sentiment, as well as climatic conditions, have naturally led to the selection of a model of the simple elegance of the "Plateresque" period.

The exterior will be a modified form of the little known but artistically classic "Cogolludo Palace," near Guadalaja, Spain. This beautiful building, together with the "Casa de la Infanta," of Zaragoza, represents the best expression of Spanish architecture. It seems especially appropriate for a museum building, since it is both dignified and historic. There is also a certain sense of fitness in employing a form of architecture which would never have had its birth in Spain had not the ancient galleons carried the golden wealth of the new world to enrich the palace of the fatherland.

While the proposed Museum will be under the control of the Board of Trustees of the University, it is desired to make it of broader scope than that of a college institution, and extend its influence beyond the student body and the faculty, making it beneficial to the community at large. To this end all the exhibitions and collections will be open to the public free of charge. It is proposed to make the building a place of intellectual recreation, and art stimulus to the whole of Southern California.

In order that the Museum may become an active factor as soon as possible, the plan approved of is such that any one of the four sections comprising the building may be erected, operated, and maintained separately while the other parts are in course of construction. Meanwhile a temporary repository of the University Art Museum has been installed in the College of Liberal Arts and Hector Alliot, professor of art history in the university, has been elected director.

COLLECTIONS AND SCOPE.

In the central hall sculpture will be shown, replicas of antique and modern masterpieces, together with such originals as it may be possible to secure. There will be a permanent exhibition of paintings, as well as a gallery for occasional exhibitions.

Architecture will occupy a prominent place, and special attention will be given to the displays of the art crafts—metal, wood, leather, and ceramics. The foremost purpose is to form a collection of art material useful to every man—enabling him to make his home, his city, truly beautiful—rather than an attempt to gather together costly and doubtful examples of ancient art.

With the enthusiasm and interest of the public aroused it is hoped to soon make of these plans a helpful and substantial reality. An "Art Fund" has been created, in the hands of the treasurer of the University of Southern California to receive contributions for the erection and maintenance of the Museum building and purchase of works of art, and it is desired that public spirited citizens will assist the University in attaining the end they are so earnestly striving to achieve.

COURTS DIAMONDS.

JILTED LOVER SUES GIRL FOR PRESENTS.

After a futile pursuit across the continent for the hand of Miss Velma H. Barge, a young and pretty society girl of Atlanta, Ga., who has been visiting relatives in Los Angeles, J. F. Henry, a wealthy manufacturer of Atlanta, filed suit yesterday in the Superior Court to secure possession of three diamond rings and a pair of diamond earrings, which he gave her when, as he says, she promised to marry him.

Although private detectives were employed to find her last night and process servers were at hand, Miss Barge escaped them, and it is believed that she has gone to San Francisco. It is said she intends to remain in hiding until Henry drops his suit, but that she will return his gifts.

He arrived here about two weeks ago and after several days found Miss Barge at the home of her brother-in-law, Roscoe L. Cannon, No. 2024 Cambridge street. He renewed his pleas and attempted to affect a reconciliation, according to the story, but after several conferences, she finally rejected him and, it is alleged, refused to see him again. Then Henry went to Attorney R. W. Kemp for advice and the suit was filed for the return of the precious stones, which are valued at $1000.

Mr. Henry, who manufactures soda-water fountain supplies, met Mis Barge about two years ago at a soci affair and, it is stated, became infat uated with her. About a year ago, i is alleged, they became engaged, an he spent his money lavishly for gift A difference arose between them abou six months ago, it is stated, whic caused Miss Barge to reject him. THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Police Commission is considering a proposal for a special liquor license of $25 a month for Japanese restaurants; there are forty such eating-houses here that sell liquor to their own people only, and pay no city license.

Acting on the advice of the City Attorney, the Council passed a new anti-dance-hall ordinance yesterday; this is to be the target of a "referendum" attack conducted by the dance-hall proprietors.

Judge Bordwell yesterday denied a new trial of Mrs. Charlotte F. Hamrick's suit for divorce from P. W. Hamrick.

Judge James heard argument in habeas corpus proceedings instituted by Jacob Azarow, serving a jail sentence on a charge of cruelty to animals.

C. H. Lee was on trial in Justice Summerfield's court yesterday on a charge of the larceny of pipe from the Red River mine, near Acton.

Dr. J. Byron Sloan was arrested yesterday on a charge of embezzlement, sworn to by officials of the American National Bank. After arraignment before Justice Selph, he was released on bail.

AT THE CITY HALL.

SPECIAL LAW FOR JAPANESE.

MAY BE FAVORED IN THE NEW LIQUOR ORDINANCE.

Forty Japanese Restaurants Sell "Booze" Without Permits—Police Commission Asked to Consider a Plan to Have Them Pay One-third Regular License.

The Police Commissioners in executive session yesterday considered a proposal for a special liquor license covering Japanese and Chinese restaurants. There are forty Japanese eating places here that violate the liquor laws about every time they serve a meal. Most of these restaurants cater to Japanese trade only, and the Japs would as soon think of eating a meal without rice as without some kind of liquor.

Attorneys representing Japanese restaurant keepers say that their clients are willing to pay a reasonable price for license for selling liquor; but they assert that the Japanese cannot afford to pay $75 a month, that their business is not sufficient to justify such a license. The Japs have caucused on the question and have agreed to pay a license of $20 a month.

Three months ago the Police Commission took up the question of a special liquor license for Little Tokio. At that time it was proposed to make the license $25 a month. It now appears that the Japs have been able to secure a tentative reduction of $5 a month.

The situation reduces itself to one where the city must either make a special license for the Jap restaurants or the police must raid the places periodically as blind pigs. Chief Kern is desirous that some special license shall be agreed upon so that the Japs will not be outlawed liquor dealers.

"It is very hard to get sufficient evidence against the Japanese restaurants to justify a raid," says the chief," it is not enough that the ice chests are stored with beer; in order to secure a conviction we must have the sworn testimony of some one who has bought liquor twice in the place. As the Japs sell almost exclusively to their own people and these are not inclined to turn State's evidence on their fellows, the department finds it a difficult task to get what the courts will accept as evidence against them."

The Mayor does not agree with the Chief of Police concerning the special license.

"It would not be fair to the other restaurant men who are paying $75 a month to fix a special license of $25 for the Japs," said the Mayor last night. "We have talked over the $25 license, but the plan does not appear to be feasible; there is a question whether the ordinance would be legal.

"And above this there is no good reason why these Japs should be permitted to come here and drive white restaurant men out of business. But it is true, on the other hand, that most of the Jap restaurants sell liquor to their own people only. We are getting a pretty big Japanese colony here now. From the reports I have received from the police I do not believe that the Japs can afford to pay the $75 a month license. They do not incline as a people to big cafés, but rather to a cluster of small tea houses. These tea houses do not appear to have enough business for each to pay $75 a month.

"About the only way to handle the affair seems to be the one that the police are following now. They make periodical raids, and the offenders are fined $100 each in the Police Court. This brings in the revenue that would come by way of license, and we are not losing a great deal. There was a raid only a couple of weeks ago, and each offender was fined $100."

Most of the Japanese restaurant keepers look upon this attempt on the part of the city to force them to pay license as a species of blackmail. Each restaurant keeper pays a revenue license to the United States government, and he keeps his receipt posted conspicuously in his place. He thinks that this permit from the government should take precedence over anything the city can do; in fact, he regards it as a certificate for a government concession.

The attention of the police board was called to the expansion of Little Tokio yesterday, when the Chief of Police reported on an application for a poolroom license at No. 317 Wall street. The report asserts that the station is on the ground floor of a Japanese rooming-house, and that the neighborhood is becoming a part of the Japanese colony.

A year ago the whole Japanese colony was located north of First street. The Jap population has been increasing, and Little Tokio has been spreading out until it now reaches almost as far south as Fifth street. The size of the Jap colony is evidenced in the fact that there are forty restaurants that cater to Japanese only.

READY FOR REFERENDUM.
TEST OVER DANCE HALLS.

Acting on the advice of the City Attorney, the Council repealed the anti-dance hall ordinance yesterday and replaced it with a brand new one which the City Attorney says is in better form to stand the test of a suit in court. This is the ordinance against which the proprietors of the dancing halls propose to invoke the referendum. If electors of the city equal in number to 15 per cent. of the vote at the last general election sign the referendum petitions, the ordinance becomes inoperative. It can be reënacted only by a vote of the people at a special election.

There appears to be a general understanding that the majority of the electors of the city are in favor of the anti-dance hall legislation; the Council is practically a unit in favor of the ordinance. But there are enough liberals to secure the necessary petition blocking the ordinance.

The petitions must be presented within thirty days; the ordinance does not go into effect for thirty days from the date of its passage. If the necessary signatures are secured the city must bear the expense of a $10,000 special election or the ordinance must remain a dead letter for a year and a half and then be submitted to the ordeal of a popular vote.

This is one of the beauties of the referendum; but for this socialistic appendix to the charter the dance-hall question would be settled for all time.

Liquor License First.

Police Commissioner Tufts attended his first session of the Police Board yesterday. His first official action was to second a motion to locate a wholesale liquor store at 422 East Fifth street. Commissioner Woodill took Tufts under his arm and instructed him in interesting asides on the duties of a Police Commissioner. Tufts appeared about as excited as a 250-pound chunk of ice.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

DIVORCE CAUSE IS EXPLAINED.

JUDGE MAKES SOME COMMENTS OF PERTINENT NATURE.

In Denying Motion for New Trial in Hamrick Case, His Honor Discusses Legal Meaning of Cruelty. "Sensitive Souls" Suffer Easily. Duty of the Bench.

"It is settled as a matter of law by the highest courts of the land that divorces are injurious to society—a disruption of the very foundation of society itself," was Judge Bordwell's declaration, yesterday, in refusing Mrs. Charlotte F. Hamrick a new trial of her suit against P. W. Hamrick on grounds of desertion, non-support, and extreme cruelty.

At the trial on June 5, Judge Bordwell refused Mrs. Hamrick a decree. She testified that her husband used vile language to her, and struck her on one occasion, and that in January, 1907, he 'phoned to one of her children, while she was away from home, that she need not return and, if she did, would "find no more home than a jackrabbit." She said she did not return, although she and her children had subsequently dined with Hamrick on different occasions.

Hamrick filed an answer denying all his wife's charges and, though not present in court himself, was represented by counsel and witnesses. He did not file a cross complaint, and said he is willing to provide for his family if they return to his home. When the court gave judgment in the husband's favour, Mrs. Hamrick's counsel moved to set aside the decision, asked judgment for the plaintiff, and also moved for a new trial.

After pointing out the insufficiency of the evidence offered in support of Mrs. Hamrick's charges of desertion and non-support, the court said, in part:

"It takes something more than mere preponderance of evidence in a divorce case to justify the granting of a decree. But if his mind is free from reasonable doubt, it is the duty of the court to award a decree, though the interest of society may suffer thereby.

"We sometimes hear discussion of the question whether the interests of society is favored, or harmed by divorce. This is not a debatable subject in the courtroom. It is settled, as a matter of law, by the highest courts of the land that divorces are injurious to society— a disruption of the very foundation of society itself. Yet the law recognises that individuals are entitled to protection by legal severance of the marriage ties. Decrees to that effect are granted where the facts require it, though the public weal suffers.

"The proof of some suffering, physical or mental, is not enough in any case to justify a decree. It must be extreme or, as the statute says "grievous." The act may be one of commission or omission and the party charged must know as a reasonable person that the act complained of would cause extreme suffering.

"Cruelty is a relative term. It is most reprehensible for a husband to use toward his wife, or in her presence, the language charged to the defendant here. But the question is did it cause her suffering in such a degree that the act must be characterised as extreme cruelty?

"Applied to some sensitive souls the answer should be unhesitatingly in the affirmative and, if without any, or but slight provocation, might be ground for divorce. But if the complainant should persist in a petty course of annoyance, nagging, hectoring, or henpecking, it is in human nature that there should be some resistance or retort coextensive with the annoyance."

MUCH TOO DOCILE.
TAKES ADVICE; IN JAIL.

The docility of Jacob Azarow in pleading guilty, on August 21, to a charge of cruelty to animals, lodged against him in the Ballona township Justice Court, was the indirect cause of habeas corpus proceedings brought by him and involving fine points of law that Judge James was called upon to consider yesterday.

Azarow says he was advised that he would save himself expense by pleading guilty to a complaint charging him with having "inflicted unnecessary cruelty on a horse, being then and there lame and sore." He took the advice, and Justice H. C. Rogers fined him $100, with the alternative of 100 days in the County Jail. He went to jail, thought the matter over, engaged counsel, and was informed that the complaint to which he pleaded guilty did not define a public offense.

Judge James took this view, but a question exists as to whether, having pleaded guilty, it is now Azarow's right to institute habeas corpus proceedings to escape the results of his voluntary act.

The court continued the matter until Saturday morning.

MINE LOSES PIPE.
BLACKSMITH ACCUSED.

C. H. Lee, a blacksmith living near Acton and not far from the Red Rover Gold Mining Company's property, was placed on trial before a jury in Justice Summerfield's court, yesterday. He is charged with the larceny of 500 feet of iron pipe worth $50, from the corporation's pipe line on May 5.

Officers of the mining concern of which Daniel Newhart is president, say that fully $2000 worth of its tools and machinery have been carried away from time to time.

The Red Rover mine has been worked for twenty-five years at intervals, it had been closed down since 1903, when Arthur Deane, who said he was a miner, was given a contract for a bond.

He began developing the property last August. Acton citizens say that before he left for parts unknown, last December, he had contracted large debts with many Acton people. The Red Rover's owners refused to settle these debts, and much hard feeling was caused in the neighborhood.

J. E. Robbins testified for the prosecution, yesterday, that he saw Lee driving away from the mine on May 5 with a load of iron pipe. He explained that he used his spy glass to satisfy his curiosity.

James B. Miller testified that he found on Lee's place seventeen lengths of iron pipe like that taken from the mine. These had been used to carry water from Lee's well.

Roy Smith, testified that he had worked for Lee and accompanied him on the trip which Robbins said he observed through his spy glass.

Lee asserts that the suit is spite work, and that he can prove that he did not steel the pipe. The trial will be continued this morning.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.
BREVITIES MISCELLENEOUS.

FOR ATTORNEY'S FEES. M. H. Holland, as assignee of Attorney E. A. Meserve, yesterday, filed in the Superior Court, a suit against the California Development Company to recover $13,543, alleged due for legal services between February, 1902, and August, 1905, by Mr. Meserve as counsel for the defendant.

BREAKS PAROLE. Chris C. Conley of Huntington Park was committed to the County Jail for ninety days by Justice Selph, yesterday, for disturbing the peace. A few weeks ago, his three motherless children were taken from him by the Humane Society and placed by Judge Wilbur in the Home of the Guardian Angel, as neighbors had complained that the children suffered through their father's intemperance. Conley resisted the officers when they came for the children, and was convicted in Justice Selph's court of disturbing the peace. He was allowed to go under suspended sentence, as he promised both Justice Selph and Judge Wilbur that he would drink no more. But yesterday liquor again got the better of the man, and he was taken into custody at Huntington Park.

FELONY. Antonio Martini was found guilty of a felony by a jury in Judge Bordwell's court, yesterday, and will be sentenced this afternoon.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed, yesterday with the County Clerk by the Sans Souci Oil Company, capital stock, $10,000; amended articles by the Anderson Mill Company, capital stock $150,000.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

Doctor Charged With Embezzlement Released on Bail—Opium Smokers Punished—Whip Duel.

Charged with having appropriated $700 of the funds of the American National Bank of Second and Broadway to his own use, Dr. J. Byron Sloan was arrested yesterday. The warrant had been sworn out in the Police Court, but Sloan was arraigned before Justice Selph. Bail was fixed at $1500, which friends furnished, and he was released, pending preliminary examination on September 4.

Sloan retained Hunsaker, Britt & Fleming to defend him, and upon their advice refused to discuss the case.

Officials of the bank allege in the complaint that Sloan took advantage of a mistake in book-keeping, secured the sum referred to and refused to return it upon demand.

A representative of the American National Bank said: "Four months ago, Dr. Sloan deposited a personal check upon a St. Louis bank with us. It was for $700, and he declared it to be good. The eastern bank refused to honor it and it was returned. By a mistake in book-keeping it was placed to Sloan's credit. He drew out $1400 a short time later. Then the eastern bank decided to honor the check and we received $700, leaving $700 which Sloan had secured through the mistake. He was given every chance to make good, but refused."

Sloan's arrest yesterday was the second one this year. In February he was taken into custody upon the request of the police of Detroit, Mich. He was held in jail several days, and then was released because the eastern complaint was defective. He was charged at that time with securing $175,000 by the sale of worthless mining stocks.

Suspended Sentence.

Roy Anderson, an 18-year-old messenger boy, charged with petty larceny, yesterday told Justice Frederickson that he would be good and was given a suspended sentence of 90 days and put on a year's probation. He will be required to call on the justice once a month.

The boy's mother said Roy was her sole support and that she would be helpless without his care. She promised to take him away from the evil influences.

The youth stole $20 given him by Susan R. Smith to pay the fine of James Rogers, a prisoner in the City Jail.

Speeders Fined.

Charles Balka, well known in this city as a motorcycle racer, was given a suspended sentence of 15 days by Justice Frederickson, yesterday for violating the speed ordinance. For the first time in the history of such prosecutions, a charge of exceeding the speed limit was also preferred against a man who rode on the rear seat of the motorcycle. F. Monasch pleaded guilty and was given a 10-day suspended sentence.

J. J. Eichstaedt, also charged with riding a motorcycle too fast, was fined $5.

Opium Smokers Fined.

Nine Chinese were fined $10 each for smoking opium by Justice Rose yesterday. Ah Wing, who was convicted of selling the drug, was fined $50. All paid.

Fight With Whips.

After engaging in a duel with whips, Charles Brandis and R. C. Thompson, expressmen, were taken before Justice Frederickson yesterday, and fined $5 each, for disturbing the peace. Both wanted a stand at Fourth and Hill streets.

FENCING.

EDITOR ENDURES LONG GRILLING.

RESENTS HINT OF IMPROPRIETY IN MAYR TRIAL.

Interesting Points Brought Out in Divorce Case, but Witness Proves Difficult Subject for Examining Lawyer—Denies Separation from Wife—Very Personal Questions.

Mrs. Anna Etta Mayr, dressed in black, with stylish hat and gloves to match, sat for an hour in Judge James's court yesterday, ready to testify in her suit for divorce, but she was not called.

James F. Griffes, editor of "Everyman," was on the stand for more than two hours. While not named as a co-respondent, he was compelled to answer many very personal questions concerning his acquaintance with the charming plaintiff. The editor supplies what might be termed the "local interest" in the case, as many of the alleged facts have been presented in depositions from men and women in places more or less remote; some even from far-off Germany. He was searchingly examined by Attorney Britt, counsel for Mayr. Toward the end of his ordeal, the witness became aroused. His eyes flashed, and he wanted the lawyer to say: "How much longer is this going on?"

Griffes said his acquaintance with Mrs. Mayr began in a casual way. He and she were deeply interested in the same lines of abstract thought, and met occasionally; but, the witness declared, his wife, and often his daughter, and others of the "group" were present. He characterized these meetings as "fortuitous," referring to a reading circle, or book club, which had been begun before Mrs. Mayr was a member. There was, he stated, no distinct organization and no "formal" members.

When Attorney Britt tried to find out the various places at which the "club" had met, witness replied: "I told you frankly—do you think I am lying?"

The attorney insisted and the editor protested strongly against "bringing in names of innocent persons." He was willing, he added, "to write the names on a piece of paper, but what's the use of newspaper publicity?"

Griffes was interrogated sharply as to the present whereabouts of his wife, the lawyer apparently intending to show that Mrs. Griffes, was no longer living with her husband.

"Where is your wife now," he was asked.

"In the North?"

"How long has she been away?"

"Since last September."

"How long since you have been separated from her?"

"I am not separated from her."

Attorney Rogers, representing Mrs. Mayr, objected to the last question, classing it as "impertinent."

"We are not separated," repeated the witness.

"What do you mean by that?"

",ovBy ofy7avp. edafil mCwionmraJO

"Tell me what you mean by separated and I will tell you what I mean by separated," was Griffes's retort.

Again and again, the lawyer endeavored to draw from the editor information concerning an alleged stormy interview between Mrs. Mayr, Mrs. Griffes and Griffes, but Griffes refused flatly to admit that there was any question of improper relations.

Attorney Britt insisted that there was a stormy interview in which Mrs. Griffes said she "knew it all," but the witness angrily denied it.

Griffes said that he never wrote Mrs. Mayr "a letter," but only "one or two notes." He never kept copies. He glowered at counsel when asked whether there was anything "affectionate" or "endearing" in the notes, and answered: "It couldn't be so," because his relations with Mrs. Mayr were always above suspicion. There was a great deal about the "notes" that he could not remember, but everything was as it should be so far as he was concerned.

The attorney took up the matter of the book that Griffes swore he went to Mrs. Mayr's apartment for, but the witness could not recall the title, and had forgotten the subject of the two hours' conversation he had had that day with her. He referred to some

MINES AND MINING.

M REED'S FINE RECORD.

y Thousand in Profits Since April.

irty-four Thousand from Ten Days' Run.

oldfield Silver Peak Will Erect Mill.

ery one reads of the mining fakes ssed through the columns of the ily press and are supplied thereby h an argument against investment mines; few keep thoroughly posted the development of legitimate ing and are, therefore, not supplied arguments in favor of mining a businesslike and honest basis. y mines paying good profits to al stockholders have scarcely been rd of beyond the coteries profiting their production.

ch a property is the Tom Reed , in the San Francisco mining trict, Mohave county, Ariz., which been quietly developed to the idend stage by a small syndicate in sadena and a few smaller stockhold s in Los Angeles.

L. P. Hansen, one of the principal ners and the manager of the mine, recently been a visitor in this city gives some interesting facts con rning the property. It was formerly old Blue Ridge mine, which was ld at sheriff's sale in May of 1907, ght in by the Title Insurance and ust Company, and by it transferred the Tom Reed Gold Mines Company, present owner. The company was anized by Hansen and to him 's the credit of the remarkable rec it has made during the past year. When the present management took session the property was developed to the 100-foot level with some important drifts from that point. e old company exhausted its re rces in building a ten-stamp mill reduce ore which had not yet been t in sight. Since then the shaft s been put down to the 250-foot level th a comprehensive system of drifts the 150 and 250-foot levels. At the -foot level a drift has been run 400 et one way and 300 feet in another. t the 250-foot level 460 feet of drift g has been accomplished. The ma inery of the mill has also been thor ghly overhauled and a fifty-ton cy nide plant added with all necessary cessories.

Since April 1, in the course of de lopment only, no less than $80,000 t has been taken from the mine d most of it paid out to lucky stock olders. For last month alone $40,342 as obtained from bullion as evidenced express receipts shown to the rep sentative of The Times. Thirty-four ousand dollars of this amount was tained during ten days of twenty ur-hour runs of the mill—from the h to the 16th of July.

What is of great importance to the operty is the fact that the highest d is coming from the lowest the mine. From that point a was run and encountered the in at 285 feet. For sixty feet the body has averaged $305 a ton with width of ten feet, while average lues in some places have run up to 18. The breast now shows twelve et of the $305 ore. The 150-foot work gs show a large body of $25 ore for length of 150 feet. In putting a raise p from that level to the surface 1000 ns of $25 ore have been broken, but ot yet milled. The management is ow connecting the levels by an up ise from the 250.

The company is figuring upon a rger milling capacity and it will be stalled this fall. Thirty men are at ork in the mine and mill and no stock for sale. The principal owners are P. Hansen, Charles Grimes, James Kerr, William Mason, Charles Mush ush and ex-State Senator C. M. Simp on, all of Pasadena. As said before, ome small holdings are scattered hrough this city. The company is apitalized for $1,000,000 in dollar hares and 750,000 shares have been ssued.

Will Erect Mill.

The Goldfield Silver Peak Mining Company, a Los Angeles company, operating a property within three and a half miles of the famous Pittsburgh Silver Peak near Blair, Nev., is contemplating the erection of a ten-stamp mill upon the property, and it is probable that ground will be broken early this fall. Just at this time work has been discontinued owing to the excessive heat, but operations will be resumed with cooler weather.

William Hennessey, manager of the mine, who is well-known to western mining men as one of the pioneers in the Slocan excitement of 1892, where he located the Noble Five and other prominent mines, has just returned from the desert and gives The Times some particulars of development accomplished. The main shaft, sunk upon what is known as the Primble vein, has reached a depth of 226 feet and is equipped with a twenty-five-horse-power hoist, compressor and Ingersoll-Sargent drill. At the 200 a crosscut was run to strike the Plymouth Rock vein, which was picked up at 325 feet and shows eight feet of free-milling ore running up to $14 a ton in values. Sixty feet from the shaft a blind vein was cut with values running from $4 to $14 across four feet. He says the property is coming up to expectations in every way and that it has an excellent chance of making a permanent producing mine. Between 700 and 800 feet of development has been accomplished since last spring.

Correction Due.

In justice to Fred V. Beau de Zart, formerly superintendent of the Johnnie mine, A. D. Myers, president of the company, wishes it understood that any credit for improvement in production during the last month of the mine's run must be given to him. In this column yesterday it was made to appear that Anderson had increased the milling values from $4.57 in May to $6.68 in June. Myers adds that Beau de Zart's work was eminently satisfactory and that he was operating under most trying circumstances. It is certain that, but for the fact that the company was in such financial stress that miners' wages could not be met at any time a man's work was unsatisfactory, the output under Beau de Zart's management during the month of June would have been $10,-600 or over instead of $7800.

Itale Improving.

Excellent reports continue to emanate from the Itale mine, in the Twenty-nine Palms district, and recent indications seem to point to the discovery of more permanent forma on at depth. The president of the mpany, Maj. W. A. Phipps, says that e winze from the main tunnel is w down fifty-five feet with an eight n-inch streak of high-grade ore owing on the hanging wall side of e vein. In the last few feet there now making on the footwall side as well. In searching for water the well has reached a depth of eighty-six feet and has passed through a strata of what looks like sea sand. It carries fair values in gold. Teams have been purchased to take care of the hauling to the mill recently acquired by the company at Twenty-nine Palms, and the machinery is being thoroughly overhauled. An engineer named Hanrahan, who has just returned to the city after a visit to the property, has recently gone through a terrible experience and nearly lost his life while prospecting along the ridge to the north of the mine. He was without water for thirty-six hours and without food for forty-eight before finding his way in a feeble condition to shelter.

OUR COLLEGE WOMEN PROUD.

National Alumnae Honors Local Branch by Appointing "Los Angeles Day." Programme Arranged.

The most interesting feature, from the view point of local college women, of the annual meeting of the National Collegiate Alumnae, in San Francisco, beginning Monday, will be "Los Angeles Day" which has been set for September 8.

As the local branch is the newest one of the national organizations, having a day set apart for its programme is an honor of which the college women of the city are proud. Extensive preparations are under way, for the reception and entertainment of the visiting officers and other alumnae, for it has been arranged that "Los Angeles day" will be celebrated here.

There will be two sessions in Choral Hall, Auditorium building; the first at 10:30 o'clock in the morning, when an address of welcome will be given by Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, president of the Los Angeles branch. This will be responded to by Miss Laura Drake Gill, of Washington, D. C., president of the national organization. Mrs. Philip N. Moore, general secretary, will give a talk upon "Present Activities of the Association," and Dean Marion Reilly, of Bryn Mawr College, will tell of the "New Series of Health Statistics."

In the afternoon, at 3 o'clock, there will be a reception for the visitors, also at Choral Hall. All college and club women, teachers and others interested in educational work are cordially invited to both sessions.

At noon the Los Angeles branch will entertain with a luncheon at the California Club.

The local branch of the National Collegiate Alumnae has been in existence only a short time, but delightful informal meetings and luncheons have been enjoyed monthly. The officers are: President, Mrs. Robert J. Burdette; vice-president, Mrs. Andrew Stewart Lobingier; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Seward Simons; director, Mrs. O. S. Barnes.

Mrs. A. S. Lobingier is chairman of the membership committee, and also one of the directors of the executive board of the national organization, the officers of which are: President, Miss Laura Drake Gill, of Washington, D. C.; vice-president, Mrs. May S. Cheney; secretray-treasurer, Mrs. Elizabeth Lawrence Clarke, of Williamstown, Mass.

PROPERTY OWNERS ORGANIZE.

New Improvement Association Is Launched Last Night in the Fourth Ward.

Property owners of the Fourth Ward met in the house of Hose Company No. 2 on Winfield street last night and organized an improvement association. It is known as the Fourth Ward Improvement Association, and starts with fifty members.

T. H. Loyhed of No. 1443 Winfield street was elected chairman, and William H. McGill, chief clerk of the health department, was elected secretary and treasurer. A committee was appointed to confer with other improvement associations in the city and then draw up a constitution and set of bylaws. The next meeting will be held Tuesday night.

Considerable street work is projected for the Fourth Ward and the newly-formed association expects to take a prominent part in all improvement plans. There are nearly 1000 property holders in the district embraced by the association, and an active membership campaign will be undertaken at once.

FEDERAL COURTS TO REOPEN.

After a long recess, the Federal courts will reopen next Monday morning. A number of cases will be called and set for disposition. The prospects are that this term will be an unusually busy one. Term trial jurors have been summoned to appear in court September 1.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

one coming to the door and Mrs. Mayr speaking in a low voice, although he denied that she had locked the door. "And really, if you are looking for details you will never get them from me," he added, "because I do not recall them."

Occasionally his response to a query was: "Now, I am not certain about that. I may have forgotten."

As to when he first called on Mrs. Mayr his recollection was hazy. He admitted that on a certain occasion he had spoken to her "through a window." They talked two minutes about a book meeting.

"When did you call again?"

"Oh, I don't know. I might have seen her half a dozen times at the office, perhaps, but really I don't know. I was not accustomed to meet her."

It was evident throughout that Griffes was insisting on clear-cut English, and was in a mood to challenge the loose use of every word.

Asked whether Mrs. Mayr wrote for his magazine, the editor replied: "No, I could not say she did." He added: "We were interested, as a lot of intelligent people are, in certain subjects, which we discussed." He conceded that Mrs. Mayr might have looked over a "proof" occasionally, but insisted that she had no editorial or financial connection with the magazine.

"Did she advise with you?"

"Oh, she might have done so, maybe; like all my other friends."

"You say all your other friends?"

"Well, five or six."

"What was Mrs. Mayr consulted about?"

"Oh, I couldn't say."

In the course of the long examination Griffes said that he did not "know" whether Mrs. Mayr was or was not married. He was not in the habit of "inquiring into private affairs." Resenting the attorney's suggestion, he stated: "No, I did not have an 'irresistible impulse,' when I called." He denied again that his wife had ever charged him with improper relations with Mrs. Mayr.

The case will be resumed today at 10 o'clock, when Mrs. Mayr will take the stand.

DIAMOND RING RETURNED.

Through Advertisement in "The Times" Keepsake Is Restored to Widow of Heroic Officer.

The honesty of A. J. Wilkinson of the Beaumont Land and Water Company in returning a diamond ring valued at $750, yesterday, made happy the heart of Mrs. J. W. Murphy, widow of Detective Jack Murphy.

Mrs. Murphy lost the ring on Broadway day before yesterday. To her it was priceless. Some months before his death, Detective Murphy, then a crossing officer at First and Main streets, threw himself in front of a Pasadena car as it turned the dangerous corner and rescued from beneath the wheels a fainting woman.

It was but one of many acts of heroism performed by the officer during his long service, and it meant his life. He sustained a fractured rib which penetrated his lung, resulting in death from quick tuberculosis.

A short time after the rescue, the unsought reward came in the form of a beautiful diamond ring presented by the grateful relatives of the woman. Murphy wore the token until his death, when he gave it to his wife, telling her to keep it as a remembrance of him.

She dropped it day before yesterday at Third and Broadway, on her way to work.

There it remained probably twenty minutes, unharmed, while wagons, bicycles and automobiles by the score passed by it. Wilkinson, alighting from a car, almost stepped on the gem before he saw it.

He tried to find the owner Monday but failed. In yesterday's Times he saw Mrs. Murphy's advertisement and restored her the ring.

A young girl from a Broadway department store yesterday found a diamond valued at $500. She discovered the gem on the floor of the store. She thought it might be Mrs. Murphy's. When the latter explained that she had recovered her diamond the young woman left, saying she intended to continue the search for the owner.

HILL BACK TO TEXAS.

Sheriff from Lone Star State Taking Alleged Horse Thief—Evidence Strong Against Him.

"Wild Horse" Hill, bronco buster, will leave this morning for Snyder, Tex., to face a charge of horse stealing. He will be under charge of Sheriff James Boles of Scurry county, Tex., who holds the papers for his return.

Boles, who in the vernacular of the plains, is a "cunnin' little cuss," was the guest of Sheriff Hammel yesterday and spent the time at the beaches and visiting Alhambra, Monrovia and Pasadena.

Hill greeted Boles warmly. "I ain't done no stealin,' Jim, and I 'ain't afeard to go back there and have it out," said Hill.

"'Wild Horse' seems to be in a bad way, according to the evidence down there," said Boles. "We all like the boy and hate to see him in trouble. He can ride anything Texas ever produced, and I have never seen a man that could touch him when it comes to handling a bad horse. According to the evidence we have, Hill is the last of a gang of horse rustlers, the others being in the penitentiary. He may be able to clear himself."

Sheriff Boles, unlike most other Texas Sheriffs, does not carry elaborate hardware. His revolver, heavy and short-nosed, shows long and hard usage. It is dull and dirty on the outside, but oiled and finished to perfection in the mechanism. The holster and belt are of unornamented leather, and well worn by usage.

INTERESTS HOMESTEADERS.

According to H. H. Chapman, forest service examiner of lands, there is much misapprehension in the minds of many prospective homesteaders in regard to the regulations for homesteading land in forest reserves. He states that agents have located settlers upon lands that are not open to entry and that much confusion has resulted. Agricultural land where it exists in tracts large enough to afford a living to a homesteader in the forest reserves, will be listed for settlement, but if the tracts do not appear to be able to afford a living for the settler they will not be listed. No one can obtain a homestead to lands within forest reserves unless they intend to make a home there. As a matter of fact, most of the land valuable for homesteading within the reserves has already been taken by squatters, who exercised a preference right, and there are few tracts left which are at all desirable.

In Good Luck.

"About two years ago my father came here from Mason City, Iowa, on a visit," says O. L. Scott, Duffield, Mich. "While here he was taken sick with diarrhoea and cramps. I gave him several doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and it cured him." This remedy always cures.—[Adv.

THE CRY FOR PEACE.

The plain people of this community, the business men who are doing something worth while, just now wish and pray for one thing above all else. What they desire is a period of repose from senseless, mischievous, useless, destructive agitation. They wish to have the minds of those who are doing the things on which our prosperity depends left free to devote their full energies to the business in hand, and not distracted by crusade after crusade, the end of which no one can clearly see.

Now, friends, keep your garments over your nakedness and do not rend them! Cry not "Ichabod!" The country is not in danger. We advise no man, no woman, no pretense nor simulacrum of man or woman to neglect any duty, civic, domestic or religious. We advise no one to cease from paying sane and reasonable attention to current events. We have no words but those of appreciation and encouragement for any one who is unselfishly, reasonably, practically doing all possible to make this old world of ours better. The purpose is simply to warn the people against the misleading cry of "reform" raised by small-brained, half-intelligent, rabid men and women, who mistake a foible for the sin against the Holy Ghost; against the hypocritical cry of "reform" raised by the conceited man or woman who would fain stand all the time in the limelight; against the equally hypocritical cry of the pretenders whose purposes are more substantially selfish, who cry "reform" in order to land themselves in office or to take in coin at the counters of the money-changers, like the old-time Pharisees, who sold doves in the temple and thereby at once robbed the poor and made a gain of godliness.

This is what business men are weary of. We have had so much of it, and those wearing sheep's clothing have so often discovered the cloven hoof of the repeater, of the self-seeker, of the office-seeker, of the unscrupulous and knavish, that a great disgust has taken fast hold of the minds of sincere, honest men.

Think, Mr. Limelight Agitator, before you rashly deny this. Go about among the best business men of this city and invite them to tell you frankly what they think of you. You will know more about yourself than you ever knew before. Let The Times help you to know yourself, to see yourself as business men see you. Here is what some of them say of you:

William W. Mines, real estate: I am opposed to crusades by professional reformers, who make it their business to constantly stir up questions of reform, that they know, in most cases, will not accomplish any permanent or beneficial results; they are only actuated in their efforts by personal aggrandizement or benefits, and the whole thing is detrimental to the moral and business interests of any community.

J. D. Simpson of the Frank Simpson Fruit Company: Let us have peace. We need it now more than ever. No more crusades.

L. M. Cole, treasurer of the Simon Levi Company: We should get together and work for a better Los Angeles by a cessation of petty hostilities for a time.

A. G. Kendall, manager and secretary of the Citrus Protective League: Let's forget the agitation, the bitterness and strife of the past year.

A. M. Klein of the Klein Fruit Company: Peace is an essential for the business projects of Los Angeles. Line up now and stay there.

J. C. Richardson of the Richardson & Holmes Company: There is a limit to all things, and that limit has been reached in our petty agitations here. Our government is one of the best city governments in the country, and the only thing needed is a little more harmony here.

R. A. Rowan: We are absolutely disgusted with all the petty, insignificant quarrels and prosecutions in Los Angeles, and it's time that we bury our animosities in an endeavor to harmonize and build up.

Thomas Hughes, manufacturer: Yes, I say let us have peace. We have had enough of turmoil of all kinds—have had enough of arraying neighbor against neighbor. What we want now is plenty of time to attend to our business and work at it uninterruptedly. We should be a great deal better off today if all the time and energy and money devoted in the past two years to acrimonious agitation had been expended in the development of the country. I hope we shall not see another agitation of any kind started in Los Angeles for another year.

Mayor Earley of Pasadena: Let us quit agitating and devote ourselves to doing things.

M. S. Gregory, secretary Union League: I find that everybody now wants to settle down to business. I find that the general feeling is for a grand getting-together. We have had strife enough.

E. T. Off, president Pasadena Board of Trade: By all means, I say, let us cultivate peace and quiet and harmonious upbuilding. The country needs a period of constructive repose.

J. M. Schneider, president of Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association: No man can tell me how I shall live my life, and I want others to have the same privilege that I have. One of the surest ways to ruin this city would be to give free rein to the agitators who want to make everybody eat and drink and dress just as they do, and to run the town according to their own narrow ideas. Yes, let us have peace. This city is going ahead on the right lines now.

Col. Ed F. Browne, now in Los Angeles, veteran of the Civil War, mining man from Cripple Creek and every other camp in the West: I think that any so-called reformer of the present frenzied era of so-called exposure is either a fool, with an adjective before the name, or else something worse that would not look well in print.

W. R. Doran, realty man: We shall soon be in splendid, fine shape if we all get in and work and stop quarreling. I hope there will be a let-up in intolerant agitation of all kinds.

Some business men speak so emphatically that their words would look bad in print. They would be particularly obnoxious to the Limelight Reform League. They would not sound well coming from the lips of a young lady teaching a class in Sunday-school. The "reformer" who has itching ears to hear the truth can get them scratched just for the asking.

Suppose we had been engaged in a reasonable, friendly rivalry, all the past two years, to see who of us could do the most in the way of building up the city and its varied interests, instead of abusing each other! What would have been the effect? Did this crusade of bearing false witness, of personal abuse, produce anything of value? Did it reform a single evil, or save one person from his own vices? Did it not destroy confidence, divert energy, waste force and prevent progress and the upbuilding of our material, intellectual and spiritual affairs?

Look into the future and conjure up a picture of two years of peace and of mutual effort in the way of doing, not of destroying. Let us imagine a city where the ministers of the gospel "go about doing good," clothing the naked, feeding the hungry, healing the sick, preaching the "comfortable doctrine of Christ." Let there not be one who lifts up his voice in the street, who calls down fire from heaven, who raises the mailed fist to bruise the broken reed, who makes a wind-bag of himself to quench the smoking flax. Imagine a city where the "reformer" goes in love and charity and pleads with the erring to come back into the paths of peace, and does it without ostentation, without hope of reward, out of the limelight, so that his right hand knows not what his left hand is doing. Stop denunciation. Cease pointing so persistently to your brother's failure to do his duty! Go on quietly, forcefully, reasonably, persistently doing your own duty!

What would be the effect? Would not the work of reform be effective? Would you not have more confidence and sympathy in your work? Would not business men (left free to attend to their own affairs and not distracted in guessing what fool crusade is coming tomorrow) help you more in your efforts to make the world better?

Fallen women? Oh, God, brother, are they a subject for execration, for harsh words and hard treatment at the hands of man? Men, brothers, who made them what they are? Their sister women will not stretch out a hand to them. Shall men who brought them to what they are give them a further rude thrust abyssward? If you think so, Limelight Reform Leaguer, intent on elevating yourself to a higher round on the political ladder, take your glorious English Bible and read carefully the story of the Magdalen. Then go and reform men and women as your Master did, and give the world a rest from your impracticable schemes, really intended not to reform anything, but to hold you in the calcium blaze with the shouts ringing in your long ears.

NOT SO NEW AFTER ALL.

Speaking generally, the effete East, which is long on scandals and short on history, looks upon California as a part of the country discovered after the Union. Out here we know that the first romance concerning California was published in 1510, less than twenty years after Columbus landed on the other side of the continent, and the sixteenth century was still young when Cortez and Cabrillo searched along this coast for the El Dorado which was never absent from their thoughts. So we smile when the East deems the West new.

At the same time, it must be admitted that we of the Southland hold the same kind of erroneous ideas regarding the North. We consider it in a vague, hazy sort of way, as a raw, new country, while its history is just being made by enterprising Americans from the South and East. As a matter of fact, no part of the continent can boast of a more romantic history than the vast region which lies north of the Columbia River and west of the Rocky Mountains, with their eternal crown of snow.

At the end of the next month an historical exhibition is to be held at New Westminster, the ancient capital of British Columbia, which was named by the late Queen Victoria. It is to commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the Fraser River. The first white man whose eyes rested on the great waterway was Sir Alexander Mackenzie, the first long-distance walker of America, who made the journey overland from Montreal to the Pacific Coast in 1793. Weston as a walker was a "dub" compared with Mackenzie.

But Mackenzie did not know that he was the first to behold what was afterward called the Fraser. He thought it was the Columbia and, moreover, his eyes were bent westward to the Pacific —a river could not stay him when the ocean called.

Simon Fraser first gazed on the stream that now bears his name on June 10, 1806. But at that day he, like every one else, took it to be "the Great River"—the Columbia. His fame, and the right to have the river named after him, rest on the exploration he made to the mouth and his consequent identification of it as a distinct stream, only second in size to the 1400-mile Columbia. This he accomplished in 1808, just 100 years ago.

Born in the United States—to his great disgust, it may be marked—Simon Fraser naturally interests us. He first saw the light at Bennington on the Hudson, where his father, Gen. Fraser, was in prison. The latter was a Scottish United Empire Loyalist, who was captured by the American troops at the time of Burgoyne's surrender, the event which British historians call the turning point in the War of Independence. After the general died his widow quickly removed the young Simon to the other side of the boundary line. When he became of sufficient age Fraser entered the service of the Northwest Fur Company, which preceded the Hudson Bay Company's adventurers on the Pacific Coast.

By his services to Canada, the land to which the United Empire Loyalists mostly turned, Simon Fraser left an undying name. Next month the government of British Columbia intends to effectively call attention to the explorer's great work. The mere fact that a centenary celebration can be held proves that the "new North" is not so new, after all.

MAY YOU PROSPER, SISTERS!

Things are not slow in Los Angeles, these closing summer days. Building is pretty active; real estate sales are many. New people are coming in here daily to make this their home. The school authorities state that never were so many new-comers making arrangements to enter their children in the schools as now. It is nearly three weeks before the schools are in session, yet parents are making inquiry as to when their children are to enter the schools.

But in the suburban cities unusual growth is taking place. Building never was so brisk as it is now in some of these smaller cities in Southern California. This is noted at beach towns, a quite natural thing in August and on to the end of September; but it is also true of interior cities, an unusual circumstance in midsummer.

This comes from the demand that has ruled for good farm lands now for a period of several years. The acreage has been subdivided into smaller holdings, giving a denser population all around these interior cities. Manifestly this must create more business in the cities, and this a greater demand for building sites there and for new homes.

Los Angeles congratulates all her sister cities, by the beaches, on the mesas, up in the foothills and along the river bottoms. May you all still grow and prosper.

Our interest in your welfare is not all altruistic. As the settling up of the country districts is making business and new growth for you, so your increase in population and wealth will react on us, and make greater business activity here.

We are all a band of sisters, and what makes for the prosperity of one helps all the others. We must join hands and voices for each other. The unit is Southern California, not any one or other individual city. The cities are only fractional parts of the great and beauteous whole.

Let us all pull together, all work together, and so all grow richer and greater together!

GETTING AWAKE.

The Chicago and Alton Railroad is the first to get awake to the situation. It has placed an order for 1000 all-steel freight cars of the latest pattern. These will cost $1,000,000; work is to be started on them at once, and the first are to be delivered not later than November 15.

Winter wheat is safely harvested. It is almost a bumper crop. The last spring wheat will be safely under cover at the close of this week, and nearer to a bumper crop. Corn is in fine condition and promises the largest crop ever gathered but one. Cotton looks now like 13,000,000 bales.

It will tax all the railroads in the United States to move the harvests this year. There will be no "empties" in sight in a few weeks. A year ago the roads had neither cars nor motive power to haul the stuff pressing upon them. For ten months few cars have been built, and fewer locomotives. By November the country will be as busy as ever. Repair shops have been closed and cars and engines are lame, halt and blind everywhere.

Prosperity is on the march and you can hear the tramp, tramp of its army, millions of feet, all coming our way.

THE STRENGTH OF THE SUN-BORN.

Oh, the scent of morning uplands!
Oh, the sea wind blithe and bold—
Flash of wing and fleeing shadow
Shot with javelins of gold!

Rosy vapors in the valleys;
Mountains robed in hyacinth;
Skies diaphanous and tender,
Mazed with misty labyrinth!

Now the day is like a goddess,
Largely moving, strong in grace,
Dazzling through her veils and gauzes,
Blushing limbs and breast and face;

In her eyes is all the glory
Of her freedom, joy and truth;
With her hands she scatters jewels—
Stars of beauty and of youth.

Where her naked feet are pressing
Comes new life—the thrill of morn—
For the goddess brings the favor
And the strength of the sun-born.

RUBY ARCHER.

HOROSCOPE.

Wednesday, August 26, 1908.

O'er quarrel the red banner flies.
Draw not the sword lest war arise.

Jupiter is in benefic aspect with the moon. Jupiter and Mars are in ecliptic conjunction with the moon.

Avoid quarrels in these twenty-four hours. Avoid even friendly argument on subjects over which men's passions or thoughts run high.

A good day to send messages. Write letter. Draft circulars.

Apply this day to surgeons, physicians, oculists or dentists.

Persons in their 22nd year who marry today may hope for an extremely fortunate matrimonial career.

This period should bring exceptional fortune or pleasant turn of chance to those who are in their 19th, 24th, 27th, 35th, 38th or 42nd year.

Business should be brisk and fortunate, but Mars afflicts all dealings between men with the ready chance of misunderstanding and dispute over matters trivial and great. See to it, then, that all issues are fairly joined and that the terms of every bargain are clearly understood on both sides.

Women with this birthdate will do well to keep their tempers cool in this twelvemonth. They must also guard their health.

Men with their birthdate today will have an active year, but lawsuits are omened. Those in employment are threatened with an office quarrel over a trivial matter.

The signs over children born today are for activity and ambition. Girls will probably marry young. Boys will be headstrong, but will rise in life.

Financial.

A Brooklyn boy swallowed a silver quarter the other day and was taken seriously ill. Latest reports as to his condition indicate that there has been no change.—[Washington Post.

OPPOSES SWITCHING CHARGE.

ssociated Jobbers Complain to Interstate Commerce Commission Seeking to Restrain Railroads.

Complaint has been made to the Interstate Commerce Commission by the ssociated Jobbers of this city, of the itching charges levied upon shippers the Santa Fé, Salt Lake and South n Pacific companies, here. This ac n is similar to that recently taken the jobbers of San Francisco, which, th Los Angeles, is one of the few in the West where the custom seeking to have the commission strain the three transcontinental rail ds which have terminals here, from posing the special switching charge $2.50 a car, the Associated Jobbers aim that local manufacturers and ippers are discriminated against. It said that the annual special charge pproximates $500,000.

Many of the large wholesale houses ave spur tracks leading from the ain lines of the railroads, to their ipping houses and places of busi ess. The present practice of the rail ads is to charge $2.50 a car for the ceipt and delivery of freight delivered pon these spur tracks. The roads, owever, make no charge for delivery pon what are known as "team" tracks.

It is claimed by shippers that com ensation for switching freight cars is aken into consideration when rates re made; that such a charge is prac ically a double payment and is unfair nd discriminating against local busi ess men.

As several similar complaints have een filed with the Interstate Commerce ommission by jobbers in other places, t is expected that the settlement of he matter will be taken up at once.

DARING ANGELENO IS HEROINE.

Mrs. W. C. Jones First Woman Ever to Go to Bottom of Quincy Granite Quarries.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, (Mass.) Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Accompanied by her sister-in-law, Miss Alice Jones, and her brother-in-law, Frank W. Jones, Mrs. W. C. Jones, of Los Angeles, wife of Lieut. W. C. Jones, U.S.A., made a daring trip to the bottom of the deepest granite quarry in Quincy yesterday, 267 feet below the surface. It was the first time a woman ever descended the deep Quincy quarries. The trio were lowered by a big derrick in a chip boat. They spent a half hour at the bottom and on their return to the surface Mrs. Jones said the experience was delightful.

The Los Angeles women had never seen a granite quarry before and her love of adventure made her wish to see the bottom. She gained her point and she is now the heroine of the granite city.

AN INTELLIGENT DOG.

Saved from a fall down a precipice to instant death by a bush, the fox terrier of Mrs. F. W. Norman, No. 416 North Broadway, waited bravely until it was rescued through its extraordinary intelligence. In trying to take the pet in her arms while mounted it fell and was accidentally kicked over the edge of the trail by the horse. It would have been dashed to death, but for the bush which held it firmly, but beyond reach of human hands. After several failures by Mr. and Mrs. Norman to rescue it Mrs. Norman took off her sweater and placed her faith in the pet's sagacity. The arms of the extended sweater just reached him. "Sieze it!" cried Mrs. Norman using a term the dog was trained to answer. seized the sleeve in his teeth and hung on firmly until lifted to safety. The dog's intelligence in remaining in his safety in the bush was only epualed by his intelligence in answering the command.

USEFUL LIFE CLOSES.

Many friends will mourn the passing f Elijah J. Lewis of No. 2423 Glen Al yn Drive, whose remains were laid at rest yesterday in Mountain View Cemetery, Pasadena. He was aged seventy-three years, and had resided in this city with his family fourteen years. A pioneer of Abilene, Neb., Mr. Lewis came here and located on West Adams street, where he owned a ranch, t he had passed the last four years retirement in the Garvanza foothills. e leaves a widow and two daughters, s. Paul Morel of Altadena and Miss ith Lewis, a teacher in the city hools. Of sunny temperament, a tender and devoted husband, father and friend, Mr. Lewis attracted many to him. Rev. Mr. Shields of the Dayton Avenue Presbyterian Church delivered a touching eulogy at his bier. His was a career of usefulness.

Long Silk Gloves at Half For Wednesday Only

Just to get stocks of silk gloves where we want them before inventory, these very, very noteworthy reductions for one day only:

Kayser and Niagara best Milanese quality black and white 16-button silk gloves, double-tipped fingers; regularly $2 a pair, now $1; and Fowne's regular $2.50 quality now on special sale at $1.50.

You will find none of the cheaper Tricot quality mixed with these gloves; they are all Milanese grade.

Skirts Made to Measure $7.50

The penalty that any store pays for doing a large business is remnants and broken lines of goods. To quickly rid our stocks of these is the only reason for the unusually generous offer which follows:

All the single pieces or broken lots of wool dress goods in stock, together with several fresh lines that were bought cheaply, we have placed together on one long table, for easy choosing, and from these we will make to measure, in newest graceful styles, strictly tailored skirts, furnishing materials, findings and everything, ready to wear, only $7.50.

You take no risk whatever in ordering one or more of these skirts, because we absolutely guarantee our workmanship and the fit of the garments. Either plain or pleated skirts may be had at the one price. Orders taken all day long at the Wool Goods Section.

Hydegrade Galateas

Now Only 16⅔c Yd.

Your children or you yourself have had one or more so-called "wash suits," no doubt, that looked well enough before put to the test.

After the first hard wear or wetting, however, the seams "drooped," the plaits stretched out of shape and the tucks puckered—which, of course, meant time and money to fix, if indeed this could be done at all.

A garment made of Hydegrade Galatea, when once properly cut and fitted, keeps its shape, and no drenching in an unexpected shower, or thorough laundering, can hurt it. Dampness and fogs have little effect on Hydegrade Galatea, and wrinkles will readily "hang out" over night. And this splendid material, in plain colors, stripes, checks and pretty plaids, costs now but 16 2-3c yard.

W. B. Reduso Corsets For Large Women

"It is the solemn fact," says a recent English writer, "that the discovery of a new disease immediately creates a demand for it."

Now a good figure isn't a disease—and if it were, who wouldn't wish to be attacked by it? But the principle mentioned above holds in regard to it. In old times, if a woman had not attractive proportions, that was all there was to the matter. She resigned herself. Nowadays things are different. With all the enlightened ideas on the subject and the corsets which makers are planning so carefully to meet special needs, especially the needs of women whose stoutness is worrying them, good figures are far more possible to us than to our grandmothers. And just because of this, the demand for them is increasing!

Very often the large woman's most important assistant toward improvement is a W. B. Reduso corset, which has the requisite length over hips and abdomen, allows free breathing and encourages its wearer to poise herself properly.

We carry these corsets in wide variety, together with other styles of like construction.

INDORSES REPUBLICANS.

Afro-American Council Finds All the Nominees in State Worthy of the Support of the Race.

At the session of the Afro-American Council yesterday many political questions were reported by the Committee on Resolutions. The main resolutions adopted indorsed the Republican party generally, Gov. Gillett for "the honest and efficient manner in which he has administered the affairs of our State;" declared faith in the ability of a Republican Congress to devise a financial system that will prevent a recurrence of financial stringency; favoring the prosecution of illegal and unjust trusts; indorsing the constitutional amendment for direct primaries, and ending with the following:

"We deprecate all dissension in our party and urge upon all Republicans that it is their duty to forget personal animosities and disappointed ambitions, and to labor unitedly for the party and its nominees, William H. Taft and J. S. Sherman, keeping attack and denunciation for the common enemy."

Other resolutions adopted during the afternoon indorsed all the nominees of the Republicans for Congress in California and urged all negroes to vote for the Republican nominees for the Legislature in order that Senator Perkins, whose candidacy was indorsed, may be returned. The same resolutions indorsed the work of Senator Flint.

The report of State Organizer G. W. Whitely abounded in statistics of interest to the race. They showed 1442 men and women engaged in commercial business in the State. A total population of 37,500 pay taxes on property valued at $12,214,501, of which $965,000 is personal property. There are 4098 children in the public schools, but only 204 in the high schools. Mr. Whitely calls attention to the small number of the race seeking higher education and urges that every opportunity be given children to fit themselves for the higher sphere of life. Especially did he urge preparation that would enable competition in civil-service examinations.

The past year his organization work has advanced rapidly and the total memmbership in the league in California is now 10,565.

Mr. Whitely's statistics show that the bulk of the colored population is in Los Angeles and Oakland. There are 14,500 in the former and 14,573 in the latter. The largest number in any other city is Pasadena, where there are 3023.

DISEASES THAT DO GOOD.

Typhoid Fever Puts an End to Stomach Troubles and Small Pox Makes Long Life.

[Pearson's Weekly.] To be struck down by disease seems a most undesirable thing, yet there are many living today in the fullest enjoyment of very excellent health who, but for an attack of some disease, would have lived a life of almost perpetual misery.

These people were, first of all, victims of indigestion in its worst form, and only those who have experienced it know what true indigestion is. Struck down by typhoid fever, they came through the trying ordeal cured of indigestion, for one outstanding eccentricity of typhoid is that if you pass through an attack safely it gives you a new stomach. In fact, after an attack of typhoid the victim is usually left with a stomach like an infant's.

That is the grand chance offered to one who has suffered, it may be for long years from acute indigestion; if only he takes care, after an attack of typhoid, he need never know indigestion again.

Be it remembered that any one troubled with severe indigestion is not advised to go hunting around for typhoid fever. That might prove to be a disasterous course to follow.

A chronic cold is just one of those things which we none of us want, yet even a chronic cold has its good points, more especially if you happen to be up in years a bit—not too old, of course. People who are up in years, and who suffer from chronic bronchitis seem to get along remarkably well. It keeps the blood in good circulation, for, of course, the victims have to cough, and that gives the heart a jerk and sends the blood coursing nicely through the veins and arteries.

If the cold be not too acute, old people derive considerable benefit. An acute attack, on the other hand, may cut off an old person in a day or two. It is the chronic type only which yields benefit.

Smallpox is a dreaded scourge; so much so that if it be reported that a case exists in a neighborhood a thrill passes through the whole community.

Yet those who suffer from smallpox, and recover usually live to a green old age. It seems to renew life in some mysterious way by thoroughly purifying the blood.

M. Revoil, the French Ambassador to Spain, has been summoned to Paris to discuss the Moroccan situation.

CURES ECZEMA QUICKLY

New Drug, Poslam, Now Obtainable in Small Quantities.

Since its discovery one year ago, the new drug, poslam, has successfully cured thousands of chronic cases of eczema and other distressing skin afflictions. Heretofore, poslam has been dispensed solely for the benefit of eczema patients in large jars sufficient for a month's treatment. This was found to be an inconvenience to many thousands who use it for minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes itching feet, piles, etc., which require but a small quantity to cure. To overcome this, and in response to urgent appeals, the dispensers of poslam have been obliged to adopt, in addition to the regular two-dollar package, a special fifty-cent size, which in future may be found on sale at the Owl Drug Co. and other leading drug stores in Los Angeles, or may be ordered direct from the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West 25th street, New York City. In all eczema cases poslam stops itching with first application, and proceeds to heal immediately; chronic cases being cured in two weeks. In less serious skin troubles, results are seen after an overnight application.

Samples for experimental purposes may still be had, free of charge, by writing to the laboratories for them.

I Knew

a very popular merchant once who always advertised "I cater to no one." What he meant to indicate I never fully understood, but I know he was very successful in a business way. He was not in the catering business, proper, which reminds me to say that Christopher is a caterer who caters to everybody. His success is of the proverbial kind, determined not by sensational methods or exclusiveness, but by a firm adherence to the policy of purity and quality in all that he sells and in carrying out this precept through years of practice. You lunch at Christopher's, don't you?

Daniel Webster.

DESCENDED from a stern unbending race of Puritan Pioneers and Indian fighters, this colossal personality ("With eyes of power and Jove's own brow") was born in the village of Franklin, N. J., where his father kept a roadside tavern, and where his intellectual development began.

The principles of "Liberty and Union, now and forever, one and inseparable," so eloquently enunciated by him, in after years nerved the arm of Lincoln, flashed from the blades of Sheridan, and glinted from the bayonets of Grant

And some of his most memorable orations were delivered in taverns and at public banquets, where the delicious juices of the barley fields gurgled cool and invitingly from a thousand bottles; filled every bumper glass, and delighted his own palate; developing within him, force and energy, intellect, eloquence, mind and soul.

We hear the rumbling of surprises, a rumbling down the line that bids the leaders get on their war paint or be overtaken and beaten!

The fiftieth day of the scholarship competition finds the young workers determined to make a spectacular finish of one of the most successful contests ever conducted by The Times.

That deserving girl, Alice Capron of Pasadena, plunged down the largest gain of yesterday. She jumped over the hundred-thousand mark by the grace of nearly 4000 points, with one of those popular new annuals included. Alice has found a splendid friend in Pasadena, Mrs. Durant of Arlington Drive, who has contributed generously to further her cause. Alice is such a hard worker. She earns everything she gets. She has almost worn out her wheel.

Hazel Franklin has started the fashion of bringing in a new yearly subscription every day, but she does not limit her work to that alone. Yesterday Hazel gained nearly 3000 points and she has brilliant plans for the future. Gladys Hill of Santa Barbara also has the desirable new annual habit. She sent one in yesterday, while pretty Ruth von Kirbach brought in a new yearly subscription and a yearly renewal. Ruth is making a worthy race in her effort, for a business education.

Last Saturday she made an equally successful race at the Swedish picnic and because she could run so fast she received a pretty gold ring set with her birth stone, a topaz.

Teresa Camp, another young contestant, thirteen years of age, went to the Catholic picnic Saturday, and her family including nine children, of whom she is the eldest, won the prize for the largest family present. With so many little folks, it is small wonder that Teresa must win her own musical education.

The Upland girl, Grace Tyler, surpasses Lizzie Shapiro this morning, which is certainly a test of ability, for Lizzie is one of the most faithful little workers in the contest, and is not easily turned down by any one. The two Pasadena boys, Glenn Anderson and Leon Riesenweber reported successful results yesterday. The Alhambra boy, Ralph Warren was another to make a good showing with over one thousand points to the good. Ralph is feeling quite happy over one yearly subscription received lately from Claus Willenberg, and he should like an opportunity of thanking the kind friend who sent it to headquarters.

The Soldiers' Home is a busy place at present, with the two contestants working with might and main to win, and many generous "old boys in blue" planning to assist them, and cutting coupons to send in. Laura Easton and Wallie each scored over a thousand points yesterday.

Charles Yglesias was another boy to look happy over a day's work done, for this little lad who wishes to win a violin scholarship in the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and Art is quite anxious to stand higher in the list and yesterday he gained 1019 points to boost his score.

Today we print the picture of the Huntington Park girl, Mabelle Wasell, who is as lovely in character as she is in appearance. Mabelle has the distinction of being the only contestant this year to land a five-year subscription. Entering late in the day, Miss Mabelle has not been able to stand as high as some of the others, but she has been faithful in keeping at it in season and out of season, and deserves to win the scholarship upon which she has set her heart.

Mabelle Wasell,
a pretty contestant from Huntington Park.

THE MAIL BAG.

The scholarship mail bag is heavy these days with subscriptions and coupons and with words of good cheer for contestants. A postal card arrived yesterday from Sitka, Alaska, from Mrs. Frank Stoddart, president of one of the child study circles in Los Angeles, who is touring in that far-off piece of the United States of America.

"Mr. Stoddart and I are celebrating our twenty-second anniversary of taking the Los Angeles Times, away up here in Alaska," the postal reads. "I am as usual greatly interested in the scholarship contest and will send my contestant, Lizzie Shapiro, the coupons that I have cut out on the trip. With lots of good words and wishes for The Times scholarship, I am as ever, cordially a friend, Mrs. Frank Stoddart."

A county subscriber from Azusa sends some coupons to David Boardman and tells how much he is interested in the contest. A little Highland girl sends coupons for Wallie Swain, the Soldiers' Home boy. Her name is Frances Ingham, and she says that she is dividing her coupons equally between the Soldiers' Home boy and the Soldiers' Home girl, Laura Easton, and she hopes that she may have the pleasure of meeting them some time.

Mrs. Alice Switzer of Burbank writes to say that she is not acquainted with any of the contestants so she has selected her namesake, Alice Capron, to assist, "and I hope she has my great passion for music," says Mrs. Switzer.

Mrs. F. A. Bringham of Ocean Park is responsible for a charming little note to Ramona Carter, to whom she sent a subscription and some coupons:

"To dear little Ramona Carter, who has the energy, pluck and the stick-to-it-iveness to rustle for an education. This is written by an entire stranger but well wisher for her ultimate success and as each day comes the paper is eagerly opened hoping to see that the dear little maid has climbed one notch at least higher than the time before and not gone down."

CALL AT HEADQUARTERS.

Tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock visitors will be welcomed at scholarship headquarters. All those interested in the contest or in the contestants are cordially invited to call on the manager between the hours named. The manager will esteem it a privilege to answer any questions that interested parties may wish to ask concerning the boys and girls who are working so faithfully to win their educational advantages. Judging from the letters and the kind words that find their way to the contestants and to the scholarship headquarters, there are a great many people watching the progress of the 1908 scholarship contest. All such friends and well-wishers will be welcome tomorrow afternoon. Educators of the city who feel an interest in the work being conducted by The Times are cordially invited to call.

In order that contestants may be able to appreciate the scope and special aims of the various educational institutions represented in the scholarship list, The Times will print from day to day some account of the schools from which scholarships are offered. Today the Page School for Girls will be presented for consideration.

The boarding and day school for girls, conducted by the Misses Page, at No. 243 West Adams street, is a growing factor in the educational life of Los Angeles, and is rapidly coming to the front as a desirable private school for girls where thoroughness is the keynote of success.

The principals, Misses Emma and Della Page, are educators of long and varied experience in both High School and grade work, and in establishing this school for girls they have sought to incorporate the most advanced educational features with the old-fashioned thoroughness so seldom found today. The Misses Page are from Hiram College, Ohio, and are also Normal graduates, their work being indorsed by prominent people in other parts of the country, as well as in Los Angeles.

Miss Clara J. Armstrong, principal of the High School department, is a graduate of the Oswego State Normal School of New York, and a student of special courses at Harvard University. She was in the service of the Argentine government for more than twelve years, occupied in the organization and direction of national High and Normal schools for women. Since returning from the Argentine Republic she has filled the chairs of mathematics and general history in the State Normal School at New Paltz, N. Y. She has traveled extensively, speaks several languages fluently, and is familiar with the literature and art of four European countries.

The preparatory school consists of the primary, junior and senior departments, leading up to a liberal High School course. Especial advantages are offered in languages, and no modern language can be taken for less than three years, so that more than a mere smattering of tongues may be acquired.

The music department is under the direction of Miss Jeanette Birdsall, who was until recently director of piano and voice in Beaumont College Conservatory of Music. Miss Birdsall has also been instructor in the Chicago Conservatory of Music, the Chicago College of Vocal and Instrumental Art and Monticello Seminary.

The Page School is located in one of the finest residence sections of the city, the stately colonial mansion with wide verandas and beautiful grounds making an ideal atmosphere for school work. Excellent facilities are afforded for outdoor study and for tennis and basketball. Physical culture is another strong point of the school.

THE PRIZES.

Besides the valuable scholarships for which the young people are working, The Times offers fifteen cash prizes for those making the highest scores next to the top liner, who will receive the prize piano. The cash prizes, totaling $1200, are arranged as follows:

No. 1	$200

THE PIANO.

The first prize to be awarded to the winner of the contest in addition to a choice of scholarships is a splendid Fairbanks piano from the Southern California Music Company, valued at $400. It is a beautiful instrument of superior construction, handled by an old and reliable company as a special feature, and is doubly guaranteed. It is known among musicians for its exquisite tonal qualities and responsive action. The case may be of rich mahogany or dark oak.

WATER TROUBLE.

Wilmington Complains of Leaky Pipes. Attempt to Make Peace With Pacific Electric.

WILMINGTON, Aug. 25.—Trouble is brewing for the San Pedro Water Company, which is only one division of the Seaside Water Company of Long Beach. This division has its wells located in Wilmington, and supplies this city. A fourteen-inch main carries the water to San Pedro. This runs along Seventh street and there have been frequent breaks. This has been a long standing complaint and now the city officials have been called on by property owners to have it remedied. Whenever a leak occurs, mud holes are formed, rendering streets almost impassable in places. The company will be required to put in better pipe. The company had its original franchise from the county.

FORMALLY WITHDRAWN.

At the meeting of the City Council last night the Los Angeles Harbor Company withdrew its application for a franchise. It is supposed the company will now proceed with its work of dredging under the original lease granted to the Imperial Investment Company, as recently outlined by The Times.

TO SELL BONDS.

The City Council has taken steps to float the bonds of $100,000 voted a few months ago. The agent of the North American Dredging Company estimates that dredging can be completed in from sixty to ninety days, as two dredgers will be put to work. The Trustees will sell the entire issue of bonds at once. While the dredging is in progress, work on the streets and wharfage front will proceed. A harbor committee has been appointed, composed of Trustees E. Opp, N. Breen, and J. A. Silva.

PROPOSED WATER LINE.

The matter of arranging for a regular line of boats to run between the Wilmington wharf and Terminal Island, San Pedro, was taken up and F. S. Cary was asked to report on the feasibility of the plan. About twenty workmen from here, employed in the various lumber mills on the Terminal side, would be greatly accommodated by this line. It is proposed to open the line for free competition, and not to grant any long term franchise to any one boat, this will avoid any monopoly.

CITY SUFFERS.

Messrs. Harry Barndollar and George C. Flint of Long Beach, heavy property owners here, were in this city yesterday trying to patch up a truce between the city and the Pacific Electric Railway. It is found that the city is already suffering in her credit from the hold-up of the railway from Long Beach. It is now conceded that this road will run a spur track from Long Beach to the Dominguez tract and from there it is contemplated to extend to Watson station, just outside the city limits, where connection will be made with the main line to Los Angeles, and give an outlet for the freight which will be tributary to it in Long Beach harbor and the factory sites west of town.

SAN PEDRO REFUSES.

Won't Let Long Beach Grant Water Frontage to Railroad and Lumber Company.

SAN PEDRO, Aug. 25.—L. W. Blinn, representing the Blinn-Robinson Lumber Company, and Attorney Halstead of the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad, appeared this afternoon before the Trustees with a request that that body stipulate that the city of Long Beach be allowed to grant a franchise to 700 feet of frontage on the inner harbor, on the East Side. The lawyers promised that if the city of San Pedro wins suits relative to jurisdiction, now pending in the Supreme Court, $300, the price of the franchise, would be turned over to San Pedro. Some months ago the franchise was awarded to the Blinn-Robinson Company by Long Beach, but its completion was estopped by an injunction suit filed by San Pedro. After considerable discussion, the board refused to grant the request.

Bids for city printing were opened, and the contract was awarded to the San Pedro Publishing Company, whose bid was 45 cents an inch, for eight-point type.

A communication was received from the San Pedro fire department, a volunteer organization, stating that it had reconsidered its recent resolution to disband.

MONROVIA.

MONROVIA, Aug. 25.—In Justice Glover's court this morning Julio Albitra was sentenced to ninety days in the County Jail for stealing a diamond scarf pin and other jewelry from Mrs. Frank Appoliatari. The original charge of grand larceny was withdraawn and a petty larceny charge prtferred upon Albitra's restitution of the stolen property. Albitra is a brother of Delfino Albitra, sentenced to be hanged at San Quentin, the 28th inst., for the murder of his wife in this city in June, 1906.

Festival of the Sea, Long Beach. September 1 to 5. Unique, attractive.

ATTRACTIVE.

SEA FESTIVAL WILL ENTICE.

CROWD-DRAWING PROGRAMME IS BEING ARRANGED.

In Addition to Aeroplane Exhibits, Balloon Ascensions and Parachute Drops at Long Beach, There Will Be a Wireless Display—Sea in a Turmoil.

LONG BEACH, Aug. 25.—Big things were accomplished by the Festival of the Sea Association at its meeting last evening. Three great attractions were arranged for, and a series of spectacles that will attract thousands of people.

The most important announcement by the association is that it is negotiating for a series of aëroplane exhibits every day of the festival, September 1 to 5 inclusive, by the Aëro Club of California. In addition there will be three balloon ascensions daily, accompanied by a parachute drop. The evening ascension will be in a brilliantly illuminated eighty-foot balloon, from which the aëronaut will drop in a fiery parachute. Another thrilling act will be a high dive into the sea by a diver enveloped in fire.

The Fireworks Committee has purchased $2500 worth of pyrotechnics, which will be exhibited from a specially built pier erected inside the surf line, so that there will be no danger to the spectators, and no chance of accidental fire or explosion. There will be a display every evening.

A feature of interest will be a wireless telegraph plant, free to the public.

Efforts are being made to induce all the bands of Southern California to participate in a contest for a prize of $500.

Decorations are being started. Every building on the principal streets will be draped in orange and red.

SEA IN TURMOIL.

After a month of comparative quiet, the sea is again in turmoil and today the breakers are unusually high and the surf very rough. Cross currents prevailed and a close watch on bathers was necessary. One man ventured too far and was carried into the pier cylinders, but was able to save himself. In and beyond the breaker line tide rips were constantly forming. Several planks of the lower deck of the pier were torn up last night and to prevent any accident, the lower gates were closed at dark tonight.

ANOTHER RATE WAR.

Seeking to end the troubles which have existed for several months on the wharf, the Nelson Company, the Diamond line, the Camiguin and Flyer today took their tickets away from the agents who have been selling on commission and jointly employed Louis Youngmark and Herbert Brown on salary to sell all tickets. This leaves the agents and Capt. Napier out in the cold and presages another rate war, as the ousted agents went to San Pedro today to charter two launches in opposition to the combine. It is proposed that the city take entire control of the wharf and handle the tickets for all boats, thereby adding to the wharf revenues.

REDEEMS PLEDGE.

Redeeming its pledge to the residents of Carroll Park, which a week ago was annexed to the city, the Council today ordered the installation of five arc lights and the same number of fire hydrants.

WILY JAPANESE.

Two Japanese merchants on the Pike, K. Suzuki and R. Hayashi, who have been evading the payment of the city license of $1.00 a day for conducting daily auctions, contending that they were only disposing of their stock on hand, were caught today carrying new goods in baskets into the rear door of the store and were arrested. They avoided prosecution by each taking out a year's license of $365 each, the city tax collector dating the license back to March, when the Japanese began business.

CHURCH BOND PLAN.

Between 400 and 500 people attended the Methodist Church banquet in the church parlors tonight. Following the banquet, Rev. W. A. Betts, C. J. Walker, Will Cook and others explained the bond plan projected by the trustees to raise $50,000 to complete the new church building at Fifth and Pacific. The plan was approved and several large subscriptions to the bond issue were announced.

URCHIN SNATCHES PURSE.

A bold case of purse snatching was reported to the police today. Mrs. A. J. Klampitt was walking along East First street, when a little urchin not more than 10 years of age snatched her purse containing $5, and darted toward the ocean front. He was pursued by the victim, but speedily distanced her. The theft was a nervy one, committed in daylight and on a well-traveled thoroughfare. The thief was in knee pants, with blue flannel shirt, and short-clipped hair. The police were promptly notified but could find no trace of the lad.

FAST LEADS TO LOVE.

Miss Etta Priscilla Grove, who, a few months ago, attracted considerable attention by fasting forty days under direction of Dr. H. S. Tanner, will be married in this city Thursday to Grant Barber of Willowbrook. The groom is the son of Mrs. Harriet Barber, who, attracted by Miss Grove's exploit, also successfully fasted to cure a nervous trouble. It was while she was visiting his mother that he met Miss Grove.

WONDROUS TALES.

The sessions of the Southern California Spiritualists are well attended, both by adherents of the faith and outsiders drawn by curiosity. Today's programme was in charge of the mediums, who told wondrous tales of messages and manifestations. Lectures were given by Col. J. L. Dryden and George P. Sullivan and messages by John Slater and Mrs. Sanford Johnson.

HORSE THIEVES BUSY.

Horse thieves are reported busy between Signal Hill and the Orange county line. In the past week Fred Bixby has lost eight valuable animals. Last night a sorrel mare belonging to Mrs. D. W. Trotter, on Signal Hill, disappeared. As the locality is out of local police jurisdiction, the victims were advised to communicate with Sheriff Hammel.

Postoffice Inspector Montanya was in the city today in conference with Postmaster Hirsch, relative to the establishment of a third rural delivery route.

PROBABLY HOAX.

A notice on a paper bag was found by two small boys tonight tacked to a post in the auditorium. It read: "Goodby, my love, goodby: I love you, but life is full of troubles; will meet you on the other side. (Signed) James J. Phalter." The police will investigate.

BIG STICKS NOT WATER PROOF.

THEY MELT BEFORE ERRATIC SANTA MONICA SWELLS.

Dozen of the Reinforced Concrete Supports Just Driven for the New Pier Are Bowled Over—New Flyer Service to Start Middle of Next Month.

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 25.—Unusual conditions prevailing along shore during the past eight weeks were responsible for the erratic swells that rolled in from the southwest yesterday afternoon and played havoc with a dozen or more of the reinforced concrete piles just driven for the new pier. The current has for two months been running from the south. This is unusual. The direction is generally from the north, except for a few days at rare intervals. Old timers say that at no previous time in twenty years have they observed such an uninterrupted and continuous flow from the north. They are unable to account for the change.

NEW STICKS TO BE LARGER.

The building of the pier had proceeded to the first platform space, 550 feet from shore. Here the last twenty-seven of the fourteen-inch concrete piles had just been jetted into the sand. These were without protecting strut or girder and when the wall of water, twenty feet high, struck them squorely the lone piles were either broken or twisted out of position. As the molds for the piles of this size have been cast aside, the new sticks to replace them will be of larfler diameter. The frolic of the breakers will prove an expensive one for the Stutzer Company, which is building the pier, but aside from causing some delay, the big waves have occasioned no real injury to the pier.

MORE FLYERS.

At Ivy Station on the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway line the switches are now being placed upon which Santa Monica is placing great dependence. These will connect the "Santa Monica air line" with the Palms-Venice division. Over this air line the company has promised to run twenty-three-minute flyers between the city and the sea. This service is to be inaugurated about the middle of September, and besides giving this city and Palms rapid transit, will prove a factor in the development of Irwin Heights.

Work was commenced here today in widening the gauge of the north loop division on Third street and Utah avenue. This part of the system was embraced in the new forty-year franchise sold by the City Council this week to the Los Angeles-Pacific Company.

HOME ON RANCH.

Mrs. Corinne F. Linton was married today to C. D. Vander Horck, Rev. Frank Stevens officiating. The couple will make their home on a ranch not far from the city.

Under a new ordinance passed last night at the request of the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway Company, the powerful headlights on the trolley cars will hereafter be screened while the coaches are making the run through this city.

PRINTING CONTRACT LET.

Acting upon the advice of the City Attorney, the City Council has let the public printing contract for the year to the "Outlook." The opinion of the Attorney was that the Ocean Park "Journal," being printed part in Ocean Park and part in Santa Monica and entered as second-class mail matter in the Ocean Park postoffice, which is likewise located a part in each city, was not qualified to bid. The Santa Monica charter provides that the eligible paper must be printed wholly in Santa Monica.

"LUCKY" GOES SWIFTLY.

Makes Trip to Venice in Time Second Only to That Accomplished by Party of Detectives.

VENICE, Aug. 25.—"Lucky" Baldwin was a visitor today, coming from Los Angeles by automobile. The trip from the city limits at Washington street to Windward avenue was made in twenty-one minutes. This is the quickest time on record, except in the case of an evening ride made by Los Angeles detectives, who are said to have covered the distance in sixteen minutes.

BRIDE TAKEN ILL.

Mrs. F. K. McCarver, the bride of yesterday, is quite ill, having been stricken last night while en route to the beach from Los Angeles, where the ceremony was performed. Her condition was such that the demonstration that had been planned in honor of the couple had to be abandoned.

RARE EXHIBITS.

Rare exhibits are being secured for the aquarium, which is approaching completion and will soon be ready for formal opening to the public. The building adjoins the auditorium on the Windward-avenue pier and is of a distinctive type of architecture. In it will be curios of the deep as well as antiquities gathered from all parts of the globe.

TWO TRUSTEES RESIGN.

Claims of Possible Successors Urged by Redondo Friends—Railroad Discharges Five Men.

REDONDO, Aug. 25.—At last night's meeting of the Board of Trustees the resignation of F. A. Cleveland was accepted. That of A. J. Graham was laid over until the next meeting. The successor to Cleveland was not named. It is believed, however, that W. M. Browning will receive the appointment. His friends have taken the matter up enthusiastically, and it is understood that the "solid three" look with favor upon his candidacy.

To succeed Graham when his resignation is accepted, James Ferguson is named. It is understood that two of the members of the board are his friends.

SEWER SYSTEM ACCEPTED.

The board accepted the new sewer system last night, thereby disappointing those who have been for months hoping to prevent such action.

Four conductors, West, Plank, Lacy and Meriweather, and one motorman, Weeks, of the Los Angeles and Redondo Railway Company were discharged this morning, for reasons not made known.

Lieutenant-Commander Spear, U.S.N.

NORRISTOWN (Pa.) Aug. 25.—Lieutenant-Commander Roscoe Spear, U.S.N., died at his home here yesterday, after suffering for ten years with a disease he contracted while serving in the Philippines during the Spanish-American War. Commander Spear was 66 years old. One brother, Reginald Spear, is paymaster on the U.S.S. Salem, now at Boston, and another Raymond Spear, is surgeon on the hospital ship Relief, accompanying the Pacific fleet.

Capt. E. E. Caine.

SEATTLE (Wash.) Aug. 25.—Capt. E. E. Caine, a prominent capitalist and steamship man, died at his home this morning of apoplexy. He came to Seattle in 1888, entering the steamship business. Capt. Caine organized the Pacific Clipper Line of steamships, and was the pioneer steamship man in the Alaska freight business. He organized the Alaska Pacific Steamship Company, and also the Alaska Pacific Express.

Emperor William rode in the forest yesterday morning, which fact proved unfounded the widely published report that he was suffering from a severe injury to one of his legs. The report of the supposed injury to the Emperor originated in Strassburg, where this was given as reason for the postponement of the military maneuvers.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

FOR FILTHY LUCRE.

TS DAYLIGHT INTO MEXICAN.

FUSAL TO PAY MONEY LEADS TO MURDEROUS ASSAULT.

Smeltzer Man Lies in Santa Ana Hospital With Ragged Wound Reaching Over Four Inches Into His Abdomen—Boy Shoots Him in the Back.

SANTA ANA, Aug. 25.—With a rag- ed hole reaching four inches and a alf into his abdomen, Julian Teran, well known Smeltzer Mexican, lies the hospital here, the victim of he murderous intent of the fourteen- ear-old son of the woman with whom e was living and whom he expected o marry. Though disgruntled because Teran had won the affections of his mother it was not for that that Alfonsa Salazar fired two loads of shot t the defenseless back of Teran. He id so because Teran would not pay im $23 he owed him for topping beets n the Golden West Celery Company's anch at Smeltzer. Alfonsa Salazar as fled, and officers have been unable o get any clew to his whereabouts. The Mexicans of Smeltzer, as usual when blood is shed among them, keep closed mouths. The shooting occurred t a Mexican camp opposite the Ocean View schoolhouse.

The boy and his mother came from Old Mexico a short time ago. Teran, foreman of a gang of Mexican laborers, recently took her to his camp, intending to marry her as soon as the present beet harvest is over. The boy worked in Teran's gang. Teran held back his wages. A week ago the boy demanded payment of $23. Yesterday he refused to work and at 7:30 o'clock, while Teran was eating supper set before him by the boy's mother, Alfonsa demanded payment in full. Teran offered the boy $11. The boy cursed him, seized a double-barreled shotgun that was in the camp and fired two shots at Teran from behind. One charge entered the back just below the left kidney. The other grazed the right arm, a few shot entering the flesh.

Thinking that Teran would die the Mexicans sent for Coroner G. S. Smith. Smith referred them to the county physician and the sheriff. Teran was taken to the hospital and this morning he was operated upon.

WOUND IS DANGEROUS.

The wound is a dangerous one. So close was the boy when he pulled the trigger that the wads of the gun were forced into the hole made by the shot. Yet the charge of powder must have been weak else the hole would have extended entirely through the body. The county physicians, Drs. Ball and Burlew, removed three gun wads and a large number of birdshot. Many shot are lodged in the intestines. The chances for recovery are slight.

Sheriff Lacy and Constable Jackson were unable to learn anything concerning the direction taken by young Salazar last night. He is a sleepy-eyed [illegible]-set lad, of a color lighter than [illegible] of the lower country Mexicans.

SKINNER'S DEFENSE.

J. P. Skinner, arrested for slashing C. E. Griffith with a knife, will have his preliminary hearing at 1:30 tomorrow. He is out on a $500 bond given by San Joaquin ranchmen, B. F. Nimmo and Hugh McDonald. Skinner claims that Griffith struck him with his fist because he had given some children permission to play in a pile of straw.

REFUSED LOVE, DIES.

While Working With Fumigating Crew at Placentia Young Man Takes Cyanide.

FULLERTON, Aug. 25.—Louie Betz, aged 23 years, committed suicide this morning while working with a fumigating crew on the Pierotti ranch at Placentia. He asked his fellow-workmen how much cyanide it would take to kill a man, remarking at the same time that he was fumigating his last row of trees. The men thought he was joshing. He did not tell why he was taking the poison.

Betz then took a large bite of cyanide and in a few seconds took another and drank water. Twenty-five minutes later he died, after suffering great agony. Anaheim boys say he recently had a misunderstanding with a young woman in Los Angeles. Betz leaves a father and sister in Anaheim.

The Citrus Union shipped eight carloads of Valencia oranges the past week and will move out six cars this week.

The grammar schools will open September 7.

The Union Oil Company received a carload of casing yesterday to be used on its Brea Cañon lease.

Mrs. H. L. Rhodes and daughter are visiting relatives at Ashfork, Ariz.

The Trustees have appointed Dr. Rich, Dr. Davis, Dr. Gowan, Dr. Chilton and R. T. Davies on the Board of Health.

IN GOOD CONDITION.

The orange groves of Fullerton, Anaheim and Placentia are now in better condition than they have been in many years. For several seasons leading growers of these sections have taken a great interest in freeing the trees from scale, while the county has fumigated many groves, owned mostly by non-residents and newcomers. Some time ago the county purchased forty tents, with a view of assisting in fumigating orchards which needed it. Most of this work has been in groves owned by non-residents and people who did not know very much about the latest methods of destroying the scale. The county work in this section is conducted under the supervision of J. J. Schneider, who last year had 17,000 trees fumigated at an expense of from 7 to 14 cents per tree to the owners of the groves. After paying all operating expenses for the year, Mr. Schneider turned over to the county nearly $400 in profits. He has fumigated trees in the Placentia district this year, is at work in the Anaheim district now, and in a few days will fumigate some groves in the Orangethorpe section. He probably will cover at least 20,000 trees during the year.

CORONA.

CORONA, Aug. 25.—The funeral of J. W. Adcock was held day before yesterday, Rev. E. T. Sanford officiating. Mr. Adcock died of lingering consumption. His wife died of the same disease last winter. There are three children, all girls. Two are without homes; the other has gone to asadena to be with a wealthy family.

William Riddle left this morning for ntario, Can., where he will visit his mother. He will stop in Oakland to ttend a political convention.

WILL SHOOT AUTOISTS.

Orange County Farmers Declare They Will "Pot" the "Road-Hogs."

SANTA ANA, Aug. 25.—Farmers living on the road between Cypress and Anaheim, are conspiring to carry guns to be used in protection against automobilists. They say that machines are run at high speed along their road and without regard to the rights of the farmer and his team, knowing that a farmer will turn out rather than be run over.

Dare Shirley, while riding into Anaheim was struck from behind by an automobile running without lights, night before last. His horse was thrown into a heap, the buggy piled on top of him, and Shirley found himself in the dirt. The horse was skinned and the harness and buggy broken. As Shirley seized his horse by the bit, the automobile speeded on. Shirley heard someone cry out to the driver that someone was hurt, but the automobile did not stop.

Some of the ranchers say they will carry revolvers, and if thrown from their rigs they will rise on the spot, if they are able, and shoot.

FIRE SITUATION MUCH IMPROVED.

AFTER HEROIC FIGHT FLAMES ARE CHECKED.

Rangers of San Bernardino Mountains Show Good Generalship—Redlands Youths Supposed to Have Been Responsible and Will Probably Be Arrested.

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 25.—The fire situation on the San Bernardino Mountains is greatly improved this evening. The rangers succeeded, after a hard fight, in preventing the flames crossing the summit, and completely checked the line of fire which since Sunday had been sweeping westward. There is now only the eastern line to contend with, and this has been practically checked at the big fire break this side of the Santa Ana Cañon.

WITH FURY OF HURRICANE.

The climax was reached this afternoon, when the flames, fanned by a high wind, swept due north, ascending toward the ridge with the fury of a hurricane. The rangers had prepared for just such an emergency, and were able to cope with the situation, though it took good generalship and heroic effort before the wind came to their aid and saved the day.

The damage has been mainly confined to the watershed, a vast area of brush having been burned over. A telephone line from Redlands to Fredalba, owned by the Brookings Lumber Company, was also destroyed.

Suspicion for starting the fire points to a party of Redlands youths, who were seen ascending the firebreak up Mt. Harrison Sunday afternoon. They camped for lunch on the spot where the fire originated. All deny the charge, but will probably be arrested.

FIRE AT NEEDLES.

Early Sunday morning a fire of unknown origin destroyed the Kelley steam laundry at Needles and an adjoining building owned by William Hutt. The laundry building was valued at $1000.

The Board of Supervisors has appointed John Denair of Needles, Scipio Craig of Redlands and E. W. Spencer of Needles to represent the county at the irrigation congress at Albuquerque in September. The citrus and sugar interests of the county will also be represented.

VENTURA BONDS GILT-EDGED.

State Buys Some and May Purchase More—Thief Escapes on Easy Terms—Forgery Alleged.

VENTURA, Aug. 25.—Municipal bonds of this city are considered gilt-edged and are eagerly sought after. At a meeting of the Trustees, last night, $27,600 of the bonds lately voted were purchased by the State, represented by the State Board of Examiners. The successful bid was par, accrued interest and a premium of $1700. The only other one was that of the First National Bank of this city, which offered $100 premium. Of the $160,000 of bonds voted at the late election, only $64,000 worth remain unsold. The State may make an offer for this amount.

Justice Ortega is aroused over the determination of the authorities of Santa Barbara to return Wallace More to this city for reformation. More came here a few weeks ago and got into various kinds of trouble. Finally he was arrested for a petty offense and haled before Justice Ortega. The court let the young man go on the condition that he return to his home at Santa Barbara, where it was said he had relatives who would care for him. Now he has been arrested in Santa Barbara for stealing two pairs of shoes, and on the strength of his promise to return to Ventura and reform, the Santa Barbara authorities have released him. More is a son of T. Wallace More, who was murdered on his Sespe ranch by squatters in the seventies. He is said to have been once wealthy, but to have wasted his fortune.

APPENDICITIS VICTIMS.

Miss Helen May Chadsy, the seventeen-year-old daughter of B. F. Chadsy of Bardsdale, has been taken to the Bard Hospital. She is suffering with appendicitis. No change is reported in the condition of Frank Foster of Santa Paula, who was taken to the same hospital for the same cause and whose life is despaired of.

V. A. Simpson and wife of Los Angeles returned to their home today after a visit of two weeks here.

Tom Foley of Somis was brought to town today by Sheriff McMartin, having been arrested on a charge of forgery. It is stated that Foley had been working for John Woltzfeltz of Somis and was paid off with a check for $12. The complaint is, that, after getting this check, Foley secured a blank check, filled it out for $16, signed Woltzfeltz's name, and cashed it in Oxnard.

NEW FACTORY FOR RIVERSIDE.

NEW YORK COMPANY ACQUIRES FIVE ACRES.

Will Put up Plant Which Will Give Employment to About One Hundred Men—Soda Products Will Be Manufactured—Railroad Extension to Site.

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 25.—A deal has just been closed which will bring to Riverside a factory for the refining of the various soda products of commerce, and which will give employment to between seventy-five and one hundred men at the outset.

The American Soda Company of New York has acquired five acres of property near the Southern California Cement Company's big factory at Crestmore, and announces that actual construction work on the plant will begin within a week or ten days. The soda factory will involve an expenditure of from $75,000 to $80,000 in the beginning, and promises to develop into an industry of considerable magnitude.

This company owns 1000 acres at Soda Lake, Nev., a practically inexhaustible field through which the Salt Lake Railroad runs, giving cheap and convenient transportation facilities to Riverside. It is proposed to ship the sodium salts in the crude state to Crestmore, and there manufacture the mineral into the different soda products. About two and one-half acres will be covered by the buildings of the works and the same area will be used for the tanks, which are used in the refining process.

Among the products to be manufactured at the new plant are soda ash, used in the refining of oil and in the manufacture of soap and glass; sulphate of soda, known as Glauber's salt, used in medicine and the arts; hypo-sulphite, largely employed in photography; caustic soda, bleaching powder and various washing compounds.

RAILROAD EXTENSION.

In view of the establishment of this factory, an extension of the Riverside and Arlington Railway from the cement factory to the Crestmore townsite will be built. It is understood that this work will be put under way at once.

The offices of the American Soda Company are at No. 46 Cedar street, New York City, and also at Salt Lake City and Los Angeles. J. F. Lalley is president, J. C. Muller, vice-president, and E. S. Longstreet secretary and treasurer. Hinde Bros., manufacturing chemists of New York City, are understood to be interested in the concern. The chemist who will be in charge of the Crestmore factory will be H. Bullman of New York.

The location of the factory here was brought about largely through the efforts of Dr. Alexander Pattie, manager of the Crestmore Townsite Company.

MISSION STYLE.

The foundation of the foundry buildings of the Pacific Malleable Castings Company, at the intersection of Jurupa avenue and the Salt Lake tracks has been completed and it is announced by William F. Kerr, general manager of the company, that work will begin at once on the walls of the structure. The foundations are substantially built of concrete, and the walls will be of the same material to the height of five feet, above which they will be of frame. The buildings at present under construction are 160 feet wide and 200 feet long, and are in the Mission style of architecture.

An ordinance which has been hanging fire since last spring was acted upon by the City Council today, when it was decided, by a close vote, that poolroom proprietors should not be allowed to dispense soda water or any other drinks at their places of business. This restriction is now in force.

CHRYSANTHEMUM WEDDING.

At a pretty chrysanthemum wedding at the Japanese Methodist Mission on Fifth street, last evening, Chotaro Ito claimed as his bride, little Kikumo Yoshise, who came from Oakland last week. Rev. S. Fujii, pastor of the mission performed the ceremony. Quantities of white and yellow chrysanthemums were used in the decorations, and the bride and groom stood under a lovers knot of white tulle. The bride was dressed in white silk. Thomas Tazima sang a solo before the entrance of the bridal party; and Miss Eva Spaulding played the wedding marches.

PROMOTER ARRESTED.

Man Charged With Defrauding San Diego Hotel-Keeper Says He's Victim of Conspiracy.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Henry E. Miller, promoter, was brought here tonight from Los Angeles, where he was arrested. A woman, said to be a Mrs. Austin, who follows the vocation of a palmist, called to see him at the Los Angeles County Jail, shortly before he left for here, but as she would not give her name was refused admission. The charge against Miller is defrauding an inn-keeper.

The complainant is Mrs. Emma Hoff, proprietress of the Keystone Hotel, who avers that Miller, while posing as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, boarded at her hotel, one of the most fashionable in the city, from January last until July 15, without paying a cent for board. On the latter date, Mrs. Hoff asserts, Miller removed his baggage while she was absent from the house and went to Tent City. After two weeks at Tent City, both Miller and Mrs. Austin left, and the supposition is they departed together. Miller left a board bill amounting to more than $200 owing to Mrs. Hoff.

LOSES SECRETARYSHIP.

Nearly two years ago he came here and secured the position of secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. After he had served about six months he was deposed on account of alleged complaints that he failed to meet his obligations promptly. He continued to reside here, and worked on the good graces of Mrs. Hoff for his board, until she became suspicious, when he suddenly left her hostelry. She looked up his reported residence at Tent City and as soon as he learned she was on his track it is reported he induced Mrs. Austin, who was then established there as a palmist, to accompany him to Los Angeles.

VICTIM OF CONSPIRACY?

Upon his arrival here tonight in custody of Constable Cooley, Miller said he was the victim of conspirators and that the charge against him would not stick. However, he is in jail tonight. He was unable to give bond.

BURK ON TRIAL.

William Burk, who was known here as William Morse, was placed on trial today before Judge Lewis. He shot a woman to death in their dooryard after she had refused to live with him again. It has since developed that the man's real name is Burk, and that he was not legally married to the woman.

BOLD ATTACK.

STAGGERS IN ON ARM OF HOBO.

ARMED TRAMPS ATTACK OXNARD FARM HAND.

With One Eye Bisected and Nose Cut, Powerful Thrashing Machine Worker Puts Assailants to Flight and Is Guided to Town by Another Son of Rest.

OXNARD, Aug. 25.—Milton S. Snoke, a farm hand, staggered into the depot last night at 11 o'clock on the arm of a tramp, and with his features covered with blood. His left eye was gone and one of his hands cut. He had been attacked by hobos along the Southern Pacific Railroad.

Snoke started to walk seven miles from here to Camarillo, where he has been employed on the Gill Brothers thrashing machine. He had not gone more than 100 yards when two men stepped out from the shade of trees and one slashed him with a knife without warning, cutting through part of the nose and completely bisecting the left eye-ball. Snoke is a powerful young man and closed with the two tramps, receiving another serious cut on the left hand as he did so. He managed to repulse the men, however, and then hurried across the tracks and along a line of freight cars. Wandering in the dark he came upon another tramp, who piloted him to the depot.

Marshal Kelley immediately summoned a number of assistants and surrounded the spot where the would-be murderers had made their attack. He waited until daylight and then captured eleven hobos. The following five have been held as suspects: Edward Lawton, John Lennen, Thomas Lee, Robert Snyder, James Bradey and Thomas Burns.

Snoke recently arrived from Imperial and took a position with the thrashing outfit working. He left Pennsylvania a year ago. His eye was removed at the Dr. Broughton Hospital.

BURGLARS CAUGHT.

Marshal W. E. Kelley last night caught Louis Debreld and Francis Dill at the Joseph Moreaux lodging house, from which the two had stolen a number of checks, one of which they attempted to cash in a local store. The total of their thefts amounts to $53. The men are in the Ventura County Jail.

No Opiates or Drugs

Mix a half ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine with two ounces of glycerine and a half pint of good whisky. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses every four hours.

It is claimed this formula will strengthen weak lungs, heal the bronchial tubes, check a cold quickly and cure any cough that is curable. It will break up an ordinary case of the "grip" in a few days. Being free from opiates and drugs, it is far preferable to the ordinary cough mixtures.

The necessary ingredients can be secured at small cost from any good drug store, and easily prepared in your own home. Virgin Oil of Pine is put up for dispensing only in half-ounce vials, each vial securely sealed in a small, round wooden case. Rank imitations have been put out to resemble it in name and style of package. These are essentially ineffective and often cause nausea. Be sure to get the genuine. Look for the name—Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure, guaranteed under Serial No. 451, prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, O.

Old Men Restored

"A Woman is as old as her art; a Man is as old as his arteries"

We can bring new circulation of blood, new, vigorous nerve force, new feeling and power back to men who are only weak in power. Age makes little effect upon the action of electricity—the rejuvenator of life. It can make a man of 70 as potent and as virile as the man of 30. No medicines can restore—they stimulate. Many a man is deprived of the real pleasure of life by only a simple weakness. Electricity removes that trouble and instills vigor and manly power.

Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt and modern electric suspensory is the recognized cure for men's maladies and weakness, and it can cure weak, old men by restoring new power and virility.

Pay When I Cure You

The failure of others to cure you does not prove your case incurable. I have cured cases of men's diseases that had time after time baffled medical effort, and as often been pronounced past relief. The reason for this is that my understanding of diseases of men is complete and accurate, and my treatment directed accordingly. If others have failed, it is to your best interests to at least consult me.

"WEAKNESS"

Contrary to the popular belief, weakness is not a nervous ailment, but is a result of disorders purely local. I employ no electrical or mechanical contrivances, nor do I excite functional activity by the use of stimulants or tonics. I treat by a local process, such as no other physician employs.

MEN'S AILMENTS CURED

My Original Methods Cure Every Case I Take For Treatment

I know exactly what to do to effect a thorough cure in every case that I accept for treatment. Though this is something that every specialist ought to know. It is rare knowledge indeed. The hundreds of evidences of mistreatment that come beneath my observation prove the general lack of a clear understanding of men's diseases and their treatment. I have devoted 25 years to the study and treatment of the very few ailments constituting my specialty, and have acquired the knowledge and skill and developed the original and scientific methods that enable me to accomplish results such as no other physician anywhere has ever accomplished. I understand my work from first to last, know what to do and what not to do, and treat every case without the slightest idea of a failure. I positively confine my practice to the

Diseases of Men

My practice has demonstrated that no ailment peculiar to men is incurable. Failure to cure is usually due to lack of knowledge and improper treatment. You may consult me free of charge and learn your exact condition. I will not urge my services nor will I accept your case until I am positive of my ability to cure you.

Every patient who comes to me for treatment receives my personal attention. Though all my assistants are graduates of the best medical colleges, they act only under my supervision and assist me in minor work.

Weakness

"Weakness" is not a nervous disorder, demanding a tonic system of treatment, but is merely a symptom of chronic inflammation or congestion in the prostate gland. This condition exists as a result of early dissipation or some improperly treated contracted disorder, and requires carefully directed local measures only. By my own original methods, the prostate gland is quickly restored to its normal state, which results in full and complete return of strength and vigor. My cures are permanent because the condition responsible for the functional disorder is entirely removed, and I am convinced that by no treatment other than my own carefully directed local measures is a radical cure of this ailment possible.

Examination Free

I offer not only FREE consultation and advice, but of every case that comes to me I will make a careful examination and diagnosis without charge. No ailing man should neglect this opportunity to get expert opinion about his trouble. If you cannot call, write for diagnosis chart. The Leading Specialist

Sixteen years of phenomenal success as specialists for men only, right here in Los Angeles, is strongly presumptive evidence of skill and good repute.

Our cure lasts. We cure to stay cured. Our large and constantly increasing practice is not due to newspaper advertising, but the fact that we cure our patients soundly and completely, thus making every patient a "booster." Our fees are always reasonable. We make no extra charges, and furnish all medicines free. Our Medical Journal may be secured downstairs at our entrance, 202½ South Broadway.

Varicocele

No case of varicocele ever was or ever can be cure without an operation, notwithstanding the bombastic statements of would-be specialists to the contrary. For the last ten years we have had a standing offer of one thousand dollars to be awarded to any specialist who would cure a case of varicocele without operation. Our operation is painless and devoid of all danger, and we only require our patients to lay off work for one week. By permission we can refer anyone interested to any number of prominent business men, whom we have cured. Before paying out your hard-earned money to any doctor or specialist, interview a few of their cured patients. We defy any one to produce a single case treated by us that is not completely and permanently cured and thoroughly satisfied.

Stricture

This trouble we treat successfully by our improved method, which never fails to bring about a cure. Electricty or electric belts cannot do this trouble any good. When you employ either you throw your money away. Call and let us explain the nature of the trouble and how you can be permanently cured.

Specific Blood Poison

Our treatment for this loathsome disease is mild, thoroughly effective nad curative, eradicating every particle of virus and precisely similar to that employed by the most celebrated specialists of Hot Springs, Ark. Beware of harsh treatment administered by inexperienced specialists.

We Cure All Diseases of Men

Such as lost vigor, specific blood poison, organic weakness, varicocele, stricture, hydrocele, piles and reflex ailments.

Free Consultation and Diagnosis

In The Treatment of Men's Diseases

I employ original methods that fifteen years of careful study and practice have developed. They have proven supremely effective. Like results have been attained by no other forms of treatment. The cures accomplished mark them as methods superior to those in common usage. In the treatment of some cases my procedure is radically different from the ordinary. In other cases it is but partially different, but in every instance I can justly claim originality and distinctiveness. I mention this because thousands of men have employed various physicians and have been treated alike and disappointed alike by each.

You Can't Fail When You Know How

Doesn't it stand to reason that a man who has spent the greater part of his life as I have in treating men's diseases only should know more about it than the man who has tried to learn it?

Now, if you are suffering with any disorder, such as VARICOCELE, HYDROCELE, any contracted diseases, such as BLOOD POISON, ULCERS and SKIN DISEASE, or any KIDNEY, LIVER or BLADDER COMPLAINT, you have got to come to me if you want to get well. I am curing the most aggravated cases every day, and when I pronounce you cured you can rest assured that this same trouble will never again return, providing you take ordinary care of yourself.

Consultation and Examination Free

You can call and see me, talk with me, and be examined and told all about your trouble, and it does not cost you a cent. It proves to you that I know my business.

Drawings by Henry Hutt

By special arrangement, Mr. Henry Hutt, the famous artist, is producing for us a series of drawings, the first of which is here reproduced. This is the first time that Mr. Hutt's pictures have been used in the illustrations of retail store advertising, his work having been confined to book illustrating, art calendars, etc. He is one of the half-dozen foremost illustrators of this country, and his work is in high favor among leading publishers. His drawings of women are especially exquisite—no more charming or dainty type of the American girl than Hutt's has ever been produced.
